

LEGHORN, (Italy) March 8.
 The Capt. of a Ragusan vessel arrived here from Bonne, in Barbary, with a cargo of wheat, relates, that the Algerine cruizers having taken 8 Dutch ships, carried them on the 5th of Feb. into Algiers, but that the Dey immediately ordered them to be released, that they might proceed to their respective places of destination, because the term of 30 days, fixed by his Excellency for the commencement of hostilities, were not then expired; and that the Vikil Hadgi, of the Marine, a sworn enemy to the Christians, had openly disapproved of this generous action, and had incited the Turks and Moors to condemn it so much, that the Reys Selemi, a renegado Jew, said publicly that to release these prizes was very unjust—that they exposed their lives by going out to cruise—and that now, when they had the good fortune to take some prizes, his Excellency had set them at liberty. The Dey, being informed of this behaviour, fell into a violent passion, and ordered the Vikil Hadgi to cause the mutinous Reys Selemi to be immediately beheaded. The Vikil Hadgi instead of executing the order, concealed the criminal on board a corsair; but his Excellency was so much irritated that he wished to send the Vikil Hadgi to the prison of Dafsarcagi, to be there strangled. The Dey, however, on the pressing intreaties of his wife, and the wife of the Vikil Hadgi, sister to the former, gave him his life, but condemned him to exile;—and the sentence was immediately executed, the criminal being put on board a Spanish ship, which was instantly obliged to set sail. This disgrace of the declared enemy of the Christians, has greatly rejoiced the Consuls of commercial nations at Algiers; and what adds to their pleasure is, that the vacant post of the Vikil Hadgi, has been given by the Dey to his nephew, a young Turk, formerly from the Levant, and who is of a very amiable character. The Port Captain has also been disgraced, and his place supplied by another.

BOSTON, April 8.
 A correspondent, who is a native of the United Netherlands, wishes to remind the Americans, that his country is the friend and ally of the United States; that she assisted them in the war, with money, &c. and that she now wishes to live in perfect amity and good fellowship with them; and to inquire, with what propriety they can wish that her territory may be overrun, her towns burnt, and her property destroyed?

In a Liverpool paper of March 25th, are accounts of four privateers and sixteen merchantmen, taken by the British and Spanish ships of war, and carried into various ports. The same paper contains accounts of eighteen English merchantmen being taken and carried into France. These are all in one paper.

We have seen a letter just received from Paris, which mentions that the lady of that unfortunate friend to America, the Marquis de la Fayette, may be soon expected to sail for the United States—where she will receive a cordial welcome.

Capt. Davis, when he failed from England, had safe passports from the Ambassador of the United States, countersigned by the American Consul there, both in the English and French languages.

 A weekly mail will also be carried from Bethlehem to Wilkesbarre, in the county of Luzerne.

By this scheme at least the amount of the tickets will return to the fortunate adventurers, and yet the federal City will gain its object thereby, in a magnificent building designed both for public and private convenience.
 Although some expence must necessarily attend the conducting of the lottery, (which expence will be taken from the principal prize) the Commissioners having agreed to present in return a sufficient quantity of excellent free-stone, together with the best adapted lots for the hotel and for the out-houses, the value of the lottery entire may be fairly rated at something more than par: In this important instance it will be found, on examination, to exceed all the lotteries that have ever been offered to the Public in this or perhaps in any other country. The keys of the Hotel, when compleat, will be delivered to the fortunate possessor of the ticket drawn against its number.—All the other prizes will be paid, without deduction, in one month after the drawing, by the City Treasurer at Washington, or at such Bank or Banks as may be hereafter announced, for the convenience of the fortunate adventurers.
 The drawing will commence on Monday the 9th of September next, at the City of Washington.

Tickets may be had of Col. Wm. Dickins, City Treasurer of Washington; Thayer & Bartlet, of Charleston, South-Carolina; Gideon Denison, Savannah; Messrs. James West & Co. Baltimore; Mr. Peter Gilman, Boston; and at such other places as will be hereafter published.

