To be able to shall consider indentify that Consumption is curuble by inhalation, is to me a source of unalleyed pleasure. It is as much under the control of medical treatment as any other formidable the control of medical treatment as any other formidable the control of medical treatment as any other handled cases on he curred in the first stages, and fifty por cent. in the second; but in the third stage it is impossible to save more than five per cent, for the Lungs are so cut up by the disease as to bid defiance to medical skill. Even, however, in the last stages, inha-lation affords extraordinary relief to the suffering atten-ding this fearful scourge, which annually destroys shorty-five thousand persons in the United State alone; and a cor-rect calculation shows that of the present population of the earth, eighty millions are destined to fill the Consumptive's grave.
Truly the quiver of death has no arrow so fatal as Consumption. In all ages it has been the great enemy of life,

SELF-ABUSE is another formidable energy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims, through a few yers of suffering down to an untimely grave.
