FROM THE WEST.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Exclusively to The Evening Telegraph. The Chency Church Troubles -Rev. Mr. Tyng to the Fore.

CHICAGO, June 5 .- Rev. S. H. Tyng, Jr., of New York, who preached yesterday for Mr. Cheney, had previously received a note from Bishop Whitehouse notifying him of Cheney's deposition and reminding of the canon forbidding participation in services with deposed clergymen. Mr. Tyng paid no heed to the letter, but preached both sermons, Cheney reading the morning and evening services for him, and the two gentlemen uniting and administrating the two gentlemen uniting and administering the Eucharist. The congregation was the largest ever assembled in Christ Church.

In the evening even the chancel and vestry were crowded, and hundreds were obliged to go away, unable to obtain even standing room. the morning sermon no allusions were made to the existing troubles, but in the evening the sermon bore more directly upon them, the text being:—"Jesus heard they had cast him out, and when He had found him He said unto him, Dost thou believe in the Son of God?"—John

Mr. Tyng, among other things, said, when the Church interferes with the rights of indi-vidual conscience, illuminated by the word of God and liberty of the Christian in his relations

God and liberty of the Christian in his relations to His word, then the Church becomes Antichrist, for it assumes the functions of Christ, and substitutes itself in Christ's stead.

At such a time of apostacy from Christ and His truth, it is a blessing to be excommunicated, for the "cast-outs" of the Church are found the followers of Christ. This passage was received with applause, which Mr. Tyng immediately checked, reminding his auditors that they were in the Church of God, and not in a lecture. in the Church of God, and not in a lecture-

Mr. Tyng concluded by exhorting his hearers to hold fast to the old Catholic doctrine: -"In essentials unity (in non-essentials liberty), in all thinge charity."

BALTIMORE, June 5 .- M. R. Walsh, of New York, was elected First Vice-President, and J. A. Cushley, of Baltimore, Second Vice-President. John Collins, of Cincinnati, was reelected Secretary and Treasurer by acclamation, and Frederick K. Tracey, of Chicago, Corresponding Secretary.

The Convention then at 1.45 P. M. adjourned

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. Fisher & Son, bankers of this city, to day purchased from the proper State authorities between five thousand and five thousand five hundred shares of common stock of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, being the entire interest of the State in the common stock of the road, at $140 per share.

The sale was made under an act of the last session of the Legislature to meet the indebtness of the State on bonds matured in January last. By this sale the State will lose two direc tors of the company, and the amount realized by the sale of common stock being insufficient to pay the bonds matured, a further sale of preferred stock owned by the State will probably be necessary, when the State will lose more directors of the company.

WASHINGTON, June 5 .- The Secretary of the Treasury will soon issue a circular to customs officers requiring them to enforce the laws of Congress requiring all vessels in the coasting trade, whether sailing from port to port within a district, or from one district to another, to be supplied with a manifest. There having been much neglect among collectors in various ports in enforcing the law in this regard, particularly so where vessels trade between ports with cargoes consisting of a single article of commerce, the Secretary has determined to apply the same rule to all, requiring all masters of vessels to produce a manifest whenever called upon to

A FEW PLAIN FACTS FOR THE CONsideration of the Stockholders of the United Companies of New Jersey. The net earnings of the United Companies for the past few years have averaged but about eight per cent. The funds required to make up the ten per cent. dividends were taken from a reserved fund, which is now exhausted. The net earnings of the last four years have ave raged only something over eight per cent, and for the past year were less than seven per cent. If the lease should not be concluded, a rival road would undoubtedly be built by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. What would be our earnings then?

Would there be any reasonable prospect that they will equal those even of last year? The Western business would be lost entirely, and probably half the Southern. Of the Philadelphia and New York business proper perhaps half might be retained, but at reduced and ruinous rates. The interest of the debt, however, would not be reduced, but increased. A million of debt will be added this year. No lease simply means a compet-

The lease guarantees a clear net ten per cent., payable quarterly. In addition to the guarantee of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company we have the security of our own worse, and the additions that must constantly be made to them. The security is ing road and a diminished business at reduced practically perfect.

