

Portland, O. T., Aug. 20, 1857. The Convention of delegates to frame a Constitution for the State of Oregon, convened on Monday last...

The returns of the election for Governor and other State officers and Members of the Legislature were incomplete on the sailing of the steamer from San Francisco...

At the gold mines in Walker's valley, and on Walker's river there were between 100 and 150 miners engaged in washing and prospecting...

There was no item of the news carried to New York by the steamer leaving here to-day that will attract much attention...

The vote upon the question of calling a Constitutional Convention is now not accurate, but we shall exercise our national discretion in guess...

The large majority cast for the People's ticket, amounting on the average to about 2,000 votes, shows conclusively that the people are still firm in the great purpose of reform...

The tons of feeling in the business world seems to be healthy. One of the most flourishing in the mines has been severely visited and nearly destroyed by fire...

It affords us especial pleasure to mention here that a spacious and elegant pavilion has been erected in this city...

We have a steady stream of news from India. The loss of human property on the one hand, and of human suffering on the other, has not been confined to the accounts which our papers have published...

Of the progress of the war the reports are not very promising, although the British troops had won some brilliant victories over vastly superior forces of the natives...

But great as is the danger, and arduous as is the task to be performed, we are still confident that the obstinate course of the English nation is fully able to perform it...

The enlightened nations of the world deeply sympathize with England in her trouble, because they feel that she is fighting not only to support her pride and maintain her power...

SLAVERY IN OREGON.—Our exchanges from the Pacific Coast compel us to the belief which we have before hesitated to admit, that the Democracy, who are in the ascendancy in that territory...

THE CAUSE OF OUR TROUBLES.—If any one wishes to see, at a glance, the real cause of our monetary troubles, let him read the annexed statement just made by the N. Y. Custom House.

A quarterly statement, issuing from the Custom House of this port, contains the following statement of receipts during the quarter ending Sept. 30...

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1857.

Improvements at Darlington.—During a flying visit to Darlington, last week, we were struck with the improvements that had been made within the space of a year or two...

The Flouring Mill of Mr. Samuel O. Caughy, has also undergone a marked improvement. Hitherto the mill has labored under serious disadvantages on account of low water level...

PLOWING MATCH.—The Plowing Match for the South side of the River, came off on the farm of Mr. James Warnock, on Hopeville township, on Friday last...

A SPLENDID ANIMAL.—Mr. George M. Young, of Big Beaver township, has a calf which probably can not be excelled in the county, and may not be even in the State...

THE REPUBLIC.—A new paper with the above head has just been established in Washington City, D. C. by George M. Weston, Esq., and Daniel R. Goodloe.

Who has not heard of Burhove's Holland Bitters? Simple in its composition, pleasant to the taste, and truly wonderful in its effect, its popularity cannot be wondered at...

At the Pension Bureau, in Washington, during September, there were 1256 applications received for bounty land warrants, and 1626 warrants for certificates issued.

WILMOT. PACKER

Table with columns for Wilmot and Packer, listing candidates and their respective counts.

Packer Elected.—Returns from other parts of the State are scattered, but they show too plainly that Packer is elected Governor by a large majority.

A BLUNT CONCLUSION.—The N. York Sun declares clearly, but with great calmness: "We are becoming a nation of vain, extravagant fools."

RESUMPTION OF SPECIE PAYMENTS.—The Senate met at 9 o'clock this evening. Resolutions of thanks to the Speaker and other officers adopted.

KANSAS ELECTION RETURNS.—St. Louis, Oct. 10.—From a gentleman just from Kansas, it is learned that Jefferson county is largely Republican.

THE MISFORTUNES OF MITCHELL.—The course of true love never did run smooth, and the tender history of Mr. J. Mitchell's wooing of the "Sunny South" is not, it seems, to make an exception to this ancient rule.

THE MISFORTUNES OF MITCHELL.—The course of true love never did run smooth, and the tender history of Mr. J. Mitchell's wooing of the "Sunny South" is not, it seems, to make an exception to this ancient rule.

Journal of the Hill & Co. Bankers, No. 17th and Wood Streets, for the following accurate list of suspended banks.

Table listing suspended banks such as Bank of Hallowell, Bank of Bangor, etc.

DOINGS AT HARRISBURG.—The Senate was not in session this afternoon. That body met in its regular session on Tuesday...

THE HOUSE.—The latter body laid the Senate bill upon the table. The effect of this motion in our House of Representatives is to permit the bill to remain subject to call at any time.

THE HOUSE.—The latter body laid the Senate bill upon the table. The effect of this motion in our House of Representatives is to permit the bill to remain subject to call at any time.

THE HOUSE.—The latter body laid the Senate bill upon the table. The effect of this motion in our House of Representatives is to permit the bill to remain subject to call at any time.

THE HOUSE.—The latter body laid the Senate bill upon the table. The effect of this motion in our House of Representatives is to permit the bill to remain subject to call at any time.

THE HOUSE.—The latter body laid the Senate bill upon the table. The effect of this motion in our House of Representatives is to permit the bill to remain subject to call at any time.

On the 4th of October, by Rev. J. Murray, Mr. William Hilliard of Columbia on Ohio, to Miss Ophelia Williams of the same place.

On the 5th of the same, by P. Torrence, of Wellsville, Ohio, to Miss Elizabeth Edwards of Beaver, Pa.

On the 7th of the same, by Robert M. Curly, of Harrisville, Ohio, to Miss Catharine Long of the same place.

On the 8th of the same, by James Trues, of Freedom, to Miss Mary Ann Jones of Moon Run.

On the 13th of Sept., Mary Benton, in the 77th year of her age, died in a happy manner.

On the 13th of Sept., Mrs. Mary Benton, in the 77th year of her age, died in a happy manner.

On the 13th of Sept., Mrs. Mary Benton, in the 77th year of her age, died in a happy manner.

On the 13th of Sept., Mrs. Mary Benton, in the 77th year of her age, died in a happy manner.