

PROLOGUE,
TO CROSS PARTNERS.

Written by GEORGE COLEMAN, junior, Esq.
Spoken by Mr. PALMER.

THIS is a Lady's piece—and after that We need not sue for favor—verbum sat John Bull, a fine, good-natur'd, honest blade is;
No milk-sop he—and yet John loves the Ladies.
What, if half taken from the French our Play, Do not, good John, go growlingly away!
If blunt, in gallantry you yield to no man;
And tho' you damn Maufriser, zounds, man, don't damn the woman!

This to plain John: and as for Master Jack,
In a green box, his coat half off his back, What Play, or whose, he little cares, so he sports but his figure at the Comedy.
Too volatile to give he takes the tone; Jacky has no opinion of his own!
As Critics frown, or smile, look pleas'd or gruff, Jacky is with 'em—thinks their word enough, And cries, damn'd good! damn'd fine! damn'd bad! damn'd stuff!

While others, more refin'd, who deign to deck Our lower range, with towels round their neck; Stout, high-born, British youth, who lounge away Three evening hours of a sultry day In ten strips of under-waist-coats at a play: Vacant they sit; nor praise, nor damn the scene; Fashion is most amazingly serene!
Or else Lord Bob, to Lady Betty turns.
(Whole gentle breast for sweet Lord Bobby burns) And breathes cold nothings of his ardent love, Which, like his muscles, nought he vows can move;

While o'er his forehead, to encrease her pangs, In artificial ease, a love-lock hangs!
These sweet, soft swains, our drama ne'er perplex;
Nor dread we ought from the still softer sex.
Woman, whose every vein with feeling flows, In whose mild breast each kindly passion glows:
Woman, whose heart for ruder man will bleed, Must feel for Woman, in an hour of need.

Whom fear we then?—all here success must with us;
And honest Gods, above, be ye propitious!
By your loud fiats we must sink or rise—Great falling and two-falling Deities!
At once as well—none here will sure refuse Aid to a female—and a Virgin Muse!

To the PUBLIC.

THE Subscribers having been appointed a committee of the Board of the Trustees of the University of North Carolina, for the purpose of receiving proposals from such gentlemen as may intend to undertake the instruction of youth in that institution, take the opportunity of making known to the public their wish that such gentlemen should signify their intention to the subscribers.

The objects to which it is contemplated by the Board to turn the attention of the student on the first establishment, are—The study of Languages, particularly the English—History, ancient and modern—the Belle-lettres—Logic and Moral Philosophy—the knowledge of the Mathematics and Natural Philosophy—Agriculture and Botany, with the principles of Architecture.

Gentlemen conversant in these branches of Science and Literature, and who can be well recommended, will receive very handsome encouragement by the Board. The exercises of the institution will commence as early as possible after the completion of the buildings of the University, which are to be contracted for immediately.

THE SYSTEM OF Short-Hand,

Used by Mr. LLOYD, in taking down the Debates of Congress. A system so easy, that any man, of ordinary capacity, may clearly comprehend it in half an hour, and soon practise it, in its fullest extent, without any further instruction, than what will be conveyed in a few pages,— the whole ART being comprised in eighteen simple characters, without any of those perplexing, arbitrary marks, with which the learners of other systems are obliged to burden their memory, and embarrass their practice.

Price, to Subscribers, One Dollar—to Non-Subscribers, a Dollar and half.

Subscriptions received by Messrs. Rice, Booksellers, Market-Street, and by JOHN CAREY, No. 26, Pear-Street.

Half a Dollar to be paid at the time of subscribing.

Between December 1st, 1792.
William Shipley Complainant, John Meng and others Defendants.
Present,
His Excellency the Chancellor.

THE Complainant having filed his bill of Complaint against the Defendants in the month of September, seventeen hundred and ninety-one, and in the said Bill of Complaint did among other things set forth that the said Complainant being seized in his Demelise as of fee of and in a certain Tract of Land, said to contain nine hundred and thirty acres, situate, lying and being in the township of Hardwick in the county of Suffolk in the State of New-Jersey, did on the first of March seventeen hundred and eighty-five, bargain sell and convey the same in fee simple unto John Meng and John Henderson of the city of Philadelphia, William Goodwin and John Town, for the consideration of One Thousand Six Hundred Pounds in Gold or Silver—That on the fifth day of the same month of March the said feepees above named did execute unto the said William Shipley a Deed of Mortgage in fee simple of the said Tract of Land to secure the payment of the said sixteen hundred pounds, with the lawful interest which might thereon accrue—That in the year seventeen hundred and eighty-six the said John Meng and William Goodwin did become Bankrupts within the intent and meaning of the acts of the Legislation of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and such proceedings were had against them that in the same month they were duly declared Bankrupts; and that they the said John Meng and William Goodwin did in some short time afterwards convey and transfer all their estate both real and personal, and particularly all their right and title to the premises above mentioned to John Field, Curtis Clay, James C. Fisher, John Wharton, John Kaighn and Arthur Collins all of the city of Philadelphia, subject to the Mortgage to as aforesaid in the said Complainant. That the said John Field, Curtis Clay, James C. Fisher, Isaac Wharton, John Kaighn and Arthur Collins soon after bargained, sold and conveyed all their Right and Title of and in the said Tract of Land unto Benjamin Town of the city of Philadelphia, and John Town, subject to the Mortgage aforesaid—That on the eighteenth day of October seventeen hundred and eighty-five, the said John Town and Benjamin Town did execute another Mortgage to the said William Shipley for securing the payment of twelve hundred pounds in certain installments—That in the month of January seventeen hundred and eighty-six, John Town did bargain and sell in fee simple all his Right and Title to the said premises, to the said Benjamin Town, subject to the Mortgage aforesaid—That in the month of February seventeen hundred and eighty-eight, the said Benjamin Town did convey all his Right and Title to the said premises, to John Field and Curtis Clay of the city of Phi-delphia, upon certain Trusts unknown to the Complainant—That said Benjamin Town the soon after became Bankrupt, and in pursuance of the bankrupt laws of the State of Pennsylvania, did convey all his estate real and personal to a certain Robert Ralston—That John Henderson did also in the month of September seventeen hundred and eighty-seven become a Bankrupt, and under the bankrupt laws of the State of Pennsylvania, did assign and convey all his estate real and personal to David Lenox, George Hughes, Matthew Clarkson, Peter Baynton and Richard Bache—And the Complainant doth in and by his said Bill, pray that those having Right to the said Estate may be decreed to pay him what is due on the said Mortgages, or that the equity of Redemption be foreclosed by the Decree of this Court.

