stream to rise higher than the fountain." He being the fountain and I the stream — There is surely not much egotism in this.

How earnestly the Dr. desires to see me on a circuit. Is it the love he has for souls? or is it to get me out of the way of his practice? I leave the people to judge. What a laborious homily on the duties of a preacher! I wonder if he could not find another sermon from the same book treating on the duties of a faithful husband and father.

It would doubtless be a joyful day, if he could see my boxes packed, and my chicken's feet tied, for another move. The Dr wants me to preach, and he dont want me to preach, he wants me to travel, and he dont want me to travel. How can I please him? It is a sad thing to have a master.

The relation I sustain to the church now is that of a local preacher. And the only change brought about by that relation is, that now I preach for nothing, and labor for my living, while I was a traveling preacher, I was supported by my charge. We are found fault with when we preach for pay. It is said by our enemies, that we are too lazy to work, and are after the fleece and not the flock, that fame and self aggrandizement are the object. If we give our labors where they are most needed, and that gratuitously, and labor with our hands for our living, then we are worldly minded and in pursuit of fame still. If we dont preach it is said we have back sliden, and if we do preach it is only for "expediency" and to enlarge the sphere of our business. Is not such a jealous and suspicious heart to be pitied?

It is plain that the Dr. labors hard to shake public confidence in my christian integrity. To this end he would sacrifice the cause, to kill the man. I have lived long enough to learn, that not a hair of my head shall perish, by the aspersions of a foe. Remember Haman erected a gallows for Mordecai but hung upon it himself.

I am again charged with "embarking on the boisterous bosom of political strife, and preferring the dabblings of political intrigue to the humble teachings of the Holy Word." I do not know what he means by this. I never was a politician. I never delivered a political speech and never was capable of making one. I have denounced slavery and intemperance in my sermons, but that is all the politics of which I am guilty. I never held an office under the government, except school director and trustee of the Beaver Academy, and preachers have always filled these posts.—I never sought either of them, and would now gladly give up both, if any appointed person will accept of them.

I did not know that I should be a candidate for the trusteeship until I saw my name in the Argus. I said I desired neither of the offices. I must qualify this a little. I did not desire the trusteeship, until Dr. Chandler and a few others got one thousand fraudulent tickets to deceive the people and defeat my election, then, I became anxious, and desirous to be elected, not that I desired the office for the sake of the office, but that such a foul intrigue might be justly reprimanded Should the Dr. talk about political intrigues? I have always voted since I had a right to vote, but never took any other part in political life. Can the Dr. not bear to see me school director, nor even exercise the elective franchise?

The charge of captiousness, bickerings, delighting in low epithets and vulgar phrases, and luxuriating in vulgar parlance is neither sustained by my articles, nor my life. In looking over my articles I see nothing vulgar, nothing low or vile. All I ask is a comparison of the two. It would be weak to retort, but the Dr. is the last man who should speak of a contentious life, for when has he been out of trouble?

And now in quitting the field I shall try to do it in a good spirit. We have both said hard things and used sharp words for which I hope we shall both be sorry with a godly sorry, but has the battle been so great, that it cannot be succeeded by peace and friendship? I hope not. I entertain now no feelings of hostility toward the Dr., that would prevent me from becoming friendly with him tomorrow on honorable grounds. Some weeks ago I proposed to the Dr. that we bury the tomahawk edge down, and become friends, he declined the offer then, but perhaps after the smoke of the last hard battle has passed there will be a healthier atmosphere.

Before I close this article I must express my sincere hope, that the day is not far distant when we will ground the weapons of our warfare and be at peace. I repeat my willingness and desire to adjust our difficulties, and this shall be my standing proposition until it is accepted. "The sun shall not go down on my wrath."

J. MURRAY.

☞ Few are aware how frequently Publishers are compelled to insert among their advertisements, statements which they can neither sanction or believe.

A pleasant exception to this disagreeable necessity are the advertisements of Dr. J. C Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and Pills which will be found in our columns. We have published for him before, and always with the feeling that in so doing we in no wise lend ourselves to deceive or mislead the public, for we have had indisputable proof that his words are strictly true, with abundant reasons to believe that his medicines will do all they promise, and all that can be reasonably expected from any medicine. His Cherry Pectoral is too well known in this community to need any commendation from us, and the Pills, we are credibly informed, are not inferior to his Pectoral.—Providence Mirror, R. I.

☞ Terms Cash. These two significant words often, to some at least, sound unpleasantly; but there are many reasons for believing that the Merchant who adheres closely to the cash system in business, enjoys facilities for selling goods to which his less fortunate neighbor is a stranger. This is one of the rules which works equally well for both buyer and seller, and is one of the means by which Carnaghan, of Clothing notoriety, Allegheny city, has built up in a short time a very extensive and popular business in Men and Boy's wear His terms are strictly Cash; but by getting up a superior article of fashionable clothing, and selling it at low rates. His business now ranks among the very best within our bounds, both in extent and character. See advertisement.

