PHILADELPHIA,

THE AMERICAN MOSEUM, from its commencement in January, 1787, to its termination in December, 1792, in twelve volumes, price, neatly bound and lettered, nincteen dollars and one fifth.

The opinion of the Prefident of the United States, respecting this work, is as follows:

"I believe the American Museum has met with extensive, I may say, with universal approbation from competent judges; for I am of opinion, that the work is not only eminently calculated to diffeminate political, agricultural, philosophical, and other valuable information; but that it has been uniformly condulted with taste, attention, and propriety. If to these important objects be superadded the more immediate design of rescoing public documents from oblivion—I will venture to pronounce, as my sentiment, THAT A MORE USEFUL LITERARY PLAN HAS NEVER BEEN UNDERTAKEN IN AMERICA, OF ONE MORE DESERVING OF PUBLIC ENCOURAGEMENT."
