Beaver

VOLUME XXXIII-NO 12.

From the New York Mirror.

[Published by request.]

Stanzas on the Death of Don Mariano

Su'szar, by order of Gen. William Walker The grave is no fit arena for discussion :

nor are elegiac verses the form of speech in which each act should be discussed.

Nevertheless, some explanation is requisite to a full understanding of the poem, and we shall give it in as few words as possi-

Don Mariano Salazar was one of the the unhappy determination of employing

Walker to assist the cause of liberty in Nicaregua, it was his brother-in-iaw, Senor

Salazar, who furnished the means which self-and it to the scene of operations.

Salazar.

eiscount made to yearly advertisers.

shall have prompt attention.

BEAVER, PA., WENESDAY. MARCH 11, 1857.

BEAVER ARGUS. And pressed it to his bosom As the fatal signal fell. PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY By him must the news be broken, J. & J. WEYAND. Let him say they will meet above, TERMS—OSE DOLLAR and FIFTY CENTS, pe sinuming and Advance; otherwise Two Dollar will be sharged. No paper discontinued, untiall arrearages are settled, except at the option of the Editors. and bear both the news and the token Alas! the shock hath killed her Advertisements inserted at the rate of 50 cts. Death pitying sent his dart: per square, of fifteen lines for one insertion—cach subsequent insertion 25 cents. A liberal blessed virgin shield her She dies of a broken heart! To the grave by phrensy hurried, Letters and communications, by mail, One pang and all was o'er-In the bloom of her beauty buried, In Heaven they meet once more.

Of death and of deathless love.

The priests a dirge are chanting, As they slowly move along; The sireets are husbed and panting As ascends the solemn song:-The writer of the following stanzas has "Behold another victim" no desire, in the present case; to enter into the political and moral considerations in- Room for the wife of Salnzarvolved in the execution of Don Mariano . Fit mate for such a lord."

> Fresh flowers are on her forehead. Wreathed by fingers vainly fond; Twould seem as if death borrowed The calm of Heaven beyond:-Across her breast have drifted The waves of shining hair. And her slender hands are lifted In the mute appeal of prayer.

wealthiest, bravest and most accomplished gentlemen of Central America, a member But ah! those marble fingers of the rich house of Solon & Co. Genon. Rich perfume round it lingers Ho, murried the l'eautiful and accomplished sister of President Castellon, by whom he As memories round a tomb :had several children. When Senor Cas-Decay upon it settles,tellon-one of the few men who, of Cen-tral America, who could boast of the pure And on its withering petals Spanish sangro azul in his veins—came to Are drops of crimson gore.

Agricultural Column.

enabled Gen. Walker to raise his battalien SUGAR CANE EXPERIMENTS. in Sin Francisco, and transport both him-After tois again, when Walker had been we have yet seen with the Chines, Sugar never been there before, inquired: Lifed in his first mad attempt on Rivas, Cane. Indeed it is less than a fair test, and when the administration by whom he and was made, as will be seen, under dishad been invited looked on his want of advantages; but the result was the same military prudence, it was to Salazar he tur- as with others. Mr. Buikley's horse eat nel as his unshaken friend, and from him the leaves and stake greedily. Cows can necessary unsuaken irrend, and from min the leaves any starks greedily. Cows can received such personal aid and advice as to not eat portions of the stalks unless they are chopped into small pieces, on account and the Chinese population departed as the continue of their inability to bite them in two.— before victory, and Don Patricio Rivas was nomis Hogs are known to be fond of the stalks nated President and Mariano Salazar to a A gentleman from Massachusetts informed a few times and then re-entered. The us a few days ago; that as provender for spekesman, after gazing around seine time Salezar was faithfully fulfilling the duccatile, the folder—stalks and leaves—pro- lifted up his voice a third time, and thus the of this post, when Walker caused him motes the secretion of milk-increases then he spoke. to be arrested as he was crossing the bay quantity and quality of butter—and in fat e: Fonseca, on a visit to that family from cattle gives a line flavor to the beef! At which he had torn himself in obedience to any rate, and under all circumstances, it Walker's earnest prayers and cry for help. may be regarded as an acquisition of no er, of the convolvelus species, and made it Messrs. Editors :- Knowing that you take a deep interest in anything which promises to be valuable for our country, I The white clouds lie in drifts to-night next his heart when dying, should be conreyed to his wife, who was then eagerly send you the result of an experiment which swaiting his promised visit in San Salva- I made with the Chinese Sugar Millet .dor-a neighboring and neutral republic. Sorghum Sacchoratim.

