AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC, on Thursday evening, Mr. John S. Estlin, whose recent personation of "Romeo" created such a sensation among the admirers of the legitimate drama, will appear as "Claude Melnotte" in Bulwer's drama of The Lady of Lyons. Mr. Estlin announces that on the occasion of his appearance as "Romeo" he was not in a condition to do himself justice. It is to be presumed that he has been putting himself through a course of training since, and that on Thursday evening he will be able to play "Claude Melnotte" as it has never yet been played upon the Philadelphia stage. Mr. Estlin states that he is determined not to be put down by adverse criticism prompted by jealousy; and he is right. The critics who have been hired by Mr. Forrest, Mr. Davenport, Mr. Barton Hill, Mr. Walcot, Mr. Craig, Mr. Mackay, and other members of the dramatic profession who are afraid of being overshadowed by Estlin, are no credit to journalism. We are determined that the efforts of these men shall not succeed, and Mr. Estlin shall have fair play even if it is necessary for us to devote our whole paper to a complimentary exposition of his merits. This is a free country, and genius must have a chance to display itself.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Horrible Sequel to a Quarrel Between Husband and Wife.

In the Avalanche, a few weeks since, mention was made of the troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Garrity, of Chelsea, together with the happy re-sult of Squire Miller's interposition as a media-tor in the family quarrel. Keeping a small grocery directly opposite the brick church, they made a good living, and beyond their frequent family quarrels were very good neighbors. Since Squire Miller's mediation they have been getting along unusually well together, and it was hoped by their neighbors that the Garrity family had concluded to DWELL TOGETHER IN PEACE AND UNISON. It was merely the lull, however, which oftentimes precedes the storm, for Thursday evening about 8 o'clock a terrible quarrel broke out between them. They were at the time in the grocery—a small one, as has been stated, which was lighted up with an oil lamp suspended from the ceiling. After quarrelling for some time Mrs. Garrity became highly incensed at some remark, and catching up a "pop bottle" from a box near by, drew it up—in a very violent manner—over her head, as if to strike Mike. She was at the time standing directly underneath the lamp, and in raising the bottle she struck the lamp, breaking it into fragments. It was at the time full of oil, which, igniting, poured down over her unprotected head a sheet of flame.

and clothing. Her husband, with one or two bystanders, rushed to her assistance, but having no blankets or anything with which to smother the flames at hand, could do nothing except to tear the clothing off her. When the fire was finally extinguished she was found to be burat in a most herrible manner. The entire cuticle of her face and body was burnt to a crisp, and

The Indian Peace Commissioners are not satisfied with the conduct of Indian Commissioner Parker, who stands charged by a Con-gressional committee with general incompe-tency. But other matters have been brought to light which discover more than incompetency in the management of Indian affairs by Me Parker, and arraign him for having broken faith with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Reporter—"Will you have the kindness to read that telegram (a copy of the one printed above), and ex-plain what this new trouble is?" I. P. C.—"With pleasure," and after reading, "Oh! it is altogether a matter of broken faith on the part of Mr. Parker." Reporter—"In what respect?" I. P. C.—You will remember that in the month of May the commissioners advertised for a great amount of supplies for the Indians, such as clothing, coffee, etc. At the same time they advertised for proposals for carrying these supplies to the various points of destination in the West, Three concerns responded to this advertisement and sent in their bids at a time and place where not only all the Inbids at a time and place where not only all the In dian Peace Commissioners, but Commissioner of Indian Affairs Parker was present." Reporter.—"And these roads were?" I. P. C.—"The New York Central, the Erie, and the Pennsylvania. When the bids were opened it was discovered that the Pennsylvania Company was was discovered that the Fennsylvania Company was the lowest by far, they offering to carry the freight for somehing like 5 per cent." Reporter.—"What then was done?" I. P. C.—"The commissioners one and all agreed that the contract should be awarded to the Pennsylvania Central Road, and they dispersed with that understanding." Reporter-"Was the contract made out?"

I. P. C.-"Now we are coming to the trouble, Some time after this, about a month, the Peace Com-Some time after this, about a month, the Peace Com-missioners were notified by the Secretary of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company that the contract had never been executed, and inquiring into the reason. An investigation was at once made, and revealed the rather surprising fact that Mr. Com-missioner Parker had, notwithstanding the award to the Pennsylvania Company, made a private contract with the Erie road at about one-half of one per cent, below the rates of the former on the hundred-weight, and upon that contract the supplies are being shipped West." Reporter—"And the Pennsylvania Road, though entitled to the contract, never transported any of the goods ?"

