

Evening Telegraph
PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON
(SUNDAYS EXCEPTED)
AT THE EVENING TELEGRAPH BUILDING,
No. 108 S. THIRD STREET,
PHILADELPHIA.

The Price is Three cents per copy (double sheet), or eighteen cents per week, payable to the carrier by whom served. The subscription price by mail is Nine Dollars per annum, or One Dollar and Fifty Cents for two months, invariably in advance for the time ordered.

THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1871.

THE EVENING TELEGRAPH, from its original establishment, has been in the receipt of telegraphic news from the New York Associated Press, which consists of the Tribune, Times, Herald, World, Sun, Journal of Commerce, Evening Post, Commercial Advertiser, and Evening Express.

The earliest regular edition of the TELEGRAPH goes to press at 1 1/2 o'clock, and the subsequent regular editions at 2 1/2, 3 1/2, and 4 1/2.

THE REPUBLICAN LOCAL TICKETS. The use of nominating conventions is to enable a party to select as candidates for office its most capable, trustworthy, honest, and popular men.

The Republican party of Philadelphia contains in its ranks so many voters who recognize the full force of this truth, that it is especially dangerous for its wire-pullers and ring-leaders to again attempt to nominate bad tickets.

THE HOMOEOPATHIC CONVENTION. The twenty-third anniversary of the American Institute of Homoeopathy, now being held in this city at the hall of the Mercantile Library, will attract attention to the system of Hahnemann.

THE PHOTOGRAPHERS. The formation of a National Association of Photographers is the natural result of the immense strides that the art of photography has made of late years towards perfection.

cesses that have already produced so many gratifying results, and will introduce new inventions and discoveries far more rapidly than would be possible by unaided individual enterprise.

COLONIAL OPPOSITION TO THE WASHINGTON TREATY. THE UNITED STATES and the United Kingdom, with their 70,000,000 of people, may well be appalled at the prospect looming up before them.

THE LATE interview between Jeff. Davis and Horace Greeley indicates that, in American politics, the happy period has at last arrived when the lion and the lamb can consort together.

AFTER a series of strikes in many other portions of the country, a strike has broken out among the laborers at Washington.

TROUBLE IN HARRISBURG.

Treachery of Republicans in the School Board. In the Board of Control it will be observed that through the treachery of two members elected in the First ward...

—Recently at the oratorio of Elijah at the Mechanic Hall in Salem, which is poorly ventilated, when they came to the scene of the widow's dead son...