> Having received from the Patent Office a paper of seed. I planted it was a matter of fidence that it would prove to be worth anything. The seeds and stalks so nearly At vespers with believing minds resembled our common broom corn as to make me feel quite sure that they were

I planted it in hills, about 2 feet apart, with 6 to 10 seeds in a hill. It was greatly neglected during its growth, from an impression of its worthlessuess.

Some time in August there was a chance frost which nearly terminated its growth, and; in fact, completely destroyed some sweet corn graning in the same garden,--The millet was just putting forth its seed? stalk, and the seed was consequently, all destroyed. The stalks, however, were left And calls the faithful there to prayer. standing until some time in October, when -still supposing them to be worthless-I By Indian streams, and swamps of rice, had them cut, and thrown into piles, to get them out of the way.

After they had lain upon the ground for some time. I took a handful of the stalks and gave them to my horse, who eat them greedily-eating both leaves and stalks. About this time I saw a statement in the papers that some rations had made some molasses from this plant. This led me to make the following experiment with mine, although I had reason to suppose that the frost and the exposure on the ground would A SUMMING UP OF THE WHOLE MATTER. hove destroyed any good qualities which it might have originally possessed. I took some of the canes and cut them into pieces about three inches long, when evaporated, made one quart of molasses, till that date. that is pronounced, by those who have tast-frequently, if not oftener, infested by down and ordered a off the step in a menunicative disposition, told numerous parknown and occasional salesmen in second manner, without he supposed to the step in a morture disposition, told numerous parinnier partnur and occasional salesmen in second manner, without he supposed to the step in a morture disposition, told numerous parinnier partnur and occasional salesmen in second manner, without he supposed to the step in a morture was not married, never had the murder of the Broadway; Snodgrass, two or, three ways before junier partnur and occasional salesmen in be stury for that pose by the man (Dr. been, intended to be, and least of all hands were bloody, leave the house and the murder of Dr. Burdell, came to my store hooks, cod-lines, ropes' ends, and other Burdell) who hadst entered the house. The Cunning am, who'he stated, was close the door behind him while the apparance of the blood unon the inside knob. entered the establishment, and, after pecr-

"Cotton seine twine-got bim? "Yes!" was the answer. "How much takee?" "One dellar a pound." "Um! give fifty cent-!",
"Get out!" said the junior partner with menacing gesture, and John Chinaman feptited, followed by his tail and his coun

The train passed and repassed the door The following is one of the fairest tests John, looking around as though he had everal times, and at length re-entered .-"('otton seine twine-got him?"

"Yes." "How much takee?" "One Dollar a Pound!"

"Cotton seine twine got him?" "How much takee?"

much for moral sussion.-Letter to Spirit of the Times.

THE MOON ON THE SPIRE.

Around the moon, whose silver fire, Kindles the old cathedral spire, And makes the cross a living light.

It cleams and twinkles through my blinds, It shines on those who walk the street, It opens heaven to those who meet

"How marvellous the cross," they say, "That crowns the stately Christian pile! It lends the morn a saintly smile, It saves the world from day to day."

To speak your thoughts, but I who sit Above the crowd and watch the moon-I hear from her cold lips a tune. To other words; and this is it:

'My crescent glitters in the air, Above the mosque of Moslem lands! High in his tower the muezzin stands, Pagodas rise, and idols frown! I pour my heathen brightness down, And make the night a Paradise.

Pagoda, mosque and christian dome, I see them all; in all the flame Of worship burns ; God sees the same God has in each and all his home."

