I'M GROWING OLD.

BY JOHN G. SAXE. My days pass pleasantly away,

My nights are blessed with sweetest ale I feel no symptoms of decay; I have no cause to mourn nor weep; My foes are impatent and shy, My friends are neither false nor cold, And yet of late, I often sigh-I'm growing old!

My growing talk of olden times, Me growing thirst for early news, My growing apathy to rhymes, Mr growing hate of crowds and noise, My grawing fear of maing cold; All reil me in the plainest voice,

I'm growing fonder of my staff, I'm growing dimmer in the eyes,

I'm growing old!

n growing frugal of my gold, m growing wise. I'm growing—yes
