OF JAMES G. BIRNEY.

James G Birney died at Ragleswood, near Perth Amboy, N. J., on Tuesday, evening. He was born in 1793, at Danville, Kentucky. His father, a native of Ireland, was a man whose enterprise had accumulated wealth, which, employed with generosity, conferred upon him popularity and social position. His mother was a beautiful and accomplished American lady of the name of Reed.

At the age of nineteen, two years after a distinguished graduation at Nassau Hall, New Jersey, Mr. Birney became a student in the office of Mr. Dallas, at Philadelphia.

Returning to his native State in 1814, he commenced the practice of law, and at the age of twenty-two was chosen member of the Legislature. At this time he contracted a marriage with a lady of great personal attractions and distinguished family. Three years after he became a planter in Alabama, and the owner of thirty-five slaves. Subsequently resuming the practice of his profession at Huntsville, he gathered an extensive and profitable business. Just before his return to Kentucky he served with distinction in the Legislature of Alabama.

Mr. Birney's career attracts peculiar interest from the beginning of his connection with the anti-slavery movement. Early in life the wrongs inflicted by the whites on the Indians touched his heart, and called out his indignant eloquence both of tongue and pen. Sympathy for one suffering class of human beings naturally led to sympathy for another; and accordingingly he was soon greatly interested in the welfare of the negro. The plan of emancipation which at first seemed to him the most feasible was that of the colonizationist, and to advocate their views he abandoned a lucrative and honorable profession.

In 1833 he caused a deed of emancipation for the six slaves he brought with him from Alabama, to be entered at the office of the County Court for the county where he resided, and announced his intention of starting an anti-slavery newspaper in the State of Kentucky. When no printer could be persuaded to undertake the mechanical part of the enterprise there, he commenced the publication in Ohio, but not without exciting dangerous hostility.—The recital of the perils to which he and his friends were exposed is almost incredible, and shows the change of sentiment which has since taken place to make Ohio one of the freest in sentiment of the western States.

Just before the death of his father, Mr. Birney caused such disposition to be made of the parental estate, that all the slaves, twenty-one in number, should fall to him; and on the occurrence of that event he set them at liberty, making suitable provision for their comfort. About this time his wife, Agatha, the mother of eleven children, of whom, we believe, five are still living.

In 1840 Mr. Birney visited England, and took a prominent part in the anti-slavery movements which then agitated that country. In 1841 he married the sister-in-law of Hon. Gerrit Smith, a lady of the family of Fitzhugh, who survives to cherish his memory.

In 1844 he was nominated for the Presidency by the "Liberty party," and the vote polled for him being chiefly substracted from that of Mr. Clay, defeated that statesman.

A few years since he removed from Michigan to New Jersey, in order that he might end his days among the friends of the reform to which he had devoted his prime; and that his youngest son might enjoy the advantage of Mr. Weld's school at Eaglewood.—New York Post.

WHAT WILL CONGRESS DO.

The language of the Washington Union in reference to the last Kansas swindle leaves no doubt that the admission of that Territory under the pro-slavery Constitution will form an administration measure and as such will be brought forward in the forthcoming Message. But it is not so certain that the measure can be engineered through Congress. The Democrats have a good working majority in both Houses, and could carry any measure upon which they are united. But there are signs of division and rebellion in the camp. The villany looking to this Lecompton scheme is so glaring, so monstrous, that it is denounced in severe terms by some of the most prominent organs of the Democratic party. Among these are Col. Forney's Philadelphia Press, and the Chicago Times, the latter generally understood to speak for Senator Douglas, although that gentleman has given no public expression of his views. "There is no honest submission of the Constitution to the action of the people," says the Press; "it is provided that they may vote for the Constitution with slavery," or for the Constitution without slavery;" but they cannot vote against the Constitution, no matter how much they may be opposed to its provisions." And the editor expresses the hope that no Pennsylvania member to Congress will give his vote for the minority Constitution when it comes before that body.

The Chicago Times is no less explicit in its condemnation of the scheme. It acknowledges that the Free State party are large in the majority, and that to force a pro-slavery Constitution upon them would be a fraud and an outrage.

