

JANUARY 2, 1792.

PARIS, October 9.

YOU will see that the new Legislature verify the character which I anticipated. The discussion of yesterday, on the verification of their powers, displayed their democratic features, for every one of the contested elections were decided in favor of the known friends of that party. The case of the Abbe Fauchet was very strong—and perhaps a principle (a bad principle I allow) was sacrificed in his favor. But though they have so much of this tendency, I do not apprehend that they will trench on the monarchy, further than by loading the civil list with more of the public expences than now belong to it. This civil list is a dreadful subject of alarm to the patriots, who affect to see in it the utter ruin of the constitution. Englishmen will smile when they are told, that this tremendous civil list is no more than 1,250,000l. sterling, out of which his Majesty has to maintain 1800-Guards, besides to keep up an immense household.

This morning the scrutiny for a President and Secretaries is not yet over; but it is believed that the virtuous writer M. Pastoret, will be the first elected President. It is a tribute justly due to his talents and patriotism. The ballot lies between him and M. Garancoulon.

You may easily conceive that the appearance of the Assembly on the first day was truly interesting. An entire new set of men, whose faces were unknown, coming all at once to replace the other, was a singular and unprecedented circumstance—and it was rendered more so by the accident, that the several men who, but the day before had been the leading actors in deciding on the fate of the empire, were, in their renewed character of simple citizens, placed as centinels at the doors of the Assembly which they had been accustomed to agitate and influence.—M. Dander, in particular, who had been the chief mover of the Assembly, and the leader in all questions, stood as a Corporal of the National Guard.

Such is the spirit of that Assembly which is departed, and which will be memorable to the latest period of time! That Assembly who demolished the most powerful despotism of Europe—who triumphed over the ancient opinions, and the most inveterate prejudices of men—over the power of the king, the nobles and the church—over public force, court intrigue, and ministerial corruption—who preserved an even tenor amidst the cabal, the calumny, and the rage of party within—the menaces of all the crowns of Europe from without—and who, having substituted a government of freedom, peace and economy, in the place of despotism, ambition and waste, finally pronounced on themselves a sentence of dissolution, and returned back to the humble duties of private life.

Even in this honorable condition they are pursued by the same implacable malice that was ever active against them—and every wall is covered with insipid placards against them. Their answer is short and satisfactory—"Read the Constitutional act, and judge us by our works."

YORK, January 18.

Last Monday night, between the hours of seven and eight o'clock, Mr. James Tate of Marsh-Creek settlement, in this county, was attacked by two armed foot pads, on the road leading from Peach Bottom Ferry, within a mile of this borough and robbed of his saddle-bags, which contained a large sum of money in cash and bank notes, a miniature picture, set in gold, and some wearing apparel. The saddle-bags were found the next morning in the woods, a few rods from the place where the robbery was committed, bereft of its contents.

Of the real Estate of JOHN KIDD, late of the Township of Bensalem, in the County of Bucks, Esquire, deceased, pursuant to the Directions of his last Will and Testament.

ON Tuesday the 27th of March next will be exposed to Sale, by way of Public Vendue, on the premises—One exceedingly valuable and highly improved Farm, containing about two hundred and ninety-nine acres, situate on the river Delaware; on which is erected a handsome two-story brick house, with a new piazza in the front, two kitchens, a good barn, stables, hay-house, and other convenient outhouses. A good orchard of the best kind of grafted fruit, now in its prime; a large garden well fenced in, and in good order; and a shad and herring fishery before the door. This place is remarkably well timbered, has a sufficiency of meadow, a large front on the river, and runs back to the post-road.

One other very valuable Farm, adjoining the above; containing about two hundred and seven acres, the greatest part of which is wood-land. There are on this farm a good house, barn, stables, and other outhouses, with a young thriving orchard of the best grafted fruit, and a shad and herring fishery. It has long been a well accustomed tavern; and the ferry belonging to it, known by the name of Dunks's, is noted for being well kept and much frequented. Both the above places afford the best prospects on the river, and are remarkably healthy.

One other small Farm, containing about sixty-three acres, situate in the township of Southampton, in the county aforesaid; on which are erected two log-houses. There is a small orchard, and a great sufficiency of wood-land and meadow ground.

