FOR SALE, BLOOMSBURY,

BLOOM SBURY,

THAT elegant SEAT at the Falls of Delaware in the vicinity of Trenton, in New-Jersey, occupied for many years past by the subscriber; containing upwards of 200 acres of land, besides a tract of wood-land of about 185 acres, at the distance of two miles. The farm is divided by the main street leading from Trenton to Lamberton, and Philadelphia, into two parts, nearly equal in quantity; the eastwardly part being arable land, is laid off in convenient stelds, and in good sarming order. The other part, bounded by the said street on the east, and by the river on the west, forms a square; which, from the combined effect of struation and improvement, is generally allowed to be one of the most beautiful and desirable seats in the state. The mansion-house is a handsome, well-simished brick building, 50 by 40, containing four rooms on each floor, with excellent cellars, and a two story brick kitchen; and commanding a very extensive and pleasing view of the river, both above and below, as well as including the falls, and also of trenton and the neighbouring seats and improvements on both sides of the river. Among the out-buildings are a new store coach-house and stables, sufficient to contain fix carriages and ten houses, accommodated with a cutting and feeding room, and a canacious left for have, adianing these is a new complete coach-house and stables, as well as including the falls, and also says left for have, adianing these is a new complete coach-house and stables, sufficient to contain fix carriages and ten houses, accommodated with a cutting and feeding room, and a canacious left for have, adianing these is a new store complete comments on the same states. horses, accommodated with a cutting and feeding room, and a capacious loft for hay; adjoining these is a very complete granary, rat proof, and a sone cow-house, upwards of 100 feet in length, containing thirty-one paved stalls, over which is a roomy loft for hay, &c. Adjoining the court-yard of the mansion-house, is a garahay, &c. Adjoining the court-yard of the manfion-house, is a garden of about two acres, extending towards the river, in the highest state of culture, and abounding with a rich cossession of the choicest fruits of almost every kind, and several large asparagus beds, highly manured. At a convenient distance from the manfion-house, and nearly in the centre of the square, is a new, well-built, stone farm-house, accommodated with a large cheefe-room, fpring-house, garden, &c. a complete stone smoke-house, corncribs, waggon-house, a capacious ice-house, and every other necessary out-building. The ground is properly divided into small fields, all well watered, highly improved, and chiesly under the most approved grafs. This square has produced annually, for several years past, upwards of fixty tons of the best hay, fupporting through the fummer feafon twenty to thirty horned cattle, and eight or ten horfes. It contains also two bearing or chards of good fruit. The river abounds, in the proper seafons, with great plenty of all kinds of fish usually found in fresh water with great plenty of all kinds of fish usually found in fresh water in this climate, and with a variety of wild-sowl; both of which may afford a pleasing amusement to the sportsman, as well as a convenient addition to the elegance and variety of his table. The whole of the land, except the wood-land, is inclosed and divided by good sences, great part of which is formed of red cedar posts, and rails of chesuit and white cedar. The purchaser may have the improved square separately, or the whole together, as may best fuit him. There is an inexhaussible quautity of good building stone on the river shore. The purchase money, if well secured, and the interest punctually paid, will not be demanded for many years.

Any person desirous of viewing the premises, may be gratified on application to Samuel W. Stockton, Esq. of Trenton, or Mr. INALLMAN, who at present occupies the same house and part of the land—and may know the price on application to the fubleriber, at No. 213, South Second-freet, opposite to the New Market, in Philadelphia. O'N Tucfday the 27th of March next will be exposed to Sale, by way of Public Vendue, on the premifes—One exceedingly valuable and highly improved Farm, containing about two hundred and ninety-nine acres, fituate on the river Driaware; on which is erected a handlome two-story brick house, with a new piazza in the front, two kitchens, a good barn, stables, hay-house, and other convenient on house. plazza in the front, two kitchens, a good barn, liables, hay-houle, and other convenient outhouf s. A good orchard of the bell kind of grafted truit, now in its prime; a large rarden well fenced in, and in good order; and a shad and herring fillhery before the door. This place is remarkably well sumbered, has a sufficiency of meadow, a large front on the river, and runs back to the post-toad.

dow, a large front on the river, and runs back to the post-road.

