American Lead Manufactory.

STEPHEN AUSTIN, & Co.
 HAVE just now opened their LEAD-WAREHOUSE, two doors south of Walnut-Street Wharf, adjoining their New Factory—where they have now made, and ready for sale, a general assortment of SHOT of all sizes, with SHEET and BAR LEAD, the production of the Mines in Virginia. As they have employed a number of experienced English workmen, they warrant it to be equal in quality to any manufactured in Europe, and at a reduced price from the cost of imported.
 They also continue to manufacture all the above articles at Richmond, in Virginia. All orders addressed to either of the above Factories, will be thankfully received, and executed on the shortest notice.
 N. B. Wanted, industrious, sober, Labouring Men, at the said Mines, where constant employ, good wages, and other encouragements will be given, means of conveyance being provided, and houses for their reception.
 For further particulars enquire of Messrs. MOSES AUSTIN & Co. at their Factory in Richmond, or as above.

BOUGHT and SOLD, on COMMISSION, by
SAMUEL ANDERSON,
Chestnut-Street, next door to the Bank, No. 97.

Dismal Swamp Canal Company.

PROPOSALS for cutting a Canal from the waters of Elizabeth River in Virginia, to those of Pasquotank in North-Carolina, or for conducting the work, will be received until the ninth day of April next, by Robert Andrews, of Williamsburg; Thomas Newton, jun. and Daniel Bedinger, of Norfolk, in Virginia; by John Cowper, of Gates County; and Benjamin Jones, of Camden County, in North-Carolina. The length of the Canal will be about sixteen miles; the country through which it will pass, is swampy, free from stones, and covered with heavy wood. The Canal is to be thirty-two feet in width, and eight feet at least in depth, below the surface of the earth, and capable of being navigated in dry seasons, by vessels drawing three feet water.
 Good security will be required of contractors; and persons making application to be employed as managers, must produce certificates (from characters of respectability) of their qualifications for a business of this kind.
 By order of the President and Directors,
 WILLIAM A. BAYLEY, Clerk.

Of the real Estate of JOHN KIDD, late of the Township of Bensalem, in the County of Bucks, Esquire, deceased, pursuant to the Directions of his last Will and Testament.

ON Tuesday the 27th of March next will be exposed to Sale, by way of Public Vendue, on the premises—One exceedingly valuable and highly improved Farm, containing about two hundred and ninety-nine acres, situate on the river Delaware; on which is erected a handsome two-story brick house, with a new piazza in the front, two kitchens, a good barn, stables, hay-mouse, and other convenient out-houses. A good orchard of the best kind of grafted fruit, now in its prime; a large garden well fenced in and in good order; and a shad and herring fishery before the door. This place is remarkably well timbered, has a sufficiency of meadow, a large front on the river, and runs back to the post-road.

One other very valuable Farm, adjoining the above; containing about two hundred and seven acres, the greatest part of which is wood-land. There are on this farm a good house, barn, stables, and other out-houses, with a young thriving orchard of the best grafted fruit, and a shad and herring fishery. It has long been a well accustomed tavern; and the ferry belonging to it, known by the name of Dunks's, is noted for being well kept and much frequented. Both the above places afford the best prospects on the river, and are remarkably healthy.

One other small Farm, containing about sixty-three acres, situate in the township of Southampton, in the county aforesaid; on which are erected two log-houses. There is a small orchard, and a great sufficiency of wood-land and meadow ground.
 One Lot, containing four acres, situate on the great post-road leading from Philadelphia to New-York, and ten miles from the former. On it is a good log dwelling-house, and work-shop adjoining, with a well of excellent water at the door: now in the tenure of the Widow Ward.

Also, at the same time and place, will be sold all the remaining Stock, Household-Furniture, Farming Utensils, and Wheat in the ground.

N. B. The conditions of sale will be, one-third of the purchase money to be paid down, and the remainder in two yearly payments with interest.

 JOHN M. NESBIT, } Executors.
 SAMUEL BENEZET,

War Department.

INFORMATION is hereby given to all the military invalids of the United States, that the sums to which they are intitled for six months of their annual pension, from the 4th day of September, 1791, and which will become due on the 5th day of March, 1792, will be paid on the said day by the Commissioners of the Loans within the states respectively, under the usual regulations, viz.

Every application for payment must be accompanied by the following vouchers.

1st. The certificate given by the state, specifying that the person possessing the same is in fact an invalid, and ascertaining the sum to which he is annually entitled.

