

BRUSSELS, October 25.

Address of the Representative of the French People, united in Convention, to the Armies of the Republic.

CITIZENS in arms, who combat for the rights of man, you, whose courage has insured the triumph of Liberty and Equality; your grateful country now addresses you through us. Receive the recompence of the dangers, fatigues, and sacrifices, which have marked your path towards glory. This recompence, citizens in arms, you already enjoy in the name of the French People. The National Convention declare, that you have saved the Republic, and that

Your Country is no longer in danger.

The National Convention decrees,

1. That this testimony of public gratitude shall be inscribed on the standards after the Roman manner, and that these standards shall be sent by the Executive Power to the armies.

9. That the honor of bearing them in battle shall be decreed by the general to citizens who may have had the happiness to distinguish themselves by some splendid action.

3. That if the National Convention shall again declare the country to be in danger, these standards of public safety shall be folded up, and the armies shall not have the right of bearing them in their camp, while the danger of their country continues.

4. That if through want of discipline, or any act of cowardice, the arms of the republic shall be stained in any of the armies, the criminal army shall be first punished, by being deprived of this mark of the confidence of the people, which shall be carried back to the National Convention, and shall not be restored to the army which lost it, until they shall have gained two victories. This standard of public safety shall be sacredly guarded in camp by a guard of honor, and during battle placed in the most conspicuous part of the camp. The corps to which the general has entrusted it, shall defend it courageously, and that which suffers it to fall into the hands of the enemy, shall be dismissed, and its members declared incapable of discharging any of the duties of a citizen. Their names shall likewise be inscribed on tablets which shall be fixed up in all the common halls of the republic.

2. All the other Emigrants, whatever may be their rank or condition, who do not rent a house or lodgings, are to leave the country in the space of eight days after the publication of the present Arret, on pain of being treated as vagabonds.

3. All those who, in consequence of the above article, may be entitled to remain, are to give in their names, professions, &c. &c. to the officers of justice. TO BE SOLD, That well-known Place, called South-Point,

LYING at the end of Sinipuxent Neck, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, within two miles of the Inlet, in Worcester County, in the said State, being the first landing for vessels that trade in there. From the situation of the place, it is convenient for fish, clams and oysters, is open to the sea, and has every convenience that could be wished for. The soil is excellent for Indian corn, wheat or flax, is natural to clover, and has a good marsh pasture for stock. Any person desirous of purchasing, may know the terms by applying to Asstleton Humphreys, Esq. in Philadelphia—Mr. Benjamin Purnell, in Indian Town, Worcester County—or to Capt. Littleton Robins, near the place. Jan. 2. (A)

A GREAT BARGAIN.

FOR Sale, a beautiful situation on the Potowmack, adjoining the town of Alexandria and in a line of direction towards the Federal City and George Town, in full view of each place, commanding a prospect of the river and adjacent country of Maryland and Virginia, for many miles; about 45 or 50 acres of Land, lying directly on the river, will be sold, with the improvements, which are, a two-story framed dwelling-house, neatly finished, a kitchen, office, brick smoke-house and dairy, two-story framed barn, a well of excellent water, and an ice-house, a yard and garden, neatly railed and highly improved, with a number of other necessary improvements; the whole of the land enclosed with posts and rails, ten or fifteen acres laid down, with different kinds of grass. Its contiguity to those three towns must render it an object worthy the attention of any person who wishes to invest money in a property that must enhance in value, in proportion to the rapid increase of the Federal City, Alexandria and George-Town. This property lies nearly in a central situation to each place. The Potowmack at this spot has a fine deep shore and harbour, capable of receiving vessels of any burden. It may not be improper to observe, that men of judgment think a profitable and convenient Ferry might be erected here to the City of Washington and the Maryland shores leading to Baltimore and Philadelphia.—Also to sell, 215 acres of Wood-Land, about three miles distant, which will suit well to supply the above in wood and timber. The title may be seen to the above property, which is indisputable, and terms known by application to the subscriber, living on the premises. BALDWIN DADE, December 12th, 1792. ep 3m