The Burdell Murder in New York

The investigation by the Coroner's Jury

Sugar. The servent woman was to fashionable boarding schools, and so petrated by them the instint Burdell su- a gentleman present that Snodgrass was to

If cultivated on so small a scale as, not to warrant the expense of creeting the roll, to the expense of the pick of the expense of creeting the roll, to the expense of creeting the roll, to the expense of the pick of the expense of single and the expense of single and the expense of single and another the expense of single and the expense of sing business engagement hade the day before, he made arrangements and drew a lease to discuss the made arrangements and drew a lease to discuss the made arrangements and drew a lease to discuss the made arrangements and drew a lease to discuss the made arrangements and drew a lease to discuss the guilt on him. It is of out. The Coroner then ordered Captain Dilks taken any meals in the house and had not ing day, (Saturday,) by which Mr. Stansbury, to be signed on the following the guilt on him. It is of out. The Coroner then ordered Captain Dilks to take Shodgrass into custody.

County

Yet risen. Ho had ting into the house in the house in the night at 12 o'cak; and he testified in Bond street on the first of May next sailed directly by any evidence; but by its that during the night is heard no noise.

The testimant of the house and had not ingular to take Shodgrass into custody.

The witness was further examined by Judge that during the night is heard no noise.

The testimant of the house are the contradiction by several other broken English; she said at the time Snod-

The testimony of La four witnesses who gratification at the prospect of getting rid witnesses. beard the cry of material 103 o'clock, not of Mrs. Cunningham, and getting her out. On the head the evidence given by alone fixes the time of the deed, as the cf. the house at that time. He stated, in Messrs. Brooks, Strangman and Ross.

The rest is known. Without defence of all, as against the be (Ross) passed the door Farrel, he says, ness said: "I know'd him just when I came up made against time without the examination of a single witness, he was condemned to instant death by the man he had sacrafic to instant death by the man he had sacrafic and fortune to electate. The case stands without a parallel in the records of the world.

We copy from the Scientific of the salesman; and conditions the face of the salesman; and conditions the was walking sixty-three and sacrafic or the face that she committed the act, August or Septembor last, he was walking sixty-three and sacrafic to be taken as precise, yet he thus states with the attendant out-cry and fall of the act that she committed the act that she was walking sixty-three and sacrafic to be taken as precise, yet he thus states with the actendant out-cry and fall of the act that while he was walking sixty-three and sacrafic the cry of the salesman; and the committed the act that she comm them, as they must then have been awake. dropped by her instructions to her counsel, feet, during that little time, Burdell must This hypothesis at the opening of the in. and Dr. Burdell released from his bail have gone from the street door up stairs, the Coroner's itquest her marriage certific field, two very distinguished members of der? think that tey were false. The clored clared, according to the policeman's words, man's woman rervant likewise was unable "that she would have his (Burdell's) to identify do man who was married as heart's blood." One of the women serv-Burdell, until st summer, some time pro. | gusta ; and that the Dr. told her (the seroceding the fledged marriage, took his | out) that in a quarrel Miss Augusta once meals in the pure which she occupied in had attacked him personally and tore out parts as we are stated; but since that some of his hair. We believe there is no line, and fro the date of the marriage, evidence of any threats made by Mr. Eck had never take a meal in the house, had el against the deceased, but the suspicion refused to emerticles of food and bevera falling so heavily upon him has its origin of this extraordinary case which has caus ed an unprecedented excitement throughout the country ended on Saturday night. they were readily ground through one of Hickok's Portable Cider Mills, with castiron grinders; and then pressed with the parties implicated were powerful pressers attached to the mill. The committed to stand trial. The New quantity ground was about half a bushel York Tribune of Saturday morning gave of the pieces, and the juice expressed was the following resume of the whole affair un of the pieces, and the juice expressed was the following resume of the whole affair up cating by a dor, and that from her obser. Finding herself defeated in this object, and that from her obser. Finding herself defeated in this object, and that from her obser. vations as clambermaid, her opinion was she induced her paramour, Eckol, to per Snodgrass Identified as Purchaser of a The late Dr. Burdell, owner of the house that the relations between Mrs. Curving sonate Burdell in a sham marriage, either ed of it, to be superior to the New Orleans No. 31 Bond street, at the time of the ham and Mr. Eckel were of an intimate or with the view of claiming her dower, a molasses, and some say equal to the flavor murder, occupied the entire second floor, criminal character. It further, appears in sum of between $30,000 and $40,000, as of the maple syrup. It is, at all events, the rest of the dwelling being left to Mrs. evidence that Mr. Cunningham diel sever. Burdell's widow in case of his matural Gunningham. The occupants of her purched square rol of ground planted—if the square rol of ground planted—if the daughters sixteen and eighteen years of duced four gallons of molasses, or at the rate of 640 gallons per acre. Such a ground planted and lodger, Mr. Eckel, snoggrass, and previously to his death of the had been unfortunate in business, had him with that express object; and that the previous to the inquest, Judge Capron read gone to California, and returned without the night of his murder, had made a lease of his nouse, by the signing of which, at rate of 640 gallons per acre. Such a ground a friend of the family Mr. Scoderses and tollars the size of the next day, he pearance, when the plaits were out, though duced four gallons of molasses, or at the see; and boarder and lodger, Mr. Eckel; rate of 640 gallons per acre. Such a crop a friend of the family, Mr. Suodgrass: and would have proved valuable, the last year, and at the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time of the murder, cue servant woman have insurance on the time appointed on the next day, he would, on the 1st of May next, have distance with a straight insurance on the time appointed on the next day, he would, on the 1st of May next, have distance with a straight insurance on the time appointed on the next day, he would, on the 1st of May next, have distance with a straight insurance, the time of the murder was not considered by Mrs. Euckel, as principals. Fourth-That Hiss Augusta Cunningham and Captain when the just of the time of the murder was not constituted in good style, phe, and caused the catastrophe in question. That this murder was person who has a small piece of land may ingle of the frequenting watering places, brought will exhibit a triangular applies when the place of the time the place when the place whe in, that the chief city of California is body, and has iddied Eckel as the man A vast amount of evidence proves conclusive and but no blood appearing on the outside with a decided emphasis.]

