FOR SALE, BLOOMSBURY,

THAT elegant SEAT at the Falls of Delaware, in the vicinity of Trenton, in New-Jerley, occupied for many years paft by the subscriber; containing upwards of 200 acres of land, besides a tract of wood-land of about 185 acres, at the distance of two miles. The farm is divided by the main street leading from Trenton to Lamberton, and Philadelphia, into two parts, nearly equal in quantity; the eastwardly part being arable land, is laid off in convenient fields, and in good farming order. The other part, bounded by the said street on the east, and by the river on the west, forms a square; which, from the combined effect of situation and improvement, is generally allowed to be one of the most beautiful and desirable scats in the state. The mansion-house is a handsome, well-simished brick building, 50 by 40, containing four rooms on each shoor, with excellent cellars, and a two story brick kitchen; and commanding a very extensive and pleasing view of the river, both above and below, as well as including the falls, and also of Trenton and the neighbouring seats and improvements on both sides of the river. Among the our-buildings are a new stone coach-house and stables, sufficient to contain fix carriages and tenhorses, accommodated with a cutting and seeding room, and a capacious lost for hay; adjoining these is a very complete granary, rat proof, and a stone cow-house, upwards of 100 feet in length, containing thirty-one paved stalls, over which is a roomy lost for hay, &c. Adjoining the court-yaid of the mansion-house, is a garden of about two acres, extending towards the river, in the highest state of culture, and abounding with a rich collection of the choicest fruits of almost every kind, and several large asparagus beds, highly manured. At a convenient distance from the mansion-house, and nearly in the centre of the square, is a new, well-built, stone farm-house, accommodated with a large cheese-room, spring-house, garden, &c. a complete stone since from small serious building. The ground is properly divided into THAT elegant SEAT at the Falls of Dolaware, in the vicinity cribs, waggon-house, a capacious ice-house, and every other necessary out-building. The ground is properly divided into small shelds, all well watered, highly improved, and chiefly under the most approved grass. This square has produced annually, for several years past, upwards of fixty ions of the best hay, besides supporting through the summer season twenty to thirty horned cattle, and eight or ten horses. It contains also two bearing orchards of good fruit. The tiver abounds, in the proper seasons, with great plenty of all kinds of fish usually sound in fresh water in this climate, and with a variety of wild-sowl; both of which may afford a pleasing amuscoment to the sportsman, as well as a convenient addition to the elegance and variety of his table. The whole of the land, except the wood-land, is inclosed and divided convenient addition to the elegance and variety of his table. The whole of the land, except the wood-land, is inclosed and divided by good fences, great part of which is formed of red cedar polls, and rails of chelnut and white cedar. The purchaser may have the improved square separately, or the whole together, as may best fuit him. There is an inexhaustible quantity of good building stone on the river shore. The purchase money, if well secured, and the interest punctually paid, will not be demanded for many years.

Any person desirous of viewing the premises, may be gratisted on application to Samuel W. Stockton, Esq. of Trenton, or Mr. Inallman, who at present occupies the sam-house and part of the land—and may know the price on application to the subscriber, at No. 213, South Second-street, opposite to the New-Market, in Philadelphia.

female world, than perhaps any other extant.

A volume, under the prefent title, was lately published in England and Ireland, and had a most rapid sale, having been purchased by almost every lady of taste in those kingdoms. To this volume the editor has added Miss More's Essays—Mrs. Chapone's letters on the government of the temper—and Swift's letter to a young lady newly married. These have considerably enhanced its value, and he doubts not, the ladies on this fide of the Atlantic will be as generous in their encouragement of a work intended for their advantage as those in Engiand and Ireland have been.