One Lot, containing four acres, situate on the great post-road leading from Philadelphia to New-York, and ten miles from the former. On it is a good log dwelling-house, and work-shop adjoining, with a well of excellent water at the door: now in the tenure of the Widow Ward.

Also, at the same time and place, will be sold all the remaining Stock, Household-Furniture, Farming Utensils, and Wheat in the ground.

N. B. The conditions of sale will be, one-third of the purchase money to be paid down, and the remainder in two yearly payments with interest.

TO BE SOLD,

THAT beautiful and elegant situation on the banks of the Potomack, adjoining the town of Alexandria, whereon the subscriber now resides; about 25 or 30 acres will be sold with the improvements, which are a neat and commodious two story house, completely finished from the cellar to the garret, a kitchen, laundry, meat-house, dairy, two story barn, and ice house, all finished in the best manner, together with several other necessary outhouses, the yard and garden neatly paved, and a skillful gardener now employed in putting it in fine order; the land well enclosed with a post and rail fence; a well, and springs of excellent water—the prospect is equalled by few, and excelled by none in America—its contiguity to Alexandria, the Federal Town, and Georgetown, having a fine and full view of each place, must render it in a few years of great value, being directly in a line of communication from Alexandria to the other two towns. Should a purchaser offer before the 15th of February next, a cheap bargain may be had. An indisputable title, clear of all incumbrances, will be made by the subscriber. I will also sell with this place, 220 Acres of Wood Land, about 3 miles distant, which will suit well to support the above in wood and timber.

ANNAPOLIS, January 1, 1792.

At a Meeting of the Visitors and Governors of St. JOHN'S College, in the State of Maryland, on Thursday the 10th of November last,

RESOLVED,

THAT this Board, at the quarterly meeting in May next, proceed to elect a Vice-Principal of St. John's College.

That it be the duty of the Principal and Vice-Principal, to teach some of the higher Authors in Latin and Greek, certain parts of the Mathematics, Logic, and Moral and Natural Philosophy; and that the departments of the said Principal and Vice-Principal shall hereafter be ascertained with precision, on considerations of their mutual convenience and respective qualifications.

That the Vice-Principal shall be entitled to receive, for his services, a salary of three hundred and fifty pounds, current money, rating dollars at 7/6 each, to be paid quarterly.

That persons desirous of, and qualified for the appointment of Vice-Principal, be, by public advertisement, requested to make application to Mr. Charles Wallace, Mr. Charles Carroll of Carrollton, and Mr. Alexander Contee Hanson, all of the city of Annapolis.

By order of the Board, JOHN THOMAS, President.

N. B. The fundamental Laws of St. John's College prohibit all preference on account of religious tenets or opinions.

As the appointment of a Vice-Principal is alone wanted, to complete the plan of this rising seminary, the Board will certainly proceed to the election at the stated time; provided a person qualified, in their judgment, for this important station, can be procured. The personal attendance of the candidates, although not positively required, will be obviously proper.

It may be useful to remark, that the salaries of all the professors and teachers have hitherto been paid with entire punctuality; and that the funds of St. John's College produce a certain annual income, superior to all the appropriations, which have been, or probably will be made.

The Printers of newspapers throughout the United States, are earnestly requested to insert the above resolve and remarks—and to repeat the publication as often as convenience will permit.

HOLY BIBLE.---Royal Quarto.

MR. THOMAS, of Worcester, Massachusetts, most respectfully informs the public, that he has this day completed the Old and New Testaments of his Royal Quarto Edition of the HOLY BIBLE. The Apocrypha and Index, &c. will be finished with all the dispatch the nature of the work will admit.

Such Gentlemen as hold SUBSCRIPTION PAPERS, he begs will return them to himself Worcester, or to him and Company at Boston, by the last day of November next, and as much sooner as they conveniently can.

He is happy to inform the public, that the work has been examined by many gentlemen, clergymen and others, and has met with their highest approbation; both as to the execution of the printing, its correctness, and its cheapness compared with English copies of the same size and quality.

As this very laborious and exceedingly expensive undertaking, is carried on solely at his own cost, he is led to hope that all those who wish to possess a large Family Bible, will so far encourage this laudable undertaking of their countryman, as to add their names to the subscription.

Worcester, Sept. 29, 1791.
