

The Right Kind of Talk
Forney has got back to Philadelphia from Washington. He concludes a long article in defense of Douglas against the attacks of the Southern newspapers, with the following paragraph, which has the ring of the true metal:

"We are a patient people, over this way. We have seen the South and its allies opposing Mr. Buchanan's nomination, and doubting his devotion to them; we have stood calmly by, and witnessed their rule in Kansas, trusting the while, like submissives and enduring men, to the approaching recognition of the will of the majority; we have heard, with worried temper, the observations of legislators and of politicians in some of the slave States, against such Democrats as Walker and Stanton, because they would not become parties to forgive and忘却 Kansas; and now we are expected to bear the additional outrage upon Judge Douglas and see Gov. Walker head carried before the conquering minority of the Leecompton Convention as a trophy of triumph. There is a point beyond which forbearance may cease to be a virtue. It has been reached, "gentlemen of the South!"

SELLING UP FOR THEMSELVES—Since Senator Douglas' defection, the Southerners think it unsafe longer to trust Northern doughfaces, and are of the opinion of getting up for themselves. Thus the New Orleans Crescent:

"The Southern people in future, it is to be hoped, will not remain at the gnat and swallow the camel, as they have frequently done heretofore. They must do more, if they will render themselves and their section safe. They must get rid of the influence of a party name, and set up for themselves. For years and years they have been growing weaker in the proportion that their Northern enemies grew stronger, and still have clung with unfaltering devotion to the fatally divisive influence of a name. They must banish this sentiment, repudiate it in all its aspects and bearings, or else prepare for degrading and ruinous submission to whatever tyrannies the internal spirit of Abolition fanaticism may yet impose to inflict. No other alternative is left. We are not surprised at the action of Senator Douglas. He is an ambitious politician, and wants to be President. He would not scruple to sell the South or the North if he could thereby achieve his object. He now thinks it safest and most profitable to sell the South, to the North, instead of the North to the South, and he will sell if he can. Mark the prediction."

SHIPMENT OF IRISH GIRLS.—The British government is shipping Irish girls to the care of their Harem as a means of preventing its own colonists from escaping intoularianism. A party of 350 has already sailed, and another company of 250 is soon to be forwarded—all described as healthy and good looking. They go with the understanding that matrimony is to reward their exertions.

THE Philadelphia Ledger says: "Resumption, therefore, is positively to be attempted on the day named in the relief bill, April one, if not sooner. A few of the smaller banks of this city are ready to try resumption now, and it is with some difficulty that they can be restrained until the fleet shall have the strength that union and concert will give to it."

THE slogan of the Democracy a short time since was, that the negro had no rights that the white man was bound to respect." Mr. Buchanan has improved on this and enunciates the doctrine that the negro have no rights which the Democracy ought to respect."

A Methodist Convention to consider the relation of that denomination to the Slavery question has been in session at Rochester for several days. It is largely attended, and the discussions have been very able."

THE indications are that the State of Ohio will be in the market next Spring for a new loan of half a million dollars, to make up the deficiency in the Treasury, caused by the operations of the late embarking Treasurer.

During the late season of navigation on the Lakes, the disasters have resulted in a loss of 221 lives and $2,000,000 of property.

There are hundreds of remedies sold at every Drug Store, purporting to cure all diseases, namely, each advertised as the very best ever known, till we had lost all faith in them all, but there is one exception.

We speak of Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, which came to us recommended as a cure for Liver Complaints and all diseases arising from a disease of the Liver. The testimony of so many of our Physicians in its favor, induced us to try it, and now conviction is certain that it is one of the greatest blessings ever given to Dipsyatics, for it made a complete cure before the first bottle was taken, and now we can eat anything eatable without trouble, while before nothing but the lightest food would digest, and often that gave pain. Now what we want to say to all our readers is, if Liver Complaint or Dipsyatic trouble you, do not fail to try this, the greatest remedy in the world.

Headache and Debility.—Mr. Silas J. Lacombe, of Birmingham, says: "I have found in BEVERHAYE'S HOLLIDAY PILLS, a remedy for Headache and Debility. My wife has also used it with the greatest benefit."

Mr. A. S. Nicholson, of Pittsburgh, also remarks that he has experienced much relief from its use for headache.

HAIR RESTORATOR.—Prof. Wood advertises in our columns his valuable medicine for restoring hair, and for the prevention of baldness, &c. This remedy has been used quite extensively, and with great success. Hundreds, nay, thousands have used it, and are willing to testify to its efficacy. Read the advertisement—go at once and procure a bottle, and prove its virtue. Our good old bald headed bachelors should embrace this opportunity to cover their pates with a coat of rich, luxuriant hair.—[Indianapolis Leader.]