L.P. C.-"None. The telegram conveys a wrong impression. The Pennsylvania Company refused. in the first place, to bid for the transportation of goods, unless it became a matter of comcetition with the main roads. The three roads responded, with the main roads. The three roads responded, and its bid was the lowest, and, according to law and usage, it should have had the contract, as Mr. Parker at that time agreed." Reporter—"Then Mr. Parker has been guilty of breaking his word?"

Reporter—"In what opinion is Mr. Parker held by the authorities at Washington?" I. P. C.—"I can only answer that by referring you to these words of the Committee on Appropriations of Congress, which was instructed to investigate into the Indian Affairs Department:—"To the mind of the committee, the testimony shows irregulari-ties, neglect, and incompetency, and in some in-stances, a departure from the express provisions of the law for the regulation of Indian expenditures, and in the management of affairs in the Indian Deand in the management of affairs in the Indian De-

The Republican City Executive Committee met at the Hall, Broad and Race streets, this morning at 11 o'clock, for organization. Chris-tian Kneass was elected temporary Chairman; Marshall C. Hong and John McCullough, Secretaries.

There having been contests for the Repre-sentatives from the Thirteenth and Twentyninth wards, a committee on credentials was appointed, and the claims of the disputants referred to them. The committee retired, and presented its report about half-past 12 o'clock. The report occupied the attention of the meet-ing and was discussed up to a late hour of the session, when it was decided by giving the seat from the Twenty-ninth ward to Gideon Clark. and referring the dispute of the Thirteenth ward to the ward Executive Committee.

CITY INTELLIGENCE COLLISION.

Steamers Collide-Fatal Result.

Last night at twelve o'clock the freight steamer Helen Getty, from Millville, New Jersey, attempted to make a landing at the lower dock, near Arch street wharf. In attempting this, her steering chain fouled, and though the engine was reversed, was carried by the flood-tide, then running fast, with terrific force against the steamer Edwin Forrest, striking this vessel upon the stern guard. At the same time the Getty collided with the steamer Perry, damaging her catwater. In the collision with the Forrest, the second pilot of the Getty, Mr. William Shaw, of Millville, was terribly crushed about the hips, and Richard Bradford, a seaman, from the same place, was shockingly injured. Medical aid was quickly summoned, but it availed nothing in the case of Mr. Shaw, who died within an hour after the collision. Mr. Bradford was carried to the Pennsylvania Hospital. It is supposed that, owing to the darkness, both of these unfortunate gentlemen became entangled among the deck freight, and could not escape in time when the collision occurred. Mr. Shaw leaves no family.

BEATING BUMMERS .- At 10% last night the return boat from Smith's Island, of which the fearless Captain Smith is the proprietor, was loaded with beer-soaked brutes. They attempted to punch the engineer, when Captain Smith rushed to the rescue, and was promptly laid out on the deck of his own vessel as she gaily crossed the "bounding main." The roughs jumped ashore, and a number were arrested by Lieutenant Smith, of the Harbor Police; but as the mashed captain could not identify his assailants, they were all discharged.

SCULLING MATCH ON THE DELAWARE .- Adam Cornwall yesterday afternoon beat John Glenn in a five mile sculling match on the Delaware between Cooper's creek and Fisher's Point. The race was regarded not so much as a victory for Cornwall, because it is asserted both rowers are nearly of the same ability, but it was looked upon as a triumph of Philadelphia over New York, as Glenn rowed a papier-mache boat built in the latter place, while Cornwall occupied a cedar shell constructed by Lufberry, of this city.

VILLAINOUS MARY ANN .- Last evening a creature "lost to all shame," named Mary Ann Kelley, endeavored to decoy a guileless-souled sallor into her den at Ninth and Locast streets He wouldn't go, and she stabbed him three times in the neck with a pocket kuife. His cries brought an officer, who escorted the sanguinary Mary Ann to the station. Alderman Morrow committed her.

RESCUED .-- John Wilson, a lad aged eight years, last evening fell off the wharf at Arch street into the Schuylkill. From the unpleasant element he was rescued by two officers and taken to his home, No. 1412 Cuthbert street.

LAWLESS SWIMMERS .- Last evening the Schuylkill Harbor Police arrested fourteen young men for swimming in the Schuylkill in the face of a number of people and an ordinance prohibiting such misdemeanors.

ASTRAY .- A stray bull is now at the Seventh District Station-house, having been picked up at 1 o'clock this morning at Front and Vine streets.

TILL-TAPPER.—A young rascal by the name of Allan Eberle tapped a till to the tune of $14 in a Currant alley grog shop. Alderman Mor-row sent him to the shades of Moyamensing.

Thus ended the interview.

MUSICAL.

