-Detective Reeder's attention was yesterday called to a most distressing case of drunkenness and misery by a woman named Sample, living on Naudain street, above Eighteenth. This woman has two children, one a little girl of four years and the other a boy aged two. The mother has been drunk almost without interval for weeks past, and, of course, has allowed the little ones to suffer the most shameful neglect. Mr. Reeder paid a visit to the house, and there found the children in an almost indescribable condition of filth. They were almost starved, and from the appearance of the room it would have been more suitable for a hog-pen than a habitation for human beings. The drunken mother was out at the time, and the officer removed the children. They have been sent to the Northern Home for Friendless Children.

AID FOR THE PITTSTON SUFFERERS .- Mayor Fox is receiving subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers by the terrible mine disaster at Pittston.

This morning he received from-E. C. Knight. $500 William F. Hansell. 100

National Bank of Pitteton.

The contribution by Mr. Knight was at once forwarded to Theodore Storey, chairman of the General Relief Committee, President of the First

A BAR-TENDER BEATEN .- George 8mith, the proprietor of a beer saloon at Passyunk road and Federal street, was badly beaten by two men named Benjamin Arnold and George Wilson last night, in his own establishment. These men were drunk, and entered the place for the purpose of buying more liquor. The demand was refused, when they went out, and procuring a couple of axe-handles they returned and beat the proprietor in a shocking manner. The rufflans were afterwards arrested, and have been sent to prison by Alderman Bonsall.

STRANGE BUT TRUE.-This morning Lieutenant Haggerty, of the Third district police, found a young girl, giving the name of Emma Duces, in company with a negro named Thomas Freeman, in Gillis court, a locality in the centre of the Bedford street slums. She said that she used to work in Bloomsburg, N J., where also her dusky companion was employed, and that she wanted to marry him. The Mayor, believing her to be of unsound mind, will send her to some Rosine association.

ASSAULTED BY TWO POLICEMEN.-Mr. James McMahon, who works in the stable on Teuth street, below Sansom, appeared before Alderman Smith this morning, and charged Police Officers Frank McGuire and Cornelius Brannan, of the Fifth district, with assaulting him yes-The complainant also gave the opinion that he is in continual fear of bodily harm from these defendants, and he desired them to be placed under bail. The magistrate fixed the amount at $600 each.

AN OFFICER BADLY BRATEN .- Officer Crox. of the Seventh district police, sought to arrest, at Second and Brown streets, last night, a man named William Thomas, who was intoxicated and making a disturbance there. A number of the friends of Thomas collected around the officer, and beat him so badly that he is now confined to his house. Officer McGuire arriving, Thomas was placed under arrest, and has been held in $600 ball by Alderman Toland.

THE MAYORALTY .- We hear that Mr. Samuel G. King, member of Select Council from the Eleventh ward, has positively withdrawn from the political arena as a candidate for Mayor. This sets the question as to who will be candi date adrift again. Perhaps the Democracy will fall back upon Mayor Fox, notwithstanding his recent declination.

RESUMED .- The efficient and obliging Superintendent, T. H. Wilson, Esq., of the German-town branch of the Reading Railroad Company at the request of a large majority of the residents of Chestnut Hill, has ordered the blowing of the steam-whistle five minutes previous to the departure of each train to be resumed, to the great convenience of the inhabitants.

LARCENY .- Rachel Goddard and Harriet Vanzant were arrested last night at Ninth and Race streets for larceny, on a warrant issued by Alderman Hibberd. The accused have been each held in bail.

BASE BALL.—This afternoon the Athletics play a match game with the Olympics of Wash-ington: The latter club has a splendid "team," comprising five of the eld Red Stocking nine.

SALE OF PICTURES,-A number of fine pic tures from the private collection of Count de Marneffis are now on exhibition at the art gallery of M. Thomas & Sons, Nos. 139 and 141 south Fourth street. The collection includes works by Eugene Verboeckhoven, Richard Schn, Robbe, Kreutzer, C. Becker, B. C. Koek-koek, Carl Hubner, M. A. Koekkoek, and other well-known artists, which will be sold at auction on Friday at noon.

THE FRUIT AND FLORAL FESTIVAL at the Arch Street M. E. Church commenced last night. It is held in the chapel, which has been hand somely decorated for the occasion. It is well worth a visit even on one of these hot evenings, for the rooms are cool and well ventilated, and strawberries, ice-cream, flowers, etc., are in abundance. The festival will continue during Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings of this week, and will undoubtedly be a success.