And now upon opening this matter this day by Richard Stockton, Esquire, being of the complainants counsel—it appearing to the Court that the said defendants do reside in the State of Pennsylvania, without the jurisdiction of this Court; and it appearing further to this Court that writs of subpoena have been taken out according to the course of this Court, that the said writs of subpoena have been duly served upon the said several Defendants upwards of one year from this day; and that none of the said Defendants have caused his or their appearance to be entered in this Court to the suit of the Complainant: It is therefore ordered by his Excellency the Chancellor, that the said Defendants cause their appearance to be entered to the suit of this Court in two months from this day, or that the Plaintiffs bill be taken pro confesso agreeably to the directions of the act of the Legislature in such case made and provided.
—The Complainant giving notice and making publication of this rule, in and by the said act of the Legislature is provided.

BOWEN'S EXHIBITIONS OF Wax-Work & Paintings,

ARE open every day and evening (Sundays excepted) at the House lately occupied by Mrs. PINE, No. 9, North Eighth-Street.
FIRST ROOM—Contains upwards of 100 elegant Paintings, and about 30 Wax Figures, in full stature—among which are Likenesses of a number of the principal characters in America; Baron Trenck in chains, an Indian Chief, and several beautiful young Ladies of different States, &c. &c.

SECOND ROOM—Contains eighteen large Wax Figures, which form a SOCIABLE CLUB, or the OYSTER SUPPER; and the SCHOOL for SCANDAL, consisting of twelve female Figures, making their observations on a young Lady, who had eloped with a Footman.
Admittance One Quarter of a Dollar each Room.

TO BE SOLD BY THE EDITOR,

A TABLE for receiving and paying Gold—graduated according to Law—Blank Manifests—And Blanks for the various Powers of Attorney necessary in transacting Business at the Treasury or the Bank of the United States.

A GREAT BARGAIN.

FOR Sale, a beautiful situation on the Potowmack, adjoining the town of Alexandria and in a line of direction towards the Federal City and George Town, in full view of each place, commanding a prospect of the river and adjacent country of Maryland and Virginia, for many miles; about 45 or 50 acres of Land, lying directly on the river, will be sold, with the improvements, which are, a two-story framed dwelling-house, nearly finished, a kitchen, office, brick smoke-house and dairy, two-story framed barn, a well of excellent water, and an icehouse, a yard and garden, neatly railed and highly improved, with a number of other necessary improvements; the whole of the land enclosed with posts and rails, ten or fifteen acres laid down, with different kinds of grass. Its contiguity to those three towns must render it an object worthy the attention of any person who wishes to invest money in a property that must enhance in value, in proportion to the rapid increase of the Federal City, Alexandria and George-Town. This property lies nearly in a central situation to each place. The Potowmack at this spot has a fine deep shore and harbour, capable of receiving vessels of any burden. It may not be improper to observe, that men of judgment think a profitable and convenient Ferry might be erected here to the City of Washington and the Maryland shores leading to Baltimore and Philadelphia.—Also to sell, 215 acres of Wood-Land, about three miles distant, which will suit well to supply the above in wood and timber. The title may be seen to the above property, which is indisputable, and terms known by application to the subscriber, living on the premises.

person, four Notes of Hand, given by the late James Gardner, of Wilmington, North Carolina, to Samuel Jackson, of Philadelphia, all bearing date the 19th July, 1785, amounting in the whole to £. 2,600 13 3 North-Carolina currency; the greater part of which said Notes have been sold to said Thomas Machie & Co. in proof of which the subscribers have the deposition of Mr. Jasper Mauduit Jackson, and other documents which will fully and clearly illustrate the matter.
It is therefore expected that this notice, with the one advertised in this paper in May and June, 1791, will be a sufficient caution to the public.

THE EDITOR—TO HIS SUBSCRIBERS.

THE Arrangement of Subscriptions for this Gazette has been for a long time necessary. The subscriptions are great and the receipts, and have annually amounted to 2000 or 2500 dollars.
The receipts for subscriptions; the consequence of obscure. The Editor has no other resource than arrears, to discharge the debts he has been obliged to incur in prosecuting the publication.
He is therefore necessitated to request his application to those who have received subscription money on account of the Gazette, and those who have not paid what is due, to make remittances as soon as possible.
On these receipts, the continuation of this Gazette, or the plan of an extensively circulating paper is absolutely suspended.

The price of this Gazette is Three Dollars per annum.—One half to be paid at the time of subscribing.