frequently if not offener infected himselfactor and in the included by the included emphasis.] odds and ends. One day a John China- Bond st., between and 2 o'clock of that a marriage. That of her and of the edge of the door is conclusively he testimony of Far. his countrymen, ranged tamdem fashion, sincke of burning wen and leather—she was expable of doing anything to in-rell, by whom Eckel is pointed out as the ing around for a few seconds: exclaim. The atmosphere of thight was damp and jure him, and that he was in fear of his rellation. The atmosphere of thight was damp and jure him, and that he was in fear of his rellation. The atmosphere of thight was damp and jure him, and that he was in fear of his heavy, and smoke actdingly held to the life from them, he stated to two witnesses, is, that Eckel came to the door a few stairs to day; I recognized him as the person carth. Between cin and 9 o'clock on on or about the day of his death, and one the morning of Sature, the next day, Dr. of them, his friend and late partner, Dr. Burdell's office try scovered the dead blaisdell, he requested particularly to come and occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual door, lying in small occupy the house with him on that actual the door, put his head his right hand on the inner knob and his help to make a left out the edge of the door, put his head he spoke to me in a rough tone, by which I recommended him a way fiercely and fright danger.

Mrs. Cunningh-m's mily, with the extraction of his tortune; the marks of blood are just where the first a imony stairs to day; I recognized him as the person the heavy for the him on that actual him on that actual him on the inner knob and his heavy for the house same of the door, put his head her pr left the house before reakfast, to fulfill a and moreover, on the very day of his death been, and Farelli's testimony is the only coldress and rigiditypf the corpse and the addition, that she dodged him, watched seems to us to be worthy of serious considdryness of the blood with which its clothes him, listened at his doors entered his room eration, and to be pretty conclusive. But tinized, to see if they were good he said, very ind been saturated, roved in the opinion with false keys, stole the key of his fire of the medical men hen called in, that the proof safe, and had stolen from it a note for murder had been sommitted about that for $600 which she had given him in paytime. The time of the murder having ment for a judgment against another party, been established as that when the Cunning-which he had assigned to her.