N. B. ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS will be given for the best Plan of an elegant and convenient HOTEL or INN, with hot and cold Baths, Stables, and other out houses, if presented on or before the 10th of April next; and a preference will be given to the Artist for a Contract, provided he be duly qualified to compleat his plan. The ground on which the Hotel and out houses are to be erected, will be a corner lot of about 90 by 200 feet, with a back avenue to the stables, &c. Sections and estimates of the expence will be expected with the elevations, &c. compleat; and 50,000 dollars must be regarded by the Architect as the utmost limit in the expence intended for this purpose.

Albany Glass-House.

The Proprietors of the Glass-Manufactory, under the Firm of M'CLALLEN, M'GREGOR and Co.
 BEG leave to inform the public, that they have now brought their WINDOW-GLASS to such perfection, as will be found, on comparison, to be equal, in quality, to the best London Crown Glass.
 Having fixed their prices at a lower rate than imported Glass, they are induced to believe, that importations of this article will be discontinued, in proportion as their works are extended.—They propose to enlarge the scale of this business, and as the success of it will depend on the patriotic support of the public, they beg leave to solicit their friendly patronage in the pursuit of a branch which will interest every lover of AMERICAN MANUFACTURES.
 All orders for WINDOW-GLASS, of any size, will be received at the Store of RHODES and MACGREGOR, No. 234, Queen-Street, New-York, and at the Glass Warehouse, No. 48, Market-Street, Albany, which will be punctually attended to.

 Also, three Window-Glass Makers, to whom great encouragement will be given.

Vinall's Arithmetic.

THE Second Edition of this work, with improvements, will speedily be put to press. The rapid sale of the first edition, greatly beyond the author's most sanguine expectations, encourages him to print a second edition. He intends to have it printed upon much better paper than the former, and with a new type.
 Those Bookellers who wish to take a number of copies in sheets, are requested to apply to the author for particulars.
 * 1000 Copies.

At a meeting of the SCHOOL COMMITTEE, February 5th, 1793.
 The Committee, appointed to examine "The Preceptor's Assistant, or Student's Guide," being a systematical treatise of Arithmetic, by JOHN VINALL, teacher of the Mathematics & Writing, in Bolton, reported, that they have attended that service, and are of opinion, that the work is executed with judgment, and is as well calculated for the use of schools, counting houses, and private families, as any of the same compass that has hitherto been offered to the public.

VOTED, That the above report be accepted, and that Mr. VINALL be furnished with a copy of it, whenever he shall desire it.

Copy of the Records. Attest,
CHARLES BULFINCH, Sec'y.

The following character of the above work, is given in the Review of the Massachusetts Magazine, for Jan. 1793:
 "This is a very useful work, and is no ill proof of the judgment and industry of the author. The rules are laid down with propriety, and the examples annexed are sufficient for their illustration. One part of the work deserves particular commendation. We mean that which the author titles "Mercantile Arithmetic." It occupies a considerable portion of his book, but not more than its importance will justify. We would recommend to the young Arithmetician to pay a particular attention to this branch. He will find its principles well explained. And should he make himself master of them, he will always have reason to acknowledge his obligation to the judicious and laborious author. We cannot but congratulate the rising generation on account of the many useful productions which have lately appeared; and in which their improvement has been principally consulted.—Among those productions we must place this treatise of Arithmetic. We should be wanting in justice to the author, should we not acknowledge that his work is in reality that which its title imports—THE PRECEPTOR'S ASSISTANT, or STUDENT'S GUIDE."

No part of the work will be delivered unless paid for.
 III. In the course of the publication will be delivered about five hundred copperplates elegantly engraved in Philadelphia: which by far exceed in number those given in any other scientific dictionary. At the close of the publication will be delivered an elegant frontispiece, the dedication, preface, and proper title pages for the different volumes.
 It is expected the work will be comprised in about eighteen volumes in quarto.

As several gentlemen who have honored this undertaking with early subscriptions, have only received a small part of the work, they are earnestly requested to complete their sets, as far as published, immediately, while the publisher still has it in his power to supply them with the parts which have not been furnished. As the subscription will very possibly be closed by the first of July next, the publisher cannot undertake to complete sets after that period; and those who wish to become possessors of this truly valuable and important work, will please apply before the expiration of that time, that they may not be disappointed.
 The very heavy expence necessarily incurred in carrying on this work, makes it indispensably requisite for the publisher to adhere more strictly than he has done to the original condition, of delivering the volumes only on being paid for them.
