

FROM THE NEW YORK DIARY.

The following stanzas were composed by a lady of this city, and sung at the entertainments given by the French Consul and French Patriots, New-York, July 14.

HARK, hark, how the clamors of war, Thro' GALLIA'S wide regions resound, BELONA has mounted her car, And feathers her terrors around.

CAPTIVITY bursts off her chains, Her shoutings are heard on the heath, Her veterans are crowding the plains, Resolv'd upon FREEDOM or DEATH.

But see! from her battlements high Plum'd VICT'RY undaunted alight, Her standard the waves in the sky, And urges her sons to the fight.

The swords all indignant they clash, They rush round the Babilon's strong walls, Ah! heard you that horrible crash? The TOWER of proud TYRANNY falls.

The minions of despots all fly, Pursu'd by destruction and wrath, FEAR wings their sad flight, and their CRY Disturbs the deep slumbers of DEATH.

Haste, haste, MAN'S DISGRACE, disappear, Vile wretches, of nature the blot, And wherever your hamlets you rear, May SHAME and DISTRESS be your lot.

But GALLIA all hail! may thy chiefs A Temple of Liberty raise, And there may their feuds and their griefs Be lost in its altar's bright blaze.

And when they remember THIS DAY, Bedeck'd with the LAUREL and VINE, May anguish and care fly away, And their voices in anthems combine.

And then may the warblings of songs Be heard from COLUMBIA'S green vales, While echo the wild notes prolongs, And whispers them soft to the gales.

And oh! let the zephyrs so fleet Bear the sweet-swelling notes o'er the main, And there, let them fondly repeat In the ear of each FRENCHMAN the strain.

FASHION.

TOO monstrous large, the railer cries, Our Ladies' Heads; when Hats do rise.

But if Dame Fashion jares to change, And into Lilliput to range; They're now too little grown; and then, They hardly emulate a pin!

Fashion I fear will ne'er do right, Till Ladies' Heads she takes off, quite— For broad or narrow, high or low, The insuring race their teeth will show.

A LOTTERY FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE FEDERAL CITY.

Table with 2 columns: Prizes and Dollars. Includes items like Superb Hotel, Cash Prize, and various amounts of money.

By this scheme at least the amount of the tickets will return to the fortunate adventurers, and yet the federal City will gain its object thereby, in a magnificent building designed both for public and private convenience.

Although some expense must necessarily attend the conducting of the lottery, (which expense will be taken from the principal prize) the Commissioners having agreed to present in return a sufficient quantity of excellent free-stone, together with the best adapted lots for the hotel and for the out-houses, the value of the lottery entire may be fairly rated at something more than par: In this important instance it will be found, on examination, to exceed all the lotteries that have ever been offered to the Public in this or perhaps in any other country.

The drawing will commence on Monday the 6th of September next, at the City of Washington.

Tickets may be had of Col. Wm. Dickens, City Treasurer of Washington; Thayer & Bartlett, of Charleston, South-Carolina; Gideon Denison, Savannah; Messrs. James West & Co. Baltimore; Mr. Peter Gilman, Boston; and at such other places as will be hereafter published.

N. B. ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS will be given for the best Plan of an elegant and convenient HOTEL or INN, with hot and cold Baths, Stables, and other out houses, if presented on or before the 10th of April next; and a preference will be given to the Artist for a Contract, provided he be duly qualified to complete his plan. The ground on which the Hotel and out houses are to be erected, will be a corner lot of about 90 by 200 feet, with a back avenue to the stables, &c. Sections and estimates of the expense will be expected with the elevations, &c. complete; and 50,000 dollars must be regarded by the Architect as the utmost limit in the expense intended for this purpose.

S. BLODGET, Agent for the affairs of the City. March, 6 1793.

BANK of the UNITED STATES.

NOTICE is hereby given that there will be paid at the Bank after the 10th instant, to the Stockholders or their Representatives duly authorized, FOURTEEN DOLLARS and FIFTY CENTS for each Share, being the dividend declared for the last six months.

THE AMERICAN MUSEUM, from its commencement in January, 1787, to its termination in December, 1792, in twelve volumes, price, neatly bound and lettered, nineteen dollars and one fifth.

The opinion of the President of the United States, respecting this work, is as follows: "I believe the American Museum has met with extensive, I may say, with universal approbation from competent judges; for I am of opinion, that the work is not only eminently calculated to disseminate political, agricultural, philosophical, and other valuable information; but that it has been uniformly conducted with taste, attention, and propriety. If to these important objects be superadded the more immediate design of rescuing public documents from oblivion—I will venture to pronounce, as my sentiment, THAT A MORE USEFUL LITERARY PLAN HAS NEVER BEEN UNDERTAKEN IN AMERICA, OF ONE MORE DESERVING OF PUBLIC ENCOURAGEMENT."