Such relations as these are very singular when the cunning in the round the contemporary contains a report of an informal conversation between its reporter and Mr. Ross, wherein the latter states had not long been away from his father's house, that Farrel's testimony is not true, because he spoke so. Witness's store is below Bond when Dr. Burdell entered the door of street, and when Snodgrass came out he went his house, he (Ross) was twenty five up Broadway. He wore, at that time, as hetween man and wifes out the most had converted the converted t gentlemak, when before the inquest, ident now would prove must have been her hus tioned, is that "He was several houses ified Mrs. Chuningham as the woman band. The evidence shows that she and past No, 31 when he heard the cry, and whom he had been married, but was una- Dr. Burdell were on very bad terms at the was proceeding towards the Bowery. He ble to identify the corpse of Dr. Burdell as time he accused her of stealing the note immediately looked back in the direction that of the men, and this, too, although his attention either at the time of the marriage or of the following day when the marriage or of the following day when the arrest; and that they, the policemen distance and that they, the policemen distance of the marriage certificate, had been directed to the peculiar appearance of the street to been directed to the peculiar appearance of the street that on that occasion she used the man's whiters, which then led him to violent language towards the Dr. and de highly probable that Farrell may have ance to day. The Coroner read a long state been sitting there, altho be did not notice ment, vindicating his own course, and instruct him. By the evidence, as well as by ing the Jury that if they were of opinion that these supplementary statements, of Mesers Fickel or Mrs. Cunninguam, cither, or be in the same whoe dead body was before her, ants of Mrs. Cunningham likewise testified Strangman and Ross, as well as by the committed the crime, the juny should bring a the same who dead body was before her, ants of Mrs. Cunningham likewise testifies or rangium and ross, as well as by the verdict against them. If Snedgrass had been than testified many other points, that Dr. Cunningham and her eldest daughter, Auncet, it is clear that Mr. Ross did not see lieved that either of the against the lieved that either of the against of the lieved that either of the against the lieved that either of the lieved the lieved that either of the lieved that either of the lieved that either of the lieved the mert, it is clear that Mr. Ross did not see Cunningham were accessories belong the fact, Mr. Strangman in the street, that Mr. they should find against them also. They Strangman saw neither Mr. Ress nor Mr. should render a true verdict according to the Farrell, and that Mr. Brooks, from the evidence.

The Coroner then announced the arrival of a rather that Mr. Ross may be mistaken, house on the night of the murder. tho' he so positively affirms that Farrell D. C. Walter, affirmed-I live at No. 90, Hopeached witness, so far as regards his No. 31; he was apparently at work at his shoes; sharacter for truth and veracity, should while he was thus engaged. I saw the door of be thrown aside as unworthy of credence. The substance of Saturday's proceedings are as follows:

Dirk, and Re-Arrested. VERDICT OF THE JUST:—The labors of the ferred together, and in a short time rendered the following verdict.

Corones have ended in the vordict of the jury First—That the deceased, Dr. Harvey Burimplicating Mr. Eckel, Snodgman, Mrs. Cundell, was found dead in his house, No. 81, Bond street, on the merning of the 31st of January 1857.

the murder of Dr. Burdell, came to my store He then bought an old one for $3 1 previously came here to identify Ars. Cunningham and Eckel, but did not; saw Snedgrass up breakfasted. Ecke of that morning had would not be a recipient of his fortune; Farrel! describes Ecke's hand to have ness, after which she was requested to go and point out the party who purchased the dagger. business engagement hade the day before, he made arrangements and drew a lease to circumstantial evidence adduced thus far She looked among them and pointed Snodgrass grass bought the knife, she marked him particularly on account of his rough manner; he of-body on the floor without being heard by person; on the 22d of October the suit was that while he was walking sixty-three not swear to his coming into our store to buy a dagger; I remember a young man's coming in and talking roughly; I remember a young man reached his rooms, and there ultered the and talking roughly; I remember a young man mird; and the prigning, and indeed the almost sole object of the thirteen days' in- leged marriage is said to have taken place, to show that Burdell went up stairs to the dress; I should say that this young man, whom the second story, took off there will should say that this young man, whom parties. What this proof amounts to we Mrs. Cunningham employed to conduct his overshoes, laid aside this shawl and they call Snodgrass, looks like the one! saw in may now consider.