Before the negotiations for a lease began the stock had fallen to 113; as the prospects brightened it rose to 130; and had it not been for the efforts of a few interested persons, who are now endeavoring to defeat the lease, it would be quoted at 135. When the lease is consummated those having most experience concede that it will seil for over 140. The commonsense public are willing to pay that pr ce for a steady security, paying a fixed income of ten per cent., while they will not give 115, and perhaps not par, for an unreliable, fluctuating stock, that may not hereafter earn the six and a half per cent, of last year.

But it is urged that State pride should intervene, and not allow these works to pass out of the hands of the citizens of the State of New Jersey into the control of those of another. We can see no force in the objection, even if the facts on which it is founded were true-which, however, they are not.

For many years these works were owned and controlled by Jerseymen. The force of circumstances and larse of time have, however, changed the situation; the majority of the stock, and consequently the control, passed some years since into the hands of citizens of other States, who now own about threefourths of the stock. The objection, therefore, has no vitality or force. The works are already under the control of non-residents. We have cheerfully acquiesced in it, not believing it would be for the true interests of the State to oppose it. To part willingly with the substance, and then bemoan the absence of the shadow, would scarcely become practical business people. A good, honest, healthy State pride has always been a characteristic of Jerseymen, but it has always been guided by strong common sense and not by a false sentiment. As far as the true, direct interests of the State are concerned, the lease will affect them most favorably. Our system of roads, instead of being isolated and detached from the other great works of the country, will be brought into intimate and direct contact with them; freight or passengers passing from or to the State will have greater facilities. Deliveries will necessarily be more prompt, and charges simplified and reduced. This is a matter of great practical importance to every citizen in the State, whose interests must necessarily be directly or indirectly benefitted thereby. As is well known, a marked feature in the Pennsylvania Railroad management is its great attention to its local business. Conceiving, truly, that the prosperity of a road, and of the country which it traverses, were, in a great messure, identical, their policy has been to foster local interests along the line of their own reads in Pennsylvania, and of their leased roads of Ohio, Illinois, and Indiana. The effect of this wise arrangement can be readily seen. Possessed of larger means and resources than the United Companies, they will be able to carry out this enlarged policy by extending all the facilities that the local requirements demand.

Additional capital coming into the State to enlarge and develop our resources is a subject of congratulation, and a short experience will soon prove that the lease is greatly to the advantage of both citizens and stockholders.

The directors voting against the lease were:-Messrs. Ashbel Welch, W. H. Gatzmer, Benjamin Fish, Charles Macalester, A. W. Markley, R. S. Conever, M. A. Howell, D. A. Gregory, and N. Perry. Of these nine gentlemen, seven hold salaried post tions and one a towing contract, and held about two thousand shares of stock at the time the vote was taken.

The directors who voted for the lease were:— Messrs. John M. Read, John Jacob Astor, Cambridge Livingston, John G. Stevens, Robert F. Stockton, H. R. Remsen, George R. Chetwood Isaac W. Scudder, Samuel Weish, Moses Taylor, A. L. Dennis, D. B. Gill, W. G. Cook, W. W. Shippen, Ferdinand Suydam, and G. M. Dorrance. Of these latter, five hold salaried positions, eleven do not. The stock held by them, or represented by them for their families, amounts to over eighteen thousand shares. In conclusion, it is a source of great satisfaction to be assured that the great mass of the employes will be retained in the positions they have so creditably filled-some of them for many years.

It is true the lease may affect the positions of a very tew gentlemen holding some of the highest offices. While this is to be deplored, yet their interests should yield to yours. Stockholders who wish to make their dividends secure and protect their property should send in their assent to the lease without delay. A STOCKHOLDER