One other very valuable Farm, adjoining the above; containing about two hundred and seven acres, the greatest part of which is wood-land. There are on this farm a good house, barn, stables, and other outhouses, with a young thriving orchard of the best grasted fruit, and a shad and herring sissery. It has long been a well accustomed tavern; and the ferry belonging to it, known by the name of Dunks's, is noted for being well kept and much frequented. Both the above places afford the best prospects on the river, and are remarkably healthy.

One other small Farm, containing about sixty-three acres, situate in the township of Southampton, in the sounty aforesaid; on which are crested two log-houses. There is a small orchard, and a great sufficiency of wood-land and meadow ground.

One Lot, containing four acres, situate on the great post-road leading from Philadelphia to New-York, and ten miles from the former. On it is a good log dwelling-house, and work-shop adjoining, with a well of excellent water at the door: now in the tenure of the Widow Ward.

JOHN SWIFT, JOHN M. NESBIT, SAMUEL BENEZET,

To be SOLD peremptorily, at PUBLIC VENDUE, on Wednelday the 11th day of April next,

(eptm27)

THE SEAT of the late Doctor Lewis Johnston, deceased, in Perth-Amboy, containing TWO HUNDRED ACRES of LAND.

This place is bounded foutherly for near a mile on the river Raritan, where it empties into the bay about 18 miles from Sandy-Hook, and affords two most agreeable fituations for Gentlemens' Sears. There are now on it, two brick houses, with gardens, and a good collection of fruit trees of the best kinds. The land is very fertile, and a great part of it very good meadow; and from its fituation on the river, has the advantage of fish of different kinds, in their feafons, particularly of oysters and chicken clams, which may be picked in great plenty on the flits before the doors. It is a delightful, healthy situation, capable of genteel and tasty improvements; and as Perth-Amboy is one of the best sea-ports in the United States, and within 18 miles of the sea, the prospect of its reasing in value from that circumstance, is by no means incon-

There will also be sold, other Lots, within the bounds of the city, and about Five Hundred Acres of Land on the opposite side of the river Raritan—part of which is improved by a farm—on which there is a framed dwelling-house and barn, with an orchard of grafted apple trees, and will contain about one hundred and fifty acres; the remainder will be fold in convenient lots, well wooded and timbered, and very convenient for supplying New York and other markets with five wood, timber too supplying New York and other markets with five wood, timber too supplying New York and other markets with five wood, timber too supplying New York and other markets with five wood, timber too supplying New York and other markets with five wood, timber too supplying New York. York and other markets with fire-wood, timber for finp building, and other uses, the transportation by water being easy and safe.—The conditions will be made known at the day of sale, and the requisite conveyances made by

JAMES PARKER and Jame time and place.

Likewife to be SOLD, at the Jame time and place.

ELEVEN ACRES of LAND, adjoining the above, the property of the Proprietors of Eaft New-Jersey, wherean the proprietary house lately flood. The elegant fituation of this spot is hardly to be equalled; it affords a grand prospect of Raritan Bay, and of the Bay formed by the waters of Raritan and Hudson's rivers, where they disembogue into the sea to the East—and a most delightful one of the serventine course of the Raritan river, for several miles, through a rich tract of meadow to the West. The great quantity of stone nearly dressed, and brick, the remains of the house lately burned, will be nearly sufficient for a new building; and a large stone cistern, and well of excellent water, with a very convenient stable and coach-house, will greatly lesses the expense of putting the place in order for the relidence of a Gentleman.—There are sew situations so eligible, particularly in the summer season—when the cool sea breezes, and the elevated situations, render them places of pleasing retreat, from the consinement and sustry air of the southern states and neighbouring cities. ment and fultry air of the fouthern states and neighbouring cities.