TILL TAPPING.—Two floys, named John Smith and John Leary, are under bonds by Alderman Allison for stealing yesterday a small quantity of cash from a store at Ridge avenue and Jefferson streets.

SCHOOL CONCERT .- Last night the Reynolds School gave a brilliant concert at Concert Hall to raise money for the purchase of a library for distinguished scholars.

BOY DROWNED .- James Schaffer, a lad of six years, was drowned in a pond at the falls of Schuylkill last night. He lives in that neigh-

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

Counterfeiting.

United States District Court-Judge Cadwalader. The case tried to-day was that of Henry Mercer, harged with manufacturing and selling counter felt five cent pieces. The evidence for the Govern ment was to the effect that a Treasury detective succeeded in being invited by Mercer to his house where he purchased $20 worth of the counterfeit: and saw Mercer making them. He soon afterwards sent a Deputy Marshal to Mercer's place, who cap-tured him and all his apparatus. On trial.

Dull. Court of Quarter Sessions-Judge Finletter. The business of the court to-day was very dull, there being but two prisoners in the dock. Several petty ball cases were disposed of. Philip Donegan was sentenced to a fine of $50 and an imprisonment of sixty days for selling liquor to a man against the remonstrance of his wife.

Pilots. Court of Common Pleas. In the case of the Pilots' Society vs. Collins, this court has decided in favor of the right of plaintiffs to collect pilotage from vessels whose masters do not take on pilots, as required by law, except in the case of licensed coasting vessels.

ROBBERY AS A FINE ART.

Sneak-Thieves Robbing Fifth Avenue Mansions with a Trained Pigeon-Dis covery of the Gaug and Their Arrest-A

Marvel of Criminal Industry. For some days past sneak robberies of an unusually clever character have been perpetrated on the residents in the neighborhood of Lexing ton Park and Fifth avenue by a gaug of young boys aided by a pigeon. The modus operand of the thieves was really very clever. They first threw their trained pigeon over the fence or wall into the rear yard of the house they proposed robbing, and then two of them went to the front basement door. They asked leave of the servant to catch their pigeon, which had flows in the rear yard of the house. The request, to all seeming intent a proper one, was invariably granted, and one went into the yard. While he was endeavoring to catch the pigeon and attracting the attention of all in the house to the rear yard, the other thief glided into the front basement with a bag and scooped in all the silver ware and valuable property he could lay hands on and then promptly skedaddled. Sufficient time having elapsed, the trained pigeon was at once caught and the second thief left. The silverware was then found to be stolen. Among the families thus robbed are Charles Guitte, No 48 East Thirty-eighth street; Julia Powers, No. 22 West Forty-eighth street; B. F. Romaine, No. 8 West Forty-seventh street: Mrs. Ayres, No 675 Seventh avenue; Mrs. O'Suilivan, No. 274 Madison avenue; Mr. H. Ford, No. 351 Fifth avenue; Mrs. Lois, No. 7 Park avenue; Mr. W. Watson, No. 70 Park avenue; Joseph Duryea No. 562 Fifth avenue; Mrs. Beobrecker, No East Fortieth street; Mrs. Shelden, East Thirtieth street; S. Bach, East Forty-third street; and Thomas Whittaker, of No. 189 E. Forty-fourth street. The value of the property stolen in these cases varies from $6 to $150, and foot up to almost $1200. Captain Byrnes, of the Twentyfirst precinct, with his detectives Grace and Fallon, arrested Henry Ottenburgh, alias Joseph Burke, alian Henry Oates, twenty years of age of East Thirty-eighth street, who has just left the State Prison, where he served two years. He confessed that he was one of the thieves, and that John Cuminsky and Henry Ackerly, boys fourteen years old, formed the gang. They were arrested. Cuminsky has an elder brother a State Prison bird. Captain Byrnes then re-ceived information that Gustavus Brandles, of No. 179 Spring street, was the receiver of the stolen goods, and arrested him. The prisoners will be arraigned at Yorkville Court to-day, when further facts concerning this latest ingeni ous mode of robbery will be developed. -N. Y. World, to-day.

MURDER IN JERSEY CITY.

