FARM BALLADS.

"Betsey and I are Out" and "Over the Hill to the Poor-house" in Bran New Dresses.

The New York World of yesterday publishes these amusing parodies on two of Mr. Carleton's popular ballads:-

BETSEY AND I ARE OUT.

Go 'tend the door, there, Bridget, and mind what you're about.

I are out:

I've stood the dear old lady as long as ever I can.

And the more I've tried to stan' it the more

Since first we two got married and came down

C., June 6, 1871. ) Sealed proposals to furnish Timber and other materials for the Navy for the fiscal year end-ing June 30, 1873, will be received at this Bu-reau until 12 o'clock M. of the 30th of June instant, at which time the bids will be opened.

The proposals must be addressed to the Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair, Navy Department, Washington, and must be endorsed "Proposals for Timber, etc., for the Navy," that they may be dis-tinguished from ordinary business letters.

To prevent confusion, and facilitate the open-ing of the bids, parties bidding for supplies at several yards will enclose their bids in separate envelopes, each indorsed with the name of the yard for which the bid is made.

Printed schedules for such classes as parties deal in and intend to bid for, together with instructions to bidders, giving the forms of proposal, of guarantee, and of certificate of guarantors, with printed forms of offer, will be furnished to such persons as desire to bid; on anplication to the Commandants of the respective Navy Yards, and those of all the yards on application to the Bureau.

The Commandant of each Navy Yard, and the purchasing Paymaster for each station, will have a copy of the schedules of the other yards, for examination only, in order that persons who intend to bid may judge whether it is desirable to make application for any of the classes of those vards.

The proposals must be for the whole of a class, but the Department reserves the right to reduce the whole class, should the interest of the Government require it, before the execution of the contract. All applications for information, or for the examination of samples, must be made to the Commandants of the respective yards.

The proposal must be accompanied by a certificate new the Collector, of Internal Revenue for the district in which the bidder resides, that he has a license to deal in the articles for which he proposes; and, by direction of the Depart-ment, bids or offers will be received only from parties who are bona fide dealers in, or manu-facturers of, the articles they offer to furnish. The guarantors must becertified by the Assessor of Internal Revenue for the district in which they reside.

The contract will be awarded to the person who makes the lowest bid and gives the guarantee required by law, the Navy Department, however, reserving the right to reject the lowest bid, or any which it may deem exorbitant. Sureties in the full amount will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility must be certified to the satisfaction of the Navy Department. As additional security twenty per centum will be withheld from the amount of the bills until be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contracts shall have been completed, and eighty per centum of the amount of each bill, approved in triplicate by the Commandants of the respective yards, will be paid by the Pay-master of the station designated in the contract, or, if none is specified, by the Paymaster of the station nearest the yard where the goods are delivered, within tan days after the warrant for the same shall have been passed by the Secretary of the Treasury.
