

THE CAPTIVE KING.
BY DR. WALCOT.

RECITATIVE—Sung by Mr. INGLDON.

DEAD is the dream of life that calm'd my care,
And dimm'd the beam of hope that charm'd despair!
Yet let my soul be firm—pass one short hour,
And LOUIS scorns the arm of Russian power!

SUNG.

Adieu, thou Partner of my woes, Where spectred silence reigns around;
And thought awakes the dread report, But moans that deep with horror sound.
No more these walls may grief shall hear,
And to a captive King reply, When morning rose upon his tear,
And night descended on the sigh.

Forbear, my love, these drops to shed,
And joy to think my woes shall cease; Lo! when the vale of death I tread, I wander from the storm to peace!
Ye too, my idol babes, farewell!
Like me, whose tender forms may bleed;
The gloomy crimes of murder swell, While nature shudders at the deed.
Ye know, we only fall to rise,
And start to glory from the dust;
To claim alliance with the skies,
The sacred refuge from th' unjust.

My spirit, lo! for yours shall wait; Together we will seek the shore, Where sorrow dies, and rubrics late Can give the parting pang no more!

CHORUS.

Go, injur'd King, with seraphs shine, Behold, a brighter crown is thine,
And see appear with gladden'd eyes,
An host to hail thee, 'midst the skies!

* More generally known by the name of PETER PINDAR.

NEW POST ROAD.

THE following is the route of a Post, lately established, between the city of Hudson, on the North of Hudson's River, and the Tioga country:
Miles
From the city of Hudson to Catskill 6 Catskill to Harpersfield 52 Harpersfield to Ouliot 36 Ouliot to Chenango 50
Chenango to Owego 16 Owego to Newtown, on the Tioga, } branch of Susquehanna, } 45 Newtown to the Painted Post on } Tioga aforesaid } 15 220

This post road is the result of the efforts of individuals, who continue the line of the public post office from Hudson for such postage as they may lawfully charge, and such voluntary subscriptions as they can procure. It connects all the contiguous counties in the States of Pennsylvania and New-York, on the common boundary line of the two States, with the old counties of New-York and New-England, and will establish an early communication between the families that are divided, by emigration, between the ancient settlements and that fine new country.

LONDON, March 21.

If the value of a donation is to be estimated by its amount, the subscription from Eton school claims pre-eminence. But the merit of the gift is enhanced by the promptitude and sincerity with which it was given. An hundred guineas to a charity from school-boys, announces such genuine patriotism, such innate and laudable liberality, that the nation itself, high as she stands in the estimation of the world, is honored by the donation. There is vigor and manhood, as well as generosity, in the very idea, and which none but British Youth would have conceived or executed.

It is therefore, with a pleasure bordering on enthusiasm, that we record the munificent donation of one hundred guineas given by the young gentlemen at Eton, to the society for the relief of the widows and children of those gallant men who may fall in the service of their country; and when we consider the spirited connections of many of these young gentlemen, and that they are destined to the cabinet or the field, we cannot but feel an happy preface, that the British constitution will be transmitted pure and unimpaired to the latest posterity.
Westminster, it is said, is following this example; but Eton has the glory of having taken the lead on this occasion.
The ladies in Scotland are raising a fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of such soldiers and sailors as may fall in battle. The subscription is carrying on under the patronage of the Countess of Glencairn, lady Clerk of Pennycuik, hon. Mrs. Drummond of Perth, Mrs. Dundas, George-street, and Mrs. Clerk of Mavisbank.

Albany Glass-House.

The Proprietors of the Glass-Manufactory, under the Firm of M'CLALLEN, M'GREGOR and Co.
BEG leave to inform the public, that they have now brought their WINDOW-GLASS to such perfection, as will be found, on comparison, to be equal, in quality, to the best London Crown Glass.

Having fixed their prices at a lower rate than imported Glass, they are induced to believe, that importations of this article will be discontinued, in proportion as their works are extended.— They propose to enlarge the scale of this business, and as the success of it will depend on the patriotic support of the public, they beg leave to solicit their friendly patronage in the pursuit of a branch which will interest every lover of AMERICAN MANUFACTURES.

All orders for WINDOW-GLASS, of any size, will be received at the Store of RHODES and MACGREGOR, No. 234, Queen-street, New-York, and at the Glass Warehouse, No. 48, Market-street, Albany, which will be punctually attended to.

WANTED, six smart active LADS, not exceeding 16 years of age, to be indentured as Apprentices, and regularly instructed in the various branches of Glass-Making.

Also, three Window-Glass Makers, to whom great encouragement will be given.

Bookseller, at the Stone-House, in Second Street, PHILADELPHIA.

VOLUME VIII. OF ENCYCLOPÆDIA:

OR, A DICTIONARY OF ARTS, SCIENCES, AND MISCELLANEOUS LITERATURE,
On a Plan entirely new:

BY WHICH THE DIFFERENT SCIENCES AND ARTS are digested into the Form of Distinct, TREATISES OR SYSTEMS:

THIS VOLUME CONTAINS AN Account of the Cape of Good Hope, Grafting, Universal Grammar, Grasses, Greece, Greenland, Guam, Guinea, Gunnery, Happiness, Harmony, Heat, Hepatic-Air, Heraldry, Hindostan, Hippopotamus, History, New-Holland, Horse, Horsemanship, Hotcuts, and Hunting, Hulbandry, Hydrometer, with a great variety of Biographical and Miscellaneous Articles. Embellished with sixteen Copperplates.

CONDITIONS.

