from the Pitts. Journal.

COMMOTION IN VIRGINIA.

The late letter of Governor Wise to the Tammany Society of New York, expressing his dissent from the position of the Administration on the Kansas question, has raised a terrific excitement in the capital of Virginia. The Richmond South, ultra pro-slavery, says of the letter:

"The Governor rarely writes without producing a sensation; but, for this performance, we venture to predict an unexampled effect on the public mind to the country. From one end of the South to the other it will be read with astonishment and mortification. From one end of the North to the other it will be read with astonishment and exultation.

"Governor Wise comes forward and, by denominating the work of the Lecompton Convention as "a usurpation," as "unveiled trickery and shameless fraud," arrays all the influence of his personal character, official position and sectional locality against the only fair, just and satisfactory settlement of the Kansas controversy which the South can possibly expect to accomplish. Astonishing development indeed! No wonder the Black Republican press betray such excess of joy as is manifest in the subjoined article from the New York Times—the special organ Wm. H. Seward. No wonder they exult in the glory of anticipated triumph over the Administration, the Democracy and the South!

"Fortunately, the Legislature is in session. Gov. Wise invokes the name of the Virginia Democracy in support of his views. Let the representatives of Virginia Democracy in the Legislature adopt the issue. Let them, by a bold and emphatic action, give assurance to the faithful now in the North who stand by the Administration and the South in the struggle, that the Democracy of Virginia will not desert them in the hour of their need. Let them declare to the Democracy of the South that they stand immovable on the admission of Kansas with the Lecompton Constitution.

"As already announced by telegraph, the Legislature has responded to the above call by passing resolutions endorsing the Lecompton Constitution, thus sending the Governor adrift, with such men as DOUGLAS, WALKER and Company.

The Richmond Whig gives expression to its feelings in the following unequivocal language:

"Governor Wise, although ready to dissolve the Union in the event of Fremont's election is now pandering to the abolition sentiment of the North, with a view to the Presidential nomination in 1860.—May Heaven snatch the country from the mischievous embrace of ambitious demagogues and reckless place hunters. Only through a great popular revolution which shall shake with confusion and ruin the Democratic party—a party more Jesuitical and dangerous than any that ever existed in any age or nation—can the country expect to emerge from the political demoralization now prevailing, and which is increasing and spreading with every succeeding day. For one we say it boldly, that we prefer being ruled ever by an open frank, conscientious Black Republican to submitting to the further domination of a party whose principal leaders are the most unscrupulous hypocrites that human imagination can conceive.

LATEST KANSAS NEWS.

A number of gentlemen who arrived at Weston and this city last night by the Hannibal railroad, having left Leavenworth on the 7th inst., impart to us some items respecting Kansas affairs, which in the character of our informants, we are assured is entirely reliable.

The election had passed off with comparatively little disturbance. At Kickapoo the pro-slavery majority was 861. Douglas county gave about 800 major. for the pro-slavery ticket.

At Atchison the free state ticket was elected by about 30 majority, with the exception of Mr Hereford, a southern man, and one of the members of the convention which framed the Lecompton constitution, and who voted to have it submitted to the people. He was supported in part by the free state men.

Johnson county gave 1900 for the pro-slavery ticket, (McGee and Oxford frauds included.)

Burton county gave 430 pro-slavery majority.

Douglas county gave 500 majority for the free state ticket.

Other parts of the territory had been but partially heard from.

Our informants state, that at the time they left Leavenworth the impression was that a careful counting up of the returns then received, that the pro-slavery men had elected their state officers but that the free state party had carried the Legislature.

The vote was small, more than half the voters of the territory having declined voting for the state officers, though a very decided expression was given against the Lecompton constitution, the majority against it having been placed at ten thousand.

In many places in the territory two dissolls were kept open by the Calhoun judges and the free state judges.

A day or two after election, the free state men were busy issuing a great number of warrants, and making arrests all over the territory under the recent legislative act against fraudulent voting. Extensive frauds had been committed in many places. A Kickapoo Calhoun judge named Miller or Carter, was arrested for stuffing the ballot-boxes. Another man named Redman, was arrested for receiving fraudulent ballots, but had been admitted to bail. The former was taken in charge by the free state citizens, and conducted into Leavenworth on the 6th, along with a cannon which had formerly been used by the Kickapoo Rangers, as was claimed, in battering down Eldridge's hotel in Lawrence.

Arriving at Leavenworth a large procession was formed, and the judge and the cannon were paraded in derision through the streets.

The people were much excited, and our informants state that a more serious mischief is undoubtedly brewing in Territory.

The United States troops are inactive

The Democratic party is all split to pieces with a very large majority bitterly opposed to the Lecompton constitution.

Calhoun was out of the Territory, and supposed to be at Weston. He has been advised by his friends that it would not be prudent for him to be seen in Leavenworth City.

It is the impression of the gentlemen who have favored us with this detail, that all is not quiet in Kansas.—St. Louis Dem.

A RESISTLESS REMEDY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

CIRCULAR TO THE SICK.

The first hospital surgeons and medical publicists of Europe, admit the unparalleled anti-inflammatory and healing properties of this Ointment; governments sanction its use in their naval and military services; and the masses in this country and throughout the world repose the utmost confidence in its curative properties. It penetrates the sources of inflammation and corruption which underlie the external evidences of disease, and neutralize the fiery elements which feed and exasperate the malady.

RHEUMATISM, SCROFULA, ERYSIPELAS, &c.

These are among the most terrible and agonizing diseases of the muscles, the fleshy fibre and the skin; yet in their worst forms, and when seemingly incurable, they invariably disappear under a persevering application of this soothing, healing, antipote to pain and inflammation.

SALT RHEUM, FEVER SORES, STIFF JOINTS.

In cases of Salt Rheum, where medical waters, lotions, and every recipe of the pharmacopeia have proved useless, the Ointment will accomplish a thorough cure. Fever Sores heal quickly under its influence, and its relaxing effect upon contracted sinews is truly wonderful.

DISCHARGING ULCERS.

A most remarkable and happy change is produced in the appearance of malignant ulcers after a few applications of this Ointment.—The surrounding redness vanishes, and granules of healthy flesh begin to take the place of the discharged matter. This process goes on more or less rapidly, until the orifice is filled up with sound material, and the ulcer radically cured.

A WORD TO MOTHERS.

The young are the most frequent sufferers from external injuries, and therefore every mother should have this healing preparation constantly at hand. It is an absolute specific for sore breasts, and quickly removes the encrusted sores which sometimes disfigure the heads and faces of children.

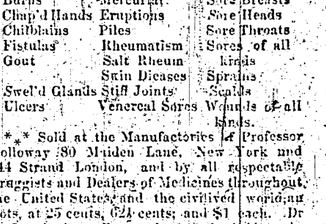
BOERHAVE'S

HOLLAND BITTERS



THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,

DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,

LIVER COMPLAINT,

WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND

FEVER AND ACUE,

And the various affections concequent upon disordered

STOMACH AND LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Cockey Pains, Heatburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve raised up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—Whoever expects to find in this above will be disappointed, but to the sick weak and low spirited, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedia properties.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

☞Sold at $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00, sold by the proprietors, Benjamin Page, Jr. & Co. Manufacturing Pharmacentists and Chemists, Pittsburgh, Pa.