Now, if this is the feeling of a considerable portion of the Northern Democracy, there is room to hope that the Administration cannot command a majority in the lower House, on the question of endorsing the action of the Lecompton Convention. There are fifty four Democratic Representatives from the North in the Thirty-fifth Congress, and if some eighteen or twenty of these vote with the opposition against the Kansas fraud, the Administration will be defeated, and the whole scheme falls to the ground. But that so many Democrats will have nerve enough to oppose the President on any issue may well be questioned, and we await the result with very little hope of justice to Kansas.—Pittsburgh Journal.

New Orleans Nov. 30.—Nicaragua has declared war against Costa Rica. A proclamation signed by Martinez and Jones, claims the transit route, and the district of Guanacosta. Martinez takes charge of the army. Col Canty had demanded the surrender of Fort San Carlos to Costa Rica, threatening a blockade in case of refusal.—The Fulton is at Boca del Torres watching for Walker.

BENTON VS. THE DRED SCOTT DECISION.

The veteran Benton yet retains that old leaven of honesty in him which was also in the statesmen of the generation to which he belongs. He has recently written a letter to ex-Chief Justice George Robertson, of Kentucky, who has lately published in the National Intelligencer his views against the decision of the Supreme Court touching the Dred Scott case. Mr Benton agrees with the ex-Judge entirely, and in the course of his letter he says:

"I mean what I say, when I say the Supreme Court had as well been looking into Robinson Crusoe as looking into the Constitution of the United States to find the power of Congress to legislate for Territories; for it is not there, but in the ordinance of '87, adopted by the Constitution and by the first Congress under Washington, and in their right as sovereign proprietors, having the right to govern what they have a right to acquire, and become their duty under the State cession acts and under the treaties of cession. The "needful rules and regulations clause" as the Court said, gave no power to govern the Territories; it only applied to property, and that property of the United States—its territory, id est, land, and its other property, id est, personal estate. It conferred no powers of government, and that for the reason known to everybody at the time, and to nobody (hardly) now videlicet, because the government of the Territories was provided for in another place—namely, in the ordinance of 1787, and protected by a clause in the Constitution, and adopted by Congress August 7th 1789, and in the right of sovereign proprietors. The Court looked in the wrong place to find the power of Congress to legislate for Territories.

I was breaking down under the appalling attack which fell upon me when I was writing the "Examination," and had to leave some heads unfinished, and also to add some part after I had given up this work. My physician, Dr. May, saw with astonishment that I rose from what he knew I considered the bed of death, (and which he feared to be so,) and went to my table and wrote. I was adding something to the "Examination," and could hardly refrain from a postscript: "This is my political testament, written with a dying hand." Well! I did not die, but I have to; and will die upon the truth and justice of what I wrote. *

It is a long time since we saw each other and what is called politics have sadly run down since that time, and especially in the last Presidential term, presenting but little for the attraction of any man who has nothing but the public good in view; but here is a question of a new kind, national and elevated, upon which all who are for the Constitution as our fathers made it, and as the next generation administered it, (and that without distinction of party or default of a man,) may come together and stand. For one, I can give no political aid or comfort to any one man or party, in any future election who shall uphold the opinion of the Supreme Court in declaring the nullity of the Missouri Compromise; and in decreeing the self extension of the Constitution to Territories, carrying Slavery with it, and preventing Congress and the people of the Territory from saying yea or nay to its introduction or repulsion.

I am now well recovered, and working as usual, and expect to finish the abridgment next Summer, and then to add another volume to the two of the Thirty Years' View, bringing it down to 1860, if I live that long; at all events, to the time of the Pierce Administration if we must call by his name an Administration in which he was inoperative, and in which nullifiers, disunionists and renegades used his name and his power for their own audacious and criminal purposes. Respectfully,

T. H. BENTON.

Later from Europe.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The steamer Africa arrived last night with Liverpool dates the same as the Vanderbilt. She brings nearly $350,000 in specie.

The official announcement allowing the exportation of grain and flour from France was followed in Prussia by an advance of 12 per cent. on flour.

The Paris Bourse did not respond to the buoyancy of the English money market.

Further details from the Indian news show that the relief of Lucknow was only partially accomplished. Havelock's position was considered critical.

The emperor of France has written a letter to his Minister of France discussing the financial question; he is pained to see the public credit injured by chimerical fears and by the propagation of remedies for an evil which exists only in the imagination, and begs that the minister will deny peremptorily all the absurd projects attributed to the government, affirming that there is no country in Europe where the public credit rests upon a more extensive and solid basis. The letter had but little effect.

