cles. Embellished with sixteen Copperplates.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work is printing on a superfine paper, and new types, (cast for the purpose) which will be occasionally renewed before they contract a worn appearance.

II. The work is furnished in boards, in volumes or half-volumes, as subscribers chuse; the price of the whole volumes, five dollars each, of the half-volumes two dollars and two-thirds of a dollar each. Ten dollars to be paid on subscribing, the volumes or half-volumes sinished to be paid for when delivered, the price of one volume to be paid in advance, and the price of each succeeding volume to be paid on delivering the volume preceding it. No part of the work will be delivered unless paid for.

III. In the course of the publication will be delivered about five hundred copperplates elegantly engraved in Philadelphia: which by far exceed in number those given in any other scientific distingary. At the close of the publication will be delivered an elegant frontispiece, the dedication, preface, and proper title pages for the different volumes.

It is expected the work will be comprised in about eighteen volumes in quarto.

As several gentlemen who have honored this undertaking with early subscriptions, have only received a small part of the work, they are earnessly requested to complete their sets, as sar as published, immediately, while the publisher skill has it in his power to supply them with the parts which have not been surnished. As the subscription will very possibly be closed by the first of Fully next, the publisher cannot undertake to comblete fets after that period; and those who wish to become possigns of this truly valuable and important work, will please apply before the expiration of that time, that they may not be disapponted.

The very heavy expence necessaries in indishensable varies.

the expiration of that time, that they may not be algaphointed.

The very heavy expense necessarily incurred in carrying on this work, makes it indispensably requires for the publisher to adhere more strictly than he has done to the original condition, of delivering the volumes only on being paid for them.

16,737 Prizes 33,263 Blanks

Dollars 350,000

By this scheme at least the amount of the tickets will return to the fortunate adventurers, and yet the federal City will gain its object thereby, in a magnificent building defigned both for public and private convenience.

Although some expense must necessarily attend the conducting of the lottery, (which expense will be taken from the principal prize) the Commissioners having agreed to present in teturn a sufficient quantity of excellent free-stone, logether with the best adapted lots for the house and for the out-houses, the value of the lottery entire may be fairly rated at something more than par: In this important instance it will be sound, on examination, to exceed all the lotteries that have ever been offered to the Public in this or perhaps in any other country. The keys of the Hotel, when compleat, will be delivered to the fortunate possession and the other prizes will be paid, without deduction, in one month after the drawing, by the City Treasurer at Washington, or at such Bank or Banks as may be hereafter as nonneed, for the conveniency of the fortunate adventurers.

The drawing will commence on Monday the 9th of September next, at the City of Washington.

Tickets may be had of Col. Wm. Dickens, City Treasurer of Washington; Thayer & Borniet, of Charleston, South-Carolina; Gideon Denison, Savannah; Messirs. James West & Co. Baltimore; Mr. Peter Gilman, Boston; and at such other places. will be hereaster published.

N. B. ONE HUNDKED and a convenient HOTEL or INN, with hot and cold Baths, Stables, and other out houses, if presented on or before the 10th of April next; and a preference will be given to the Artist for a Contract, provided he be duly qualified to compleat his plan. The ground on which the Hotel and out houses are to be crested, will be a corner lot of about 90 by 200 feet, with a back avenue to the stables, &c. Sections and estimates of the expense will be expected with the elevations, &c. compleat; and 50,000 dollars must be regarded by the Architect as the utmost limit in the expense intended for this purpose.
