HAVING completed the second volume of this Gazette, its patrons, and the public at large, are informed that it will be prosecuted on its original plan, with every improvement that friendship and ingenuity may suggest.

The price of this Gazette, (published Wednesdays and Saturdays,) is Three Dollars per annum—one half to be paid at the time of subscribing.

The utmost punctuality is observed in transmitting the papers to subscribers: The Editor thinks there is the fairest prospect that Information from the seat of government, to the extremes of the Union, will in future circulate with greater facility and certainty, than through the past winter.—Additional subscriptions from all parts of the Union are therefore solicited.

This volume contains the laws of the two last sessions of Congress—the journal and debates of the house of Representatives—reports of the heads of departments—besides a greater variety of original communications immediately connected with the interests of the United States, than any other periodical publication.

The Editor acknowledges with gratitude the punctual payments received from a great proportion of his subscribers—some arrearages remain—which he is confident will very speedily be discharged.

Payments may be made to the several persons of whom the papers are received.

Advertisements of one square, or less, will be inserted in this Gazette, three times, for one dollar—subsequent insertions, twenty-five cents each; larger advertisements in proportion: No vehicle in the United States gives so immediate a circulation—and the number of each impression is at present fourteen hundred.

RELIGIOUS OPINIONS.

De l'importance des opinions religieuses. By M. NECKER.

THE offering here made at the shrine of religion, by a man of business, a man of true political wisdom, and a man of the world, in the city of Paris, is a curious phenomenon.—It is also a noble one—and gives M. Necker, who has been long esteemed for his great capacity, literary merit, and eminent virtues, a new and distinguished title to the veneration of the public. It has been this virtuous man's destiny to arrive at eminence in every line that he has pursued, from the counting house to the threshold of the cabinet, and it is impossible, if we read the work before us with candour and attention, not to see that both his head and his heart make a distinguished and affecting appearance in the cause of religion.

Subject to a deduction of twelve and a half per cent. The public utility of extending this wharf, is too evident to require any comment, to those who are acquainted with the town and harbour of New-Haven; to those who are not, suffice it to say, that its beautiful situation is not surpassed, if equalled by any; being in the heart of a country, which may, with propriety, be said to be the garden of America. The harbour lays open to the sound but by reason of the flats, this wharf is necessarily extended to the channel, where ships can load and unload; and when completed, will be the most extensive and commodious wharf in America, the whole extent being about 3-4ths of a mile; and not only the mercantile interest of New-Haven and the towns adjacent, but the maritime interest of all the States will be benefited by it. The general wish that prevails in the minds of all classes of people, for the success of this enterprize, together with the very great advantage which this scheme holds out to adventurers (there being more capital prizes for the number of tickets than any yet published in America) induce the managers to believe the tickets will meet with a speedy sale.

The drawing will positively commence at the State-House, in New-Haven, on the 13th of September next, or sooner, if the tickets are sold.

A list of the fortunate numbers will be published, and the prizes paid on demand, by the managers. Those prizes not called for in nine months after drawing, will be deemed as generously given for the use of the wharf, and appropriated accordingly.

MANAGERS:

JAMES RICE, MICHAEL TODD, JEREMIAH ATWATER, ELIJAH AUSTIN, JOSEPH DRAKE, ELIJAH HOWELL.

REPORT

OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE,

ON THE SUBJECT OF THE

COD AND WHALE FISHERIES.

No. X.

ARRET of the King's Council of State, prohibiting the importation of foreign whale and spermæti oil into his kingdom, 28th September, 1788.

Extract from the Registers of the Council of State.

THE King having taken information on the success attending the whale fishery, and the prospect of its greater prosperity within his kingdom, and his Majesty being willing to grant a special protection to this important fishery which has just commenced in France, and which may become an abundant source of riches, while at the same time it affords to the marine a nursery for seamen of great consequence to the service of the state—his Majesty has conceived that the prohibition of foreign oil would be the most beneficial encouragement that could be granted to this branch of industry. Being willing to provide accordingly, and having heard the report of the Sieur Lambert, Counsellor of State and Ordinary to the Council of Dispatches, and to the Royal Council of Finances and Commerce, the King being present in his Council, has ordained, and does ordain, that, computing from the day of publishing the present arret, the introduction of foreign whale and spermæti oils shall be prohibited throughout his dominions. His Majesty commands and orders the Duke de Penthièvre, Admiral of France, the Intendants and Commissaries throughout the provinces, the Commissaries députés for the observation of the ordinances in the Admiralties, the officers of the Admiralties, Masters of Ports, Judges of Treaties, and all others whom it may concern, to assist in the execution of the present arret, which shall be registered in the offices of the said Admiralties, read, published and posted wherever it shall appear necessary.

Done in the King's Council of State, his Majesty being present, held at Versailles, 28th September, 1788.

LA LUZERNE.

No. XI.

ARRET of the King's Council of State, excepting whale and other fish oil, and also whalebone, the product of the fisheries of the United States of America, from the prohibition contained in the arret of the 28th of September last.

DECEMBER 7th, 1788.

Extract from the Registers of the Council of State.

THE King having taken information on the arret pronounced in his council the 28th December last, prohibiting the importation of whale oil and spermæti, the produce of foreign fisheries, into the kingdom, observing that oil made from sea calves and other fish, and sea animals, not being comprehended in the said arret, a fraudulent importation of whale oil might take place under the name of the aforesaid oils; and that on the other hand it might be inferred from the tenor of the said arret, that oils the produce of the fisheries of United States were prohibited: And his Majesty willing to remove every doubt on this head, to provide therefore for the same, having heard the report of the Sieur Lambert, Counsellor of State in ordinary, and of the Council of Dispatches and royal Council of Finances and Commerce, the King being present in his Council, has ordained and does ordain, that reckoning from the first day of April next, oil made from sea calves, and from fish and other sea animals, produced from foreign fisheries, as well as whale-bone produced in like manner from the said foreign fisheries, shall be prohibited from importation into the kingdom, without permitting the said prohibition nevertheless to extend either to the said kinds of oils, or to the said whale oils and spermæti, or the whale-bone produced from the fisheries of the United States of America, and imported directly into France in French vessels, or those belonging to the subjects of the said United States; which shall continue to be provisionally admitted, agreeable to the first and third article of the arret of the 29th of December last; on condition however, that the captains of the said vessels belonging to the United States, bring with them certificates from the Consuls of France residing in the ports of the said United States, or where these cannot be obtained, from the Magistrates of the places where the embarkation of the said oil shall be made, for the purpose of proving that the cargo of the said vessels is the produce of the fisheries carried on by the citizens of the United States; which certificates shall be presented to the Officers of the Admiralty, also to the Commissioners of the Farms, in the ports of France where it shall be landed, to be mentioned in the port of their arrival.

His Majesty commands and orders the Duke de Penthièvre, Admiral of France, the Intendants and Commissaries throughout the provinces, the Commissary appointed to observe the ordinances of the Admiralty, the Officers of the Admiralty, Masters of Ports, Judges of Treaties, and all others whom it may concern, to assist in the execution of the present Arret, which shall be registered in the offices of the said Admiralties, read, published and posted wherever it may appear necessary.

Done in the King's Council of State, his Majesty being present, held at Versailles the seventh of December, 1788.

ANECDOTE.

AN Irishman, at an assize in Cork, was arraigned for felony before Judge Montenegro—he was asked who he would be tried by—"By no one, by J—s," said he. The Jailor told him he must say "By God and his Country." "Faith that I wont (replied Paddy) I do not like that at all at all, for God knows all about the matter, and so my dear I will be tried by his Lordship the Judge, and my Country."