- I. The work is printed on a superfine paper, and new types, (cast for the purpose) which will be occasionally renewed before they contract a worn appearance.
- II. The work is furnished in boards, in volumes or half-volumes, as subscribers chuse; the price of the whole volumes, five dollars each, of the half-volumes two dollars and two-thirds of a dollar each. Ten dollars to be paid on subscribing, the volumes or half-volumes finished to be paid for when delivered, the price of one volume to be paid in advance, and the price of each succeeding volume to be paid on delivering the volume preceding it. No part of the work will be delivered unless paid for.
- III. In the course of the publication will be delivered about five hundred copperplates elegantly engraved in Philadelphia: which by far exceed in number those given in any other scientific dictionary. At the close of the publication will be delivered an elegant frontispiece, the dedication, preface, and proper title pages for the different volumes.
It is expected the work will be comprised in about eighteen volumes in quarto.

As several gentlemen who have honored this undertaking with early subscriptions, have only received a small part of the work, they are earnestly requested to complete their sets, as far as published, immediately, while the publisher still has it in his power to supply them with the parts which have not been furnished. As the subscription will very possibly be closed by the first of July next, the publisher cannot undertake to complete sets after that period; and those who wish to become possessors of this truly valuable and important work, will please apply before the expiration of that time, that they may not be disappointed.

The very heavy expense necessarily incurred in carrying on this work, makes it indispensably requisite for the publisher to adhere more strictly than he has done to the original condition, of delivering the volumes only on being paid for them.

CIRCULAR LETTER,
OF THE
HISTORICAL SOCIETY,

Respectfully addressed to every Gentleman of Science in the Continent and Islands of America.

SIR,
A SOCIETY has lately been instituted in this State, called the HISTORICAL SOCIETY; the professed design of which is, to collect, preserve and communicate, materials for a complete history of this country, and accounts of all valuable efforts of human ingenuity and industry, from the beginning of its settlement. In pursue of this plan, they have already amassed a large quantity of books, pamphlets and manuscripts; and are still in search of more: A catalogue of which will be printed for the information of the public.

They have also encouraged the publication of a monthly pamphlet, in which is given the result of their enquiries, into the natural, political and ecclesiastical history of this country. It is requested that you would contribute to its value and importance, by attention to the articles an-nexed. The Society beg leave to depend on your obliging answer to these heads of inquiry, when leisure and opportunity will permit.

Your letters addressed, free of expense, to the subscriber, will be gratefully received, and duly noticed in the Society's publications; and you will have the satisfaction of contributing to the general stock of knowledge, with which they hope to entertain the public.

In the name, and by order of the Society, JEREMY BELKNAP,
Corresponding Secretary.
Boston, in Massachusetts, Nov. 1, 1791.

Articles on which the Society request information.

- 1. The time when your town or city was incorporated; its Indian name; when the settlement began; whether it was interrupted, and by what means; to what Colony or County it was first annexed; and if there have been any alterations, what they are, and when made.
- 2. The exploits, labours and sufferings of the inhabitants in war; particular accounts of devotions, deaths, captivities and redemptions.
- 3. Divisions of your town or city in parishes and precincts, or the erection of new towns within the former limits.
- 4. Time of gathering churches of every denomination; names of the several Ministers; the times of their settlement, removal and death; and their age at the time of their death.
- 5. Biographical anecdotes of persons in your town, or within your knowledge, who have been remarkable for ingenuity, enterprise, literature, or any other valuable accomplishment; an account of their literary productions, and if possible, copies of them.
- 6. Topographical description of your town or county, and its vicinity; mountains, rivers, ponds, animals, vegetable productions; remarkable falls, caverns, minerals, stones, fossils, pigments, medicinal and poisonous substances, their uses and antidotes.
- 7. The former and present state of cultivation, and your thoughts on farther improvements, either in respect to agriculture, roads or canals.
- 8. Monuments and relics of the ancient Indians; number and present state of any remaining Indians among you.
- 9. Singular instances of longevity and fecundity from the first settlement to the present time.
- 10. Observations on the weather, diseases, and the influence of the climate, or of particular situations, employments and aliments, especially the effect of spirituous liquors on the human constitution.

- 11. Accurate bills of mortality, specifying ages and casualties, the proportion of births and deaths, and the increase or decrease of population.
- 12. Accounts of manufactures and fisheries, and thoughts on the farther improvement of them.
- 13. Modes of education, private or public; what encouragement is given to schools and colleges, and what is done to advance literature; whether you have a social library, what is the number of books, and of what value.
- 14. What remarkable events have befallen your state, county, town, or particular families or persons, at any time.

P.S. The Corresponding Members of this Society are requested to transmit to the Corresponding Secretary, any historical information of which they may be possessed, respecting any part of the American Continent and Islands, together with printed acts and journals of Assemblies and Conventions, whether civil or ecclesiastical. And the Society will gratefully receive from them and from all other persons whatever, any books, pamphlets, manuscripts, maps or plans which may be useful in forming an historical collection—and any natural or artificial productions which may enlarge the Museum.

The Library and Museum are deposited in an apartment of Faneuil Hall. Any person desirous of making a search among the books or manuscripts, may have access to them under such regulations, as may be known by applying to any one of the members.

maps of the countries described.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE Author is sensible that the first edition of his American Geography (which makes Part I. of the above work) was in many instances defective, in others erroneous, and in some offensive. It has been his endeavour, as it was his desire, in the present edition, to supply the deficiencies, correct the errors, and meliorate the offensive parts of the last. To assist him in this business, he has received many valuable communications from the heads of departments in the general government, and from gentlemen of respectability in the several States. The description of foreign countries (which composes Part II. of the above work) has been carefully compiled from the most approved writers on Geography, and useful information introduced from the discoveries of the latest Navigators, Travellers, and respectable authors. Indeed, no pains nor expense have been spared to render this work the most complete, accurate, and useful of any ever offered to the public.
