

COLUMN ON BEACON-HILL.

THE column which has lately been erected on Beacon-Hill, by the subscription of a number of the inhabitants of this town, is a plain column of the Dorick order, raised on its proper pedestal, and substantially built of brick and stone.

Inscription on the South side.

To commemorate that TRAIN of EVENTS, which led to the AMERICAN REVOLUTION, and finally secured LIBERTY and INDEPENDENCE, to the UNITED STATES;

- Stamp Act passed 1765, repealed 1766. Board of customs established 1767. British troops fired on the inhabitants of Boston, March 5, 1770.

On the North side.

- Capture of Hessians at Trenton, December 26, 1776. Capture of Hessians at Bennington, Aug. 16, 1777. Capture of British Army at Saratoga, Oct. 17.

On the East side.

AMERICANS! While from this EMINENCE, scenes of LUXURIANT FERTILITY, of flourishing COMMERCE, and the abodes of SOCIAL HAPPINESS, meet your view,

LINES

FROM this blest spot let laughing Folly hie, And placid Wisdom lift the searching eye. On Charlestown's Heights, each hallow'd scene explore,

See varied charms adorn the circling main, The peopled isthmus and the velvet plain; Here ruddy health the grateful soil divides,

Such QUEEN of CITIES, are thy rich domains, And such the realm, where godlike FREEDOM reigns.

ON LAWYERS, FOR LEGISLATORS.

SUPPOSE a little village consisting of 100 persons, should select out 10 of that hundred, to make laws for the rest—Suppose further, 3 of the 10 selected, to be farmers, 3 to be manufacturers, 3 to be merchants, and the remaining one to be a lawyer; ruin the other two branches, because it is for his interest so to do. The lawyer, indifferent as to the promotion of any one particular branch—yet immediately interested in the promotion of the whole, will use his influence, that all these three branches, should so harmonize, as that the greatest encouragement may accrue to all—the general good will be his happiness and interest,

PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER 7, 1790.

AS the partnership of JOHN DUNLAP and DAVID C. CLAYPOOLE will expire on the first day of JANUARY, 1791, DAVID C. CLAYPOOLE proposes to publish a Newspaper, entitled

The Mail, and New Daily Advertiser.

(To be continued every Evening, Sundays excepted.)

THE MAIL shall be printed with an elegant new Type, procured for this particular purpose, on Paper, equal in size and quality to any of the Newspapers of Europe or America—And the Subscriber engages that no Means shall be spared to render the MAIL and NEW DAILY ADVERTISER in other respects worthy of the Public Patronage, which he now respectfully solicits.

The Price of the MAIL will be Eight Dollars pr. annum, to be paid at the end of the Year: And Advertisements will be received on such moderate Terms as to prove satisfactory to those who may be pleased to favor the Printer with their Commands in that line.

Subscriptions are thankfully received at No. 48, Market-Street, by D. C. CLAYPOOLE.
