

ALTOONA, PA. THURSDAY, MARCH 4, 1858.

Where parties are unknown to us, our rules for advertising require payment in advance...

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. The Tribune will be furnished to subscribers at the following rates...

We have been delayed a day in the publishing of our paper this week by a variety of causes, prominent among which were the sickness of our "Devil" and a rush of job work...

The "Mum-Budget" Again. If blackguardism was wit and pointed ridicule sound logic, then, we might the Standard man be considered the inventor of a new and original mode of world production...

Another "Sham" Duel. A short time since, our Philadelphia correspondent gave us an account of a "sham" duel between a couple of medical students in that city, a counterpart to which has just taken place in Pittsburg...

AN IMPORTANT BILL. Mr. Mill, from Franklin county, read in his place to-day a very important bill, entitled "An act relating to the collection of taxes in the several counties of the State."

THE ARGUMENT IN THE CASE OF JAS. KELLY, CONVICTED AT THE RECENT TERM OF OYER AND TERMIER, AT PITTSBURG, OF THE MURDER OF HENRY WISEMAN, WAS TO HAVE TAKEN PLACE LAST SATURDAY, BUT WAS POSTPONED UNTIL SATURDAY NEXT, WHEN IT WILL POSITIVELY BE ARGUED.

LETTER FROM UTAH. Through the kindness of the gentleman by whom the following letter was received, we have been permitted to copy it.

NATIONAL BANK NOTE AND COMMERCIAL REPORTER. This valuable publication, which is issued weekly and monthly in Pittsburg, by R. Wray Jr., comes regularly to hand. To say that it is a valuable guide for the detection of counterfeit notes, would convey but a slight idea of its merits.

The $3000 Law.

A supplement to the $3000 Exemption Law has been introduced in the Senate. It proposes to extend the power to retain $3000 worth of property to any kind of stock, judgment or other indebtedness to the person taking advantage of said law.

The first section of this bill, is intended to correct certain defects in the law of 1849, so as to enable a debtor to retain any kind of property of which he may be possessed, to the amount of three hundred dollars in value.

However that may be in some cases, we think that in the majority, it will afford but a greater premium to rascality. The Act of 1849, designed as it was to protect the honest poor from the grinding oppression of avaricious and remorseless creditors, has been in nine cases out of every ten, in which it was taken advantage of, been used merely as a protection to rascals.

Another "Sham" Duel.

A short time since, our Philadelphia correspondent gave us an account of a "sham" duel between a couple of medical students in that city, a counterpart to which has just taken place in Pittsburg, as will be seen by the following, which we copy from the Union of Monday last.

AN IMPORTANT BILL. Mr. Mill, from Franklin county, read in his place to-day a very important bill, entitled "An act relating to the collection of taxes in the several counties of the State."

THE ARGUMENT IN THE CASE OF JAS. KELLY, CONVICTED AT THE RECENT TERM OF OYER AND TERMIER, AT PITTSBURG, OF THE MURDER OF HENRY WISEMAN, WAS TO HAVE TAKEN PLACE LAST SATURDAY, BUT WAS POSTPONED UNTIL SATURDAY NEXT, WHEN IT WILL POSITIVELY BE ARGUED.

LETTER FROM UTAH.

Through the kindness of the gentleman by whom the following letter was received, we have been permitted to copy it. It affords an insight into affairs in that Territory which will be interesting to our readers, and may be relied on as correct.

Whom you always go in for the wrong side, but the man, the laboring class of the community, I think, would reprobate Mormonism if they could. This is the opinion of men who have lived in the Territory and have been Mormons.

We have here about the 20th of November. Col. Johnson not having sufficient stock to put us through, nor enough to stay where we are the soldiers having to haul wood on wagons, they acting in the capacity of mules, there is no doubt that his conduct will be a matter of considerable speculation in the States; but he has done what any honest and prudent man would have done under similar circumstances, labored for the greatest good of the greatest number.

Although the winter has not been unusually severe, we have only had one mail for 4 months, and not much in that. If one does not get the mail contract at a price that will enable him to put it through on time, I will take a small walk to the States myself, as I am sure I could carry it through on my back as soon as the present men get through with it.