The last monthly returns of the Bank of France show less than twenty millions of francs in specie.

The Austrian Minister of Finance proposes to meet the financial difficulty by the issue of treasury bills to the amount of one hundred millions of florins.

The decree abolishing serfdom in Russia is to be published on the 17th of December. The Legislative body is convoked for the 28 November.

The Vienna money market is very heavy. The premium on gold has increased.

The steamer Emeu has arrived at Suez with Melbourne dates to Sept. 17th, and £640,080 in gold. The gold advices are very encouraging.

The steamers Lady Bird and Champion came in collision at Cape Otway; the latter foundered, and forty lives were lost.

Damaging floods had occurred in New South Wales.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Gov. Walker openly declared himself opposed to the action of the Lecompton Convention. He says that the only proper course is to submit the whole Constitution to the people. He had an interview with the President today upon the subject. Mr. Buchanan, as at present advised, is inclined to sustain the Convention.

Reliable advices from Chicago state that Senator Douglas agreed with Gov. Walker and will oppose the Lecompton Constitution in the Senate.

☞It has been ascertained by carefully conducted experiments, that one bushel of corn will make a little over ten and a half pounds of pork, gross. Taking this result as a basis, the following deductions are made, which farmers would do well to lay aside for future reference. The Albany Argus says:

When corn costs 12½ cents per bus'l pork costs 1¼ cents per pound.

When corn costs 17 cts. per bushel, pork costs 2 cents per pound.

When corn costs 25 cts. per bushel pork costs 3 cents per pound.

When corn costs 33 cts. per bushel pork costs 4 cents per pound.

When corn costs 50 cts. per bushel pork costs 5 cents per pound.

The following statements show what the farmer realises on his corn, when sold in the form of pork:

When pork sells for 3 cts. per pound, it brings 35 cents per bushel in corn.

When pork sells for 4 cts. per pound, it brings 32 cents per bushel in corn.

When pork sells for 5 cts. per pound it brings 45 cents per bushel in corn.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Encrusted Sores—Few external disorders are more loathsome than this. It is, however, very common, especially among children. Sometimes the face, sometimes the head, and in many instances the whole surface of the body is covered with scabious ulcers.—Scoffula is generally at the root of this disgusting complaint; but whatever their origin, those excrescences are speedily removed by the regular application of the Ointment. Scurvy frequently develepes itself in the same way, and therefore no vessel should leave port without a supply of this matchless preparation. The Pills, from their powerful detergent action upon the animal fluids, facilitate the cure of external diseases, and for all complaints of the stomach and its dependencies, are absolutely infallible.

A HOLLANDER'S TESTIMONY.—Jacob Binskes, living in the Holland settlement of Sheboygan, Wisconsin, says: "After suffering for some time the misery attending an utter prostration of mind and body, I have been restored by using BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS, to perfect health."

The fact of this remedy being in such high repute among the Hollanders in Wisconsin, Michigan, New York, in fact in every Holland settlement in the U. States, argues much in its favor.

Try it—for Chronic or Nervous Debility or any Nervous, Rheumatic, or Neuralgic affection.

HAIR RESTORATOR.—Prof. Wood advertises in our columns his valuable medicine for restoring hair, an for the prevention of baldness, &c. This remedy has been used quite extensively, and with great success. Hundreds, nay, thousands have used it, and are willing to testify to its efficacy. Read the advertisement—go at once and procure a bottle, and prove its virtue. Our good old bald headed bachelor friends should embrace this opportunity to cover their pates with a coat of rich, luxuriant hair.—[Indianapolis Locomotive.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

ALL persons knowing themselves indebted to the estate of Charles Bruce, deceased, late of Hopewell township, Beaver Co. December Appointment.

DR. H TUBBS,

Will be at his room, Bridgewater Lehmer's Hotel, Wednesday, Dec. 16, 1857.

For consultation upon all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart, Liver, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Spleen; also Dropsy, Gravel, Rheumatism, Nervousness, Debility, Dyspepsia, Female diseases, Ague and Fever, Fits, Impurities of the blood, Eruptions, Cancers, Ulcers, and all other varieties of long standing complaints, both external and internal.

