

ON Thursday last, the 2d. inst. a part of the Imperial army, headed by Field-Marshal Bender, entered the city of Brussels, amidst universal shouts of joy, and cries of "Vive Leopold, notre bon Soverain!" Ten hussars, with two officers, were the first who entered; about 9 o'clock in the morning, these took possession of the Corps de Garde, next the Palace: soon after them came a company of grenadiers, commanded by Captain Kettelbutt, who proceeded to take the principal posts in the city without opposition. The officers frequently addressed the people very ardently to this effect "My friends, endeavour to avoid all insults; they are forbidden on both sides, under pain of severe punishment." In the afternoon came the remainder of the Imperial column, whose presence diffused more real joy than ever attended the ridiculous triumphal processions of the Vandernootian clan. The Baron de Bender immediately published the Emperor's Declaration, that he would reign only by clemency, and that the troops were to enter the country with a total forgetfulness of the past.

At Namur, a fanatic curate fired upon a company of Austrians as they passed; he was immediately taken out of his house and hanged, in consequence of the notice which had been previously given, that all insults on each side should be punished with death.

All the companies have laid down their arms, all the splendid liberty Poles are carried away, and the Imperial Eagle universally reinstated.

General Schoenfeld, on his departure for France was arrested by the inhabitants of Bossu, in Hainaut, but soon afterwards released. In his portmanteau were found 6000 louis, in gold, the fruits of his inactive generalship.

General Vandermerfch is now entirely at large at his seat near Menin.

All the prisoners in the cells of Brussels, who have languished for many months past, now breathe once more the wholesome air of real liberty.

A general amnesty is issued, with only three exceptions; these are, General Gavaux, Major Ascamp, and Captain Solaves, for surrendering the Citadel of Antwerp, and the latter taking service among the Belgians.

on he resides, laying on both sides the Carolina road, in the great fork of Rappahanock river, 36 miks from the town of Dumfries, 30 from Fredericksburg, and 28 from Falmouth; in a most healthy part of the country:—Consisting of 2,000 acres—half cleared, and in good fence, well adapted for farming and grazing—the soil is good, lays well, abounding with many excellent springs and streams of water, so dispersed as to afford great opportunity of making watered meadow of the first quality, perhaps more than 300 acres—of which 120, in one body, is already in grass, and all watered and drained at pleasure by a number of ditches, for that purpose, passing through the whole. Orchards of about 2000 bearing apple trees—near as many peach trees, and a variety of most other kinds of fruit, natural to the climate. A good dwelling house, the situation whereof is remarkably beautiful and pleasant; and many other valuable improvements of divers kinds.

And one other Plantation about 5 miles nearer said towns, consisting of about 1500 acres, on which is good merchant, grist, and saw mills, where nature, labour and art, have fully conspired to render them complete; a large constant stream, on which they stand, affords them water in great abundance; convenient thereto is a kiln end house, for drying corn, a bake house, a dwelling house and several other improvements mostly new; about 300 acres of the lands are in cultivation, very good in quality; the other part thin soil, but abounding with timber, is an inexhaustible source for the saw-mill.

Also several detached tracts within said county, of about 2, 3, and 400 acres each, and though not so fertile a soil, their vicinity to the towns render them valuable, on some of them there are small improvements, and the lands so situated, that they can easily be made convenient little farms.

The whole or any part of the abovementioned possessions will be disposed of, on very reasonable terms—a small proportion in ready money, for the balance, the payments will be made entirely to accommodate the convenience of the purchasers, who may be supplied on the same terms, with all kinds of stock, work horses, oxen, &c. &c. &c. by JOHN STRODE. The design of this compilation was intimated to Congress, and honored with their approbation.—On the 20th July, 1778, their committee, to whom his memorial was referred, reported it as their "Opinion, that Mr. Hazard's undertaking is laudable and deserves the public patronage and encouragement, as being productive of public utility;" Whereupon they "Resolved, That it be recommended to the Governors, Presidents, and Executive Powers of the several states in the union, to assist Mr. Hazard, and give facility to his labors; and that for this purpose he be admitted to an inspection of public records, and be furnished without expence with copies of such papers as he may judge will conduce to the valuable end he hath in view.

He was, of consequence, admitted to the inspection and use both of public records, and the collections made by individuals, from whence this compilation (much the largest he has ever met with on the subject, and he flatters himself, the largest ever made in America) was formed. It has since met the approbation of many eminent characters, and even in its manuscript state, has facilitated the settlement of some important controversies.

The compiler cannot suppress the following letter from the honorable the Secretary of State, to whose inspection part of the compilation was submitted, as it contains so flattering and respectable a testimony in favor of the importance of the work.

Philadelphia, February 18, 1791.

S I R ,

I return you the two volumes of Records, with thanks for the opportunity of looking into them:—they are curious Monuments of the Infancy of our country. I learn with great satisfaction that you are about committing to the Press the valuable Historical and State Papers you have been so long collecting. Time and accident are committing daily havoc on the originals deposited in our public offices: the late war has done the work of centuries in this business: the lost cannot be recovered; but let us save what remains; not by vaults and locks, which fence them from the public eye and use in consigning them to the waste of time, but by such a multiplication of copies as shall place them beyond the reach of accident; this being the tendency of your undertaking, be assured there is no one who wishes it a more complete success than,
S I R ,
Your most obedient and most humble Servant,
T H O M A S J E F F E R S O N . "

I. The Work to be published in numbers, each containing 160 pages, large quarto:—A number to be delivered every three months.

II. On delivery of the first Number, payment to be made for the first and second, and afterwards for each Number as delivered (except the last) so that the price of one Number will be constantly in advance. The very great expence attending so large a work, at the same time that it renders this condition absolutely necessary, will be a sufficient apology to the candid for its insertion.

III. The price to Subscribers will be one Dollar for each number. It is supposed that the Work will probably be comprised in eight Numbers, forming two handsome Volumes, in large quarto, printed on a neat Type and good paper.

IV. To those who choose to subscribe for the Work in Volumes, the price will be Four Dollars and a Quarter of a Dollar, for each Volume, in boards.

V. The collection will be put to the Press as soon as there shall be a sufficient number of subscriptions to justify an hope that the expences will be defrayed.

Those who receive Subscriptions will please transmit accounts of the numbers obtained to Thomas Dobson, No. 41, Second-street, Philadelphia, by the first of May next.

SUBSCRIPTIONS will be received in Portsmouth, (N.