A Man's Skull Fractured by a Blow of the

A tragedy similar in general features to the McGrotty murder was enacted in Jersey City last evening, at the corner of Barrow and Grand streets. John F. Kitrick, bar-tender for a liquor dealer there named Shoffel, became engaged in a controversy with a man named Edward Ives, about payment for drinks. Kitrick finally leaped over the bar, and, selzing Ives by the throat, gave him a blow with his fist behind his ear, which fractured his skull. He then threw him out upon the pavement. Officer Wiggins, connected with the Second precinct police force, happened to be near at the time, and took Kitrick into custody. Ives was taken to police headquarters, whence, after his wounds been dressed, he was carried to the City Hospital. There he lay in an unconscious state until nine o'clock last evening, when he died. Kitrick is to have an examination before Justice Seymour to-morrow .- N. Y. Post, last evening the Jury in the Pittston Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph.

PITTSTON, May $1 .- The Coroner's jury in the case of the recent disaster at the West Pittston Mine, worked by Blake & Co., rendered a verdict this morning. After detailing the facts of the casualty the jury declares that the miners met their death from the improper ventilation of the mine; that when the breaker took fire there were no means of supplying the men with fresh air; and that the means of ventilation were not such as required by the act of March 30,

It furthermore finds that there was negligence on the part of employes of the company in not keeping portions of the machinery properly oiled; and further, that the company had employed on the day of the accident a greater number of men than the act already referred to

It finds further that Mr. Thomas W. Williams, Inspector of Mines, knew of these violations of the law, but did not protest against them, and that he has failed in his duty in not applying to the courts for an injunction against the ope-

AN OHIO TRAGEDY.

A Father, Mother, and Son Shot by a Disappointed Lover-The Mother Instantly Killed, the Father Mortally Wounded. The Cleveland Leader of the 29th has the fol-owing:-The most horrible murder which has been perpetrated in Northern Ohlo, an appropriate crowning horror, was perpetrated on Saturday afternoon in Richfield, Summit county, about twenty-two miles from this city. The circumstances are as follows:-

A young man named Hunter, while living at his home in Michigan, became acquainted with and enamored of a young lady named Chloe Gargett, of Richfield. She was about twentytwo-years of age, he twenty-eight. He was informed that a marriage was impossible, peremptorily ordered to desist from all correspondence, and to give up whatever pretensions he had to Miss Gargett's hand. This aroused the demon in his bosom. He swore that he would have her or slay her, and used every means in his power to execute his threat.

Last week he concluded that all endeavors to obtain her in marriage would be useless, and he set about to take her life. He came to this city and stopped at the City Hotel, where he took the stage for Richfield Saturday. Arriving at his destination in the afternoon, he repaired immediately to the house of Mr. Robert Gargett and asked where the daughter was. "It makes no difference where she is,"answered the father, 'you cannot see her. "I will see her," said he, "or I'll kill all of

The father hereupon ordered him to leave his premises, and Hunter drew a revolver and fired, hitting the old man in the head. The old man fell, rendered insensible by the wound, and the mother, who was standing near by, cried out to her daughter:-

"He has killed your father, fly, fly!" The daughter ran up stairs and the murderer aimed at the mother, shooting her in the head and causing instant death. The flend shricked that he would kill all of them, and rushed forward towards the staircase where the daughter had disappeared. The lady's brother, Rodney, here grappled him, and a violent struggle en-sued. In a minute the bloodthirsty man triumphed. He leaped forth from the clutches of the brother, and, raising his revolver, fired at him a shot that put him beyond the power of interfering. Rodney rushed into the street, frantic from his wound, filling the air with shrieks and screams, the life blood trickling from his wound. In the meantime, the daughter, hearing the second report of the pistol, and seeing her brother stagger through the streets, leaped from a second-story window into the street and sought refuge in a neighboring house. An old lady, in whose house she entered, secreted her in a cellar, and then returned to her front door just in time to meet the bloody murderer on the threshold. He demanded admission and was refused. The brave woman stood before her door, barring the passage-way, and stoutly refusing him admittance. He here again declared his purpose to kill the young woman, mingling his threats with the most unseemly oaths, and saying that she should either wed him

It became evident now that Hunter's plan was to assume insanity, and he at once began to play this part as a closing scene in the dire tragedy. A mother lay dead bathed in her blood, a father was mortally wounded, a son was rendered wild and insane from a shot, and the author of all this crime now began to enact the role of madman. With the seven-shooter in his hand, four barrels loaded, he mingled with the excited throng, calling himself a murderer, and extend-ing his blood-stained hand to all he met. "Shake shads with me," said he; "see how it seems to shake the hand of a murderer." "I was deter-mined to kill or marry her." "If you don't shake hands with me I'll shoot you." "Hurrah for a murderer." With these and other cries he staggered about the streets, compelling every one to shake hands with him, and finally wandered back to the house where tay the dead mother and the wounded father.