For some ten years Dr. T. has devoted his entire time to chronic diseases, treating thousands annually, many of whom had exhausted every other resource within reach. In no case are mineral or other poisons employed, nor does he make sick to make well, or tear down to built up again. The medicines can be taken with safety by the most delicate, and patiens may remain at home, and continue with prudence their ordinary diet and exercise. Many have recovered under the treatment after friends and physicians had given up all hope, the indisputable evidence of which can always be furnished. Invalids, however reduced or despairing, are invited to call, and may be assured that no encouragement will be given or expense incurred, without a corresponding prospect of recovery.

☞Those afflicted with Rhumatism or kindred affections, will do well to read the following from Mr Caskey:

SALT RHEUM RADICALLY CURED.

Mrs. L Rhumigh, of Beaver, Pa., cured of Salt Rheum of eight years standing. It was of a most painful character, covering the entire surface of the hands, and portions of the arms and person. First called nearly eight years ago. In four months the skin became soft and smooth, remains entirely free from disease to this time. The above case is selected because one of the first cured in the West, and best shows its permanency. Those who have been similarly affected and cured, reside in the vicinity of nearly every appointment, to whom reference can be given. Equal success has attended the treatment of White Swellings, Scrofula, Abcesses and Fever Sores, some of which have been noticed in the monthly reports. In the treatment of all such, we rely mainly upon internal remedies that are calculated to neutralize the acrid substances, supporting diseases, and by exciting to healthful activity, the skin and other secretory organs, to force noxious excrements to escape by natural channels; hence the cure is radical without deletion, and instead of endangering the lungs, as a superficial healing of ulcers or scattering of humors invariably does, it serves to protect and strengthen those vital parts.

"NO SUCH WORD AS FAIL."

A RESISTLESS REMEDY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

CIRCULAR TO THE SICK.

The first hospital surgeons and medical publicists of Europe, admit the unparalleled anti-inflammatory and healing properties of this Ointment; governments sanction its use in their naval and military services; and the masses in this country and throughout the world repose the utmost confidence in its curative properties. It penetrates the sources of inflammation and corruption which underlie the external evidences of disease, and neutralize the fery elements which feed and exasperate the malady.

RHEUMATISM, SCROFULA, ERYSIPELAS, These are among the most terrible and agonizing diseases of the muscles, the fleshy fibre and the skin; yet in their worst forms, and when seemingly incurable, they invariably disappear under a persevering application of this soothing, healing, antipote to pain and inflammation.

SALT RHEUM, FEVER SORES, STIFF JOINTS.

In cases of Salt Rheum, where medical waters, lotions, and every recipe of the pharmacopœa have proved useless, the Ointment will accomplish a thorough cure. Fever Sores heal quickly under its influence, and its relaxing effect upon contracted sinews is truly wonderful.

DISCHARGING ULCERS.

A most remarkable and happy change is produced in the appearance of malignant ulcers after a few applications of this Ointment.—The surrounding redness vanishes, and granules of healthy flesh begin to take the place of the discharged matter. This process goes on more or less rapidly, until the orifice is filled up with sound material, and the ulcer radically cured.

A WORD TO MOTHERS.

The young are the most frequent sufferers from external injuries, and therefore every mother should have this healing preparation constantly at hand. It is an absolute specific for sore breasts, and quickly removes the encrusted sores which sometimes disfigure the heads and faces of children.

SIGNIFICANT FACTS

This Ointment is universally used on board the Atlantic and Pacific whaling fleet as a cure for scorbutic affections and as the best possible remedy for wounds and bruises. Large supplies of it have recently been ordered by the Sultan of Turkey for hospital purposes.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases.

Bunions	Lumbago	Sore Legs
Burns	Mercurial	Sore Breasts
Chap'd Hands	Eruptions	Sore Heads
Chilblains	Piles	Sore Throats
Fistulas	Rheumatism	Sores of all
Gout	Salt Rheum	kinds
	Skin Diseases	Sprains
Swel'd Glands	Stiff Joints	Scalds

BOERHAVE'S

HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,

DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,

LIVER COMPLAINT,

WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND

FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon disordered

STOMACH AND LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve raised up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE!—Whoever expects to find in this abeverage will be disappointed, but to the sick weak and low spirited, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all there imitations.

☞Sold at $1 00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5·00, sold by the proprietors, Benjamin Page, Jr. & Co. Manufacturing Pharmaceutists and Chemists, Pittsburgh, Pa.