that suit, when they were produced before hat, and sat down at his desk, and was our store, but I cannot swear to its being the Within a few hours after the murder the Coroner's inquest as witnesses, that first staboed while sitting. How, then, same; my exesight is poor, but I saw the genwas discovered on Saturday morning, Mrs. several weeks after the 28th of October she could all these circumstances have occurred theman near enough. Mrs. Alviset the previ-Cunningham gave information that she had again applied to them, saying that she had while Mr. Ross was walking sixty-three ous witness, made the sale; I only noticed him on the evening of the 20th of October last, then, in contemplation to re-open or re- feet? And if Ross was mistaken as to when he said, "do you suppose I would give been secretly married to Dr. Burdell by commence the suit for breach of promise, the distance, why may be not bave chanyou had money?" The dagger then sold had a the Rev. Mr. Marvine, her eldest daugh. That is to say, three weeks after she alleter being one witness to the ceremony, ges that she was married to Dr. Burdell, ing him, and to have been too far to dispoint"—raised a little in the middle; the price which took place at the house of the cler- and produces a certificate to prove, she introduced at forms her counsel. Messrs. Thayer & Chat. to look back on hearing the cry of mur- Tuesday or Wednesday of the week previous to the Coronea's request her marriage certific field, two very distinguished members of der?

cate, which corresponded with the register the Bar, that she is about to sue the man Mr. Strangman's informal statement, six o'clock P. M. I might recognize the dagof the Rev. Ma Marvine. The reverend who then at that identical time, as she taken down by the reporter above menger if I saw it it was a little chimes in one handle, and Alviset remarked " I have sold the dagger I have had so long we had only two of that kind of daggers in the store." I was in the house opened—a man put his head out, and said to the person setting on the steps, "What are you doing there?" I saw the man who was sitting on the step leave it; I neticed this fact.

The Jury then retired to consider their ver-The Verdict.—The Coroner's Jury then con 1857. Second—That his death was caused on the night of January 30th, by numerous wounds from some sharp instrument.

Third—That the jury find that Dr. Harvey

The intelligence killed ber, poor lady! She fell into a delirious fever on hearing it and died in a few days, still holding to her lips curiosity, though not having the least conthe flower which her dying husband sent. Up from the purple meadows, To the clittering explanate.

Where close beside the Dead House In an open coffin laid : Come it file of soldiers sweeping. But not with martial air, -Some eyes are red with weeping Some sullen with despair.

comande, where his open coffin stood awaiting him, he plucked a large blue flow-

his last request to the attending confessor that this blossom, which he would hold

The sun-shines bright around them, . Yet are they cold and still ; A fatal spell has bound them To work a tyracts will :-That coffin-though they'd barter Their fate with him they slaymust fill with the noblest martyr Freedom's cause to-day. No les for him are tolling." But the muffled drums are rolling To tell that his hour is nearhe comes with step elated. With eyes serene and just-Crushed by the power created Through his own confiding trust! To the priest, grey haired and holy, " His sele behest is made; lie waves the kerchief slowly-It drops and he is dead! A flash and a rolling rattle One gush of accusing gore And he who had oft in battle Fixed death, is now no more Ah, blood of martyr sinking To the soil for which he fought. To the earth which is glutted drinking Such rain, is with vengeance fraught;-Each drop shall be seed of a legion Of men who will raise to free This fair but ill-fated region, From the reptile warmed by thee!

But with him the strife is over, In the land of his love he sleeps; With flowers his grave they cover, And beauty round it weeps . And in years right soon succeeding, When the tyrant is banished far, Touth's pulse shall glow while reading The tale of Salazar!

He plucked a pale blue blossom The Priest can its menning tell-