May Appointments
DR. H. TUBBS,
Will be at his room, Bridgewater, Lehmer's Hotel, Monday, May 4th, 1857.
For consultation upon all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Liver, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Spleen; also Dropsy, Gravel, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Debility, Dyspepsia, Female diseases, Ague and Fever, Fits, Impurities of the blood, Eruptions, Cancers, Ulcers, and all other varieties of long standing complaints, both external and internal.
For some ten years Dr. T. has devoted his entire time to chronic diseases, treating thousands annually, many of whom had exhausted every other resource within reach. In no case are mineral or other poisons employed, nor does he make sick to make well, or tear down to built up again. The medicines can be taken with safety by the most delicate, and patiens may remain at home, and continue with prudence their ordinary diet and excercise. Many have recovered under the treatment after friends and physicians had given up all hope, the indisputable evidence of which can always be furnished. Invalids, however reduced or despairing, are invinment will be given or expense incurred, without a corresponding prospect of recovery.
We commend the following astonishing case of ulceration of the right lung, involving, doubtless, the Pleura on the same side, to the attentive perusal of consumptives.
Union tp., Logan Co., Ohio, Feb. 1857.
Dr. Tubbs—Dear Sir: When I saw you in July last, I was in a very feeble state, and had a violent cough for the eight months previous, accompanied by a discharge of enormous quantities of putrid matter, such as issues from an old sore Sometimes it was tinged with blood. The accumulation of matter in the chest became so great as to cause an enlargement externally of the breast or side. When the abscess broke the flow of matter was so profuse as nearly to cause suffocation.
After expectorating thus freely, swelling would subside The pus would then gradually collect again, producing the same fulness, and followed by a most copious discharge as before.
This continued for about four months and until after I commenced your treatment. I was reduced in flesh, had nigh sweats, and my ankles and lower limbs swelled so large that bandaging was resorted to in order to reduce it. My cough was continuous, some nights depriving me almost altogether of rest or sleep. Improvement was gradual but continued after seeing you until I got entirely rid of my sweats, cough and expectoration, also the enlargement of the side, and am again as fleshy as is usual for me when in health: So far the severe weather of winter has produced no return of my old symptoms, and health and strength remain comfortably good. I had no expectation of ever again being as well as I now am. I now furnish this that others may know what means were employed during my recovery.—Having resided forty years in Logan county, I am well known to its citizens, to whom reference may be had. Yours Truly,
Feb. 18, 1856. SAMUEL MOORE.

THE MEDICINE OF THE MILLION
PHILOSOPHY AND FACT.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
THE EXCITING CAUSE OF SICKNESS.
The blood is the life-sustaining agent. It furnishes the components of flesh, bone, muscle, nerve and integument. The stomach is its manufactory, the veins its distributors, and the intestines the channel through which the waste matter rejected in its productions is expelled. Upon the stomach, the circulation and the bowels, these Pills act simultaneously, relieving indigestion, purifying the fluids, and regulating the excretions.
THE NATIONAL COMPLAINT.
Dyspepsia is the most common disease among all classes in this country. It assumes a thousand shapes, and is the primary source of innumerable dangerous maladies; but whatever its type or symptoms, however obstinate its resistance to ordinary preparations, it yields readily and rapidly to this searching and unerring remedy.
BILIOUS AFFECTIONS.
The quantity and quality of the bile are of vital importance to health. Upon the liver, the gland which secretes this fluid, these Pills operate specifically, infallibly rectifying its irregularities, and effectually curing Jaundice, Bilious Remittants, and all the varieties of disease generated by an unnatural condition of gorhaet, n
BOWEL COMPLAINTS
Unless the bowels perform their functions properly, the whole body suffers. Tens of thousands die annually of Dysentery, Diarrhœa Chronic Constipation, and other diseases of these waste pipes of the system. The effect of the Pills upon all intestinal disorders, whether casual or epidemic, is a phenomenon in medicine. By following the printed directions, the most alarming cases of bowel complaint are promptly controlled.
A WORD TO FEMALES.
The local debility and irregularities which are the especial annoyances of the weaker sex, and which, when neglected, always shorten life, are relieved for the time being, and prevented for the time to come, by a course of this mild but thorough alternative.
Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:

Asthma,	Diarrhœa,	Indigestion,
Bowel Comp'ts,	Dropsy,	Influenza,
Coughs,	Debility,	Inflammation,
Colds'	Fever and Ague,	Veneral Affe'n