Here in front of Mr. Gargett's house a man from the crowd slipped behind the murderer and threw him to the ground. An instant later he was bound, the revelver wrenched from his hand, and all power of doing barm taken from hand, and all power of doing harm taken from

The excitement existing among the crowd was intense, and a strong disposition was manifested to hang the murderer at once without trial. The friends of law and order, however, prevailed, and Hunter was placed in confinement to await a judgment for his crimes. The Doctor arrived vesterday during the forenoon. The fate of the son depends more upon his own conduct than anything else. If he can be kept quiet and calm, he will probably recover. The father has a bullet in his brain, and may live some days though there is every probability some days, though there is every probability that the shadows of death will thicken about him before long. Hunter was taken to Akron, to be confined in jail. On the way he conversed freely with his guardians, stating that he did wrong to shoot the father and mother, and only intended to kill the daughter. The family of Mr. Gargett had resided for many years in West Richfield, where the crime was perpetrated. They had here amassed quite a fortune, and lived content, enjoying the esteem of all their neighbors, who now mourn the loss death has made among them. Hunter was of Michigan, and says he is of a highly respectable

N. Y. MONEY MARKET YESTERDAY.

From the N. Y. Herald. "The Stock Exchange and Gold Board adjourned soon after noon, and the only transactions subsequent to one o'clock were conducted in a desultory market on the sidewalk in Broad street. The adjournment was as needful as appropriate, for the close atmosphere of the Open (?) Board, in which the stock warket is temporarily located, was highly detrimental to the comfert, if not the health, of those who were compelled to attend there in the execution of their business. Out of respect to the day the flag on the Stock Exchange was lowered to half-mast.

"The money market was easier, with three per cent, as the general rate on call loans, with exceptions at two and four per cent. Owing to the half holiday a great number of loans stood over undisturbed. Prime commercial paper was dull and quoted at 4½@5½ per cent. discount. Foreign exchange was quiet and barely steady at previous quotations. "The Government list was steady and without important alteration. The currency sixes, as natural in a time of such easy money, were firmer. A leading firm on Broad street is offering the new five per cent. bonds at 1112 currency, which is % per cent. below the price of Mr. Bontwell.

"The dealings at the Stock Exchange were confined chiefly to the three or four stocks which have been the features for the past few weeks. A raid was made on New York Central by the bears, in anticipation of a sharp decline to follow the decision of Commissioner Pleasanton on the subject of the tax of $1,150,000 on the eighty per cent, scrip divi-dend declared in December, 1868. This movement seemed to excite the ire of the 'Commodore,' for he sent his agents into the market and not only ac-cepted all the stock which the 'bears' offered down to 28%, but turned the price upward to 100. Rock Island advanced to 121%, but Reading was weak, and went off to 118%. Pacific Mail was strong in anticipation of the annual statement, and Western Union recovered to 58%. Ohio and Mississippi, after recovering to 49%, fell off to 48% on a rumor that the need had marketed their stock and caused

This medicine, invented and preparred by Dr. J. H. Schenek, of Philadelphia, is proved to be the best remedy for dyspepsia, and all disorders of the digestive organs, that has ever been offered to the public. The great success, and popularity of Dr. Schenek's Pulmonic Syrup are sufficient to recommend this Tonic to public favor and confidence. It was originally designed to be used in connection with the Pulmonic Syrup in the treatment of consumption, but experience proves that it is adapted to all cases of indigestion and debility. The Seaweed Tonic possesses all the strengthening properties of iodide of iron, iodine, or iodide of potassium. It is also similar in nature to the gastric juice, the fluid which nature provides to carry on the process of digestion, and when that fluid is deficient, the Tonic supplies its place. It is the only medicine which can answer this purpose, and, consequently, it is the only medicine which can cure dyspepsia. Other preparations, however they may seem to afford temperary relief, never fail to aggravate the disease. This must necessarily be the case when corrosive acids and minerals are used to cure indigestion; and such are the remedies which physicians generally prescribe for that object. The Seaweed Tonic contains no such injurious drugs. It is distilled from a vegetable substance, which is produced in great abundance on the seashore, the mode of distiliation being similar to that which is used in the manufacture of Jamaica spirits. This Tonic never disagrees with the most delicate stemach. In the early stage of consumption this medicine is generally of great utility, as consumption often begins with disorder of