The National Convention-Second Day's Proceedings-Adoption of Constitution and By-laws.

The delegates to the National Musical Convention reassembled at half-past 10 o'clock this morning at Musical Fund Hall, the President, U. C. Hill, of New York, in the chair.

The first business in order was the reading of the minutes of the previous day's session.

The committee appointed for that purpose reported the following constitution and by-laws:-Article 1of the Constilution prescribes that the name of the organization shall be "The National Musical Protective Association of the United States.

Some discussion ensued upon the adoption of this article, and resulted in the further consideration of the same being postponed until this afternoo

Article 2 sets forth the object of the association as being to sustain the general interests of the profession.

Article 3 provides for the election of officers, together with their term of office.

Article 4 declares that the association shall consist of three delegates from each subordinate association.

Article 5 provides for the raising of the funds of the association. Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the by-laws prescribe"the duties of the various officers of the association.

The remaining sections were read and adopted. after which an adjournment took place until 3 P. M.

RUFFIANISM-A TAVERN KEEPER NEARLY KILLED.-On Sunday night last a gang of ruf-fians entered the saloon of Mr. George Pabst, at York road and Callowhill street, and began bullying and crowding in true rowdy style. The proprietor interfered, when he and his father-in-law were attacked. Beer glasses were thrown around, the furniture smashed, and other riotous proceedings indulged in. Mr. Pabst was seized by the gang, dragged into the yard, and there beaten so badly that his life is at present in danger: indeed, last evening it was not exdanger: indeed, last evening it was not ex-pected that he would live until morning. Two of his assailants, John Mulligan and Barney McNally, were arrested and have been commit-ted by Alderman Cahill to await the results of Mr. Pabst's injuries. These prisoners are to be also charged with a violent assault and battery upon a policeman some time ago at Crown and Callowhill streets.

WHOLESALE THIEVING .- A thief named David Glancy was yesterday arrested by Officer Price, of the Eleventh district, at Dickinson and Cedar streets, in the Nineteenth ward. The defendant was arraigned before Alderman Heins, and held in $1500 ball for a further hearing. Glancy is charged with stealing a crape shawl, coat, and several other articles from the house of William Anderson, in Dickinson street; also for the theft of a clock from the house of Mrs. Price, No. 23 Columbia avenue, and, furthermore, for taking board at the house of Samuel White, at Belgrade and Gordon streets, and stealing therefrom a silk coat and a batch of other clothing.

POLICEMAN IN TROUBLE .- Complaint this morning was made to the Mayor of the conduct of one of his policeman, William Howley, of the Eighteenth district, on Sunday night last. It appears that the officer, while sitting upon the steps of his residence, No. 1136 York street, on that evening, was approached by a young man named James Brady. The parties got into a dispute which euded in blows; during which Brady came off second best. Michael McNaulty, who lives near by, remonstrated with the po-liceman, when the latter beat him also. This is the cause for complaint. The Mayor will investigate the matter.

WATCH THIEF .- William Renn this morning warch Thisr.—william Renn this morning stole a watch for James Long, at Front and Sigel streets. He pawned it for $4, was ar-rested while recklessly spending the money, and is held to answer at the Central Station.

BOARDING HOUSE ROBBER .- Frank Levy was last night arrested on Delaware avenue, charged with having robbed a boarding house at Fourth and Callowhill streets. He is held to answer at the Central Station this afternoon.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

EVENING TELEGRAPH OFFICE, Tuesday, June 20, 1871.

The bank statement last night is unfavorable to borrowers, though the supply is yet ample for all purposes, both present and prospective. There is a large decrease in the deposits, ounting to $1,619,155, and in the legal-tender of $1,098,467. The loans have increased very moderately, being only $306,395 higher than at this time last week. The clearings show only a moderate business, having fallen off $1,333,046. The balances are also lower by $422,526. The loss in deposits is evidently due to several causes, the chief of which are the steady demand for currency among the wool dealers and speculators, and the hoarding of funds to meet Rate the usual July dividends and interest. are steady, and in some instances a fraction higher.

Gold continues quiet and steady at 112% 112%, closing at %.

Governments are also dull but very firm. Business at the Stock Board was dull, but prices strong. In State and city loans no trans-actions. Lehigh Gold Loan sold at 99%, an advance of 14-

Reading was firm, with sales at 58.81@5834; Pennsylvania Railroad sold at 6134; Oil Creek and Allegheny River Railroad at 5234, and Phi-ladeiphia and Eric Railroad at 5834 b. o.; 85 was bid for Norristown and 128 for Camden and

In Canal shares there were sales of Lehigh at 38%, and 18% was bid for Schuylkill Navigation preferred.
