STRIKING TRUTHS.

Translated from the German Religion is love to God and submission to His divine will; he who murmurs to do His will is devoid of love to God.

Hopes are colors, solitary rays and the offspring of tears. Truth is the sun, emitting Do right and you need not tremble before man or woman.

Peace of mind gives fortitude to pain, boldness to action, suavity to manners. A devotional spirit is one of the most delightful aptitudes of the soul. It is not a flight of fancy, not a rhapsody of feeling, not a blending of joy and sorrow, when human life is at flood-tide; but a momentary return of the soul to the fountain head of all joy, all peace, all eestasy, all blessing, to its native element, God.

If thou art not true to thyself thou wilt cheat others.

A great mind, in a great heart and soul, moves noiselessly in life. It does not flutter about with ostentatious pride, but keeps sweet counsel with its own heart, and communes secretly with its Maker.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

EPISCOPAL.

-The Liberal Christian is of the opinion that "a good sucession of about a third of the Episcopal priesthood from the American Protestant Episcopal Church would be an excellent lesson for the bishops and laity of that body.

-The Episcopalians in Cincinnati, Ohio, through their Church Guild, are making streamous efforts to plant churches in the suburbs, and they are succeeding.

-The New York City Episcopal Mission Society began its work twenty-one years ago, and has extended its missionary work to all the public institutions of the city, besides supporting the Bethlehem Industrial Society, several day and night schools, reading-rooms for boys and young men, industrial school for girls, and a day nursery for children. Their average annual expenditure is $24,000.

-It is reported that a congregation of Dissenters, numbering four or five hundred, in Wimbledon, England, are about to join the Church of England.

-Bishop Whipple, of Minnesota, has de-clined to accept the bishopric of the Sandwich Islands. His reason is, that he fears a change might imperil the mission in Min-

CONGREGATIONAL.

-As the first fruits of the revival in Lyme, N. H., forty-two new members were received to the church on Sabbath, the 7th instant thirty-seven by profession. Twenty-three of these are heads of families. The interest still continues.

-On Sabbath, the 7th instant, twenty-two persons were admitted to the church in Bristol, N. H.; all but two by profession. Of these, fourteen were heads of families.

-During the first year's ministry of the Rev. M. J. Savage at Hannibal, Mo., more than one hundred new members have been received, most of them by profession.

METHODIST. -The gross income of the Methodist Missionary Society for the year which closed October 31, 1870, was $606,727.21. This was below that of the preceding year to the amount of $877.45. The statement of receipts shows, however, that the two items of legacies and sundries fell off in the sum of $22,358.43, thus indicating an advance in the regular contributions of the Church for the year over the preceding of $21,480.98.

-The Protestant Methodist church, at Myricksville, Mass., has come over to the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Rev. J. G. Gammons has been appointed pastor.

-The funds secured for the Syracuse University since the subscriptions were opened, February 22, 1870, already exceed $500,000, and are rapidly increasing. The scheme of a broad university, embracing full and distinct faculties in the several departments of arts, law, medicine, industrial science, and fine arts, was adopted; and the College of Arts, including a full undergraduate course, will be opened August 31, 1871. For this faculty the following members were elected:-The Rev. Daniel Steele, D. D., Vice-President and Professor of Mental and Moral Science; John R. French, A. M., Professor of Mathematics; the Rev. W. P. Coddington, A. M., Professor of Greek Language and Literature. These three now occupy the same positions in Genesee College at Lima.

-Mrs. Adah Sarah, wife of Rev. E. Wanless, missionary in Turkey, died at Rutschuk March 18. She had been in the mission a little less than three years.

-The New Orleans Preachers' Meeting has decided against the establishment of a colored church, deeming such a church at enmity with the fundamental principles of Republican government, and seeing in it only a small back kitchen church, to prevent colored Methodists from getting into the front parlor of the house of God.

-The Methodist advocates a "Pan-Methodist Council," in the interest of Methodist Union and Foreign Evangelization.

-The Missionary Society of the Methodist Church is two hundred thousand dollars in debt.

-A movement has been made to raise funds to erect a monument to Bishop Kingsley, at Beirut. -In the Non-Episcopal Conference, in Pittsburg, Pa., petitions were presented relative to the appointment of a committee to confer. with a similar committee from the Methodist Episcopal Church, with a view to forming a union of the two Churches.

-The Methodist Women's Foreign Mission Society held its annual meeting in Chicago, May 19. The society consists of eight branches, in the principal cities of the Union. It adjourned to meet in New York, May, 1872.

ASSOCIATE REFORMED. -The Presbyterian church (Associate Reformed) at Mongaup Valley, N. Y., which had been closed for two months to be repaired, was reopened on the 22d of April by the Rev. Mr. Lord, of Metuchen, N. J., who to a large audience preached two most appropriate and able discourses. The church walls have been beautifully frescoed, and the pews grained black walnut. A new pulpit and new lamps have also been introduced into the church, with a very handsome chandelier. The congregation have enjoyed for some time past a season of great peace and comfort, and since the period of inviting their present pastor, have increased the salary two-thirds.

PRESBYTERIAN. -The whole amount of receipts of the Board of Foreign Missions last year was $48,344.65. The whole amount expended was $43,787.74, leaving a balance of $4556.91. During the year the obildren of the Sabbath-schools gave $1954 48 for for-eign missions, and $6622 14 came into the treasury from bequests -Rev. J. A. Todd, D. D., of Tarrytown, N. Y., has gone as commissioner from the General Synod to the General Assembly of > BAPTIST. -Among the baptized converts in the church at Burlington, Vermont, is a young man, a native of the city of Diarbekir, in Armenia, Turkey, named Melcone Turnans, He came to this country several years since, in company with one of the missionaries of the American Board, and is a student of medicine in the University. His purpose is to devote himself to Christian work among his own people in his native land when he shall have completed his studies.

LUTHERAN. -The Lutheran Immigrant Mission of New York city appeals to the public for $60,000, with which to purchase a building at the Battery, to be used for an office and dwelling for a missionary, and a "Samaritan Home for distressed people of every nationality and creed."