2d. An affidavit, agreeable to the following form:
 A. B. came before me, one of the Justices of the county of _____ in the state of _____ and made oath that he is the same A. B. to whom the original certificate in his possession was given, of which the following is a copy (the certificate given by the state to be recited) That he served _____ (regiment, corps or vessel) at the time he was disabled, and that he now resides in the _____ county of _____ and has resided there for the last _____ years, previous to which he resided in _____

In case an invalid should apply for payment by an attorney, the said attorney, besides the certificate and oath before recited, must produce a special letter of attorney agreeable to the following form:
 I, A. B. of _____ county of _____ do hereby constitute and appoint C. D. of _____ my lawful attorney, to receive in my behalf of _____ my pension for six months, as an invalid of the United States, from the fourth day of September, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, and ending the fourth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.
 Signed and sealed _____
 in the presence of _____

Acknowledged before me, _____
 Applications of executors and administrators must be accompanied with legal evidence of their respective offices, and also of the time the invalids died, whose pension they may claim.
 By command of the President of the United States,
 H. KNOX, Secretary of War.

The Printers in the respective states are requested to publish the above in their newspapers, for the space of two months.
 ANNAPOLIS, January 1, 1792.

At a Meeting of the Visitors and Governors of ST. JOHN'S College, in the State of Maryland, on Thursday the 10th of November last,
RESOLVED,

THAT this Board, at the quarterly meeting in May next, proceed to elect a Vice-Principal of St. John's College.
 That it be the duty of the Principal and Vice-Principal, to teach some of the higher Authors in Latin and Greek, certain parts of the Mathematics, Logic, and Moral and Natural Philosophy; and that the departments of the said Principal and Vice-Principal shall hereafter be ascertained with precision, on considerations of their mutual convenience and respective qualifications.

That the Vice-Principal shall be entitled to receive, for his services, a salary of three hundred and fifty pounds, current money, rating dollars at 7/6 each, to be paid quarterly.
 That persons desirous of, and qualified for the appointment of Vice-Principal, be, by public advertisement, requested to make application to Mr. Charles Wallace, Mr. Charles Carroll of Carrollton, and Mr. Alexander Contee Hanson, all of the city of Annapolis.
 By order of the Board,
 JOHN THOMAS, President.

N. B. The fundamental Laws of St. John's College prohibit all preference on account of religious tenets or opinions.
 As the appointment of a Vice-Principal is alone wanted, to compleat the plan of this rising seminary, the Board will certainly proceed to the election at the stated time; provided a person qualified, in their judgment, for this important station, can be procured. The personal attendance of the candidates, although not positively required, will be obviously proper.

It may be useful to remark, that the salaries of all the professors and teachers have hitherto been paid with entire punctuality; and that the funds of St. John's College produce a certain annual income, superior to all the appropriations, which have been, or probably will be made.

The Printers of newspapers throughout the United States, are earnestly requested to insert the above resolve and remarks—and to repeat the publication as often as convenience will permit.

TO BE SOLD BY THE EDITOR,
 A TABLE for receiving and paying Gold at the Bank of the United States, showing the Value of Gold in Dollars and Cents, from One to a Thousand Pennyweights—according to the Act of Congress, ascertaining the Standard and Value of Gold.

[A copy of the following beautiful composition was offered for insertion in the last number of this Gazette, but previous engagements prevented its publication—Such productions can never be out of season.]

STANZAS ON THE BIRTH-DAY OF THE PRESIDENT.

SAID TO BE WRITTEN BY MR. C.

No peerage we covet, no sceptres desire,
 Nor gew-gaws that garnish a throne;
 Yet Liberty loves, on her own native lyre,
 To celebrate sons of her own.
 And always with rapture, his virtue she sings,
 And exults on the morn of his birth—
 Who shakes every throne of despotic kings,
 And gives a new lesson to earth.
 O widely diffuse it, ye winds, as ye blow,
 O waft it, ye waves, that they fan,
 For the choicest of gifts that the gods can bestow,
 Is the blessing of Freedom to Man.
 O WASHINGTON, hail! whom the breath of pure fame
 With praises more sweet shall perfume,
 Than ever embalm'd or exalted a name
 In Macedon, Athens, or Rome!
 For Freedom, say what did that foe of the Greek
 ALEXANDER, that Hero admir'd?
 Let the foes, or the friend, whom he massacred, speak,
 Or the beautiful City he fir'd.
 Ye unfetter'd freemen, examine each deed
 That made him renown'd and ador'd,
 Then mention what race by his valor was freed,
 Or blest'd by his sceptre or sword?
 Did conquering CÆSAR Rome's Senate obey?
 Did the Legions disperse at a word?
 Did he halt or retire from a fummit of sway
 That saving his Country conferr'd?
 Then WASHINGTON hail! whom the breath of pure fame
 With praises more sweet shall perfume,
 Than ever embalm'd or exalted a name
 In Macedon, Athens, or Rome!
 Did Athens, did Sparta, one Hero produce,
 To extinguish their feuds by his mind,
 Or prove to the free the pre-eminent use
 Of Union to them—and Mankind?
 Ah no! if wife Greece but one Patriot adept,
 One Leader like our's had enjoy'd,
 No lover of Science or Freedom had wept
 For Science and Freedom destroy'd.
 Then WASHINGTON hail! whom the breath of pure fame
 With praises more sweet shall perfume,
 Than ever embalm'd or exalted a name
 In Macedon, Athens, or Rome!
