Where parties are unknown to us, our rules for advertising in this paper are as follows...

Another Triumph.

We last week published the glorious news that the National House of Representatives had adopted the Montgomery-Crittenden Amendment...

Support Your Paper.

What paper? Why, the local paper of your town or country, says the Erie Dispatch. Why do we find that, every new town, of the hundreds springing up around us, make it a sine qua non to plant a press in their midst the first thing they do?

It is because the sagacious business man of eastern parts, who is leading these enterprises, knows well the power of the press and its invaluable services in building up and developing country. Its light is to the business world what the sun is to our social system.

Then, support your paper. It is nothing but your duty as a business man in a community where the good and prosperity of all is a common cause.

Distinguished Death.

Hon. Thomas H. Benton familiarly known as "Old Bullion" is no more, having peacefully departed from this life, about 7 1/2 o'clock on Saturday morning last.

PURCHASE OF MOUNT VERNON.—The Philadelphia Argus says that the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association, chartered at the late session of the Virginia Legislature, has effected the purchase of the home of Washington, and the title deeds were passed on the 6th inst., from John A. Washington, Esq., in consideration of $18,000 paid down, and the balance, $182,000 in three equal payments of one, two and three years—the latter sum is expected to be raised by the Masonic fraternity.

PAY UP.—We must again request our delinquent patrons who owe us for subscription and job work, prior to 1st February, to pay up immediately. We have several heavy payments to make and must have the wherewithal to make them with. We are tired of dunning. We must have money, peaceably if we can, but at any rate must have it. "A word to the wise &c."

Godey's Lady's Book for May is already on our table. We have so exhausted our stock of commendation that we are at a loss for anything to say in regard to it. However we will say that it is a capital number, and ought to be in the hands of every lady in the country, $3 per year. Address L. A. Godey, Philadelphia.

The May number of Graham's Magazine has been received. It is a treasure and we don't wonder that its circulation has more than doubled in a year. The fact is Leland knows how to unite the interesting, amusing and instructive. Terms $3 a year. Address Watson and Co., Phila.

REGISTRY LAW.—On Saturday morning last the Senate of New York passed the Voters' Registry Bill, by a vote of 18 yeas to 14 nays. The bill provides for the better protection of the ballot box, and was defeated a few days since in the Assembly. The Democratic members almost to a man opposed it.

The Pittsburgh & Erie Railroad bill, with the objectionable feature struck out, has been signed by the Governor. The bill also provides for the erection of a new county to be called Hiram, out of the counties of Warren, Crawford and Erie.

JERSEY SHORE BANK.—We were in error, in classing this institution among the swindling wild-cat concerns, owned and controlled by the Buffalo "Kitors." We cheerfully make the correction. The Jersey Shore Bank is as sound an institution as there is in the State, and its officers are men of wealth and character. We were led into making the mistake by a young friend, who ought to be posted on Banks and banking matters. In the future we shall be more chary. We hope friend Dunham is now satisfied.

PEN AND SCISSORS.—Died out—The brewery of the Bennington hands. A Fizzle—Their contemplated "strike." "Meh"—The rain on Monday and Tuesday last. Rightful claim to be agreeable. On a Strike—The hands at the Cambria Rolling Mill and Furnaces. Lowell has over nineteen miles of girls' ends.

An honest man is the noblest work of God; but a woman is the prettiest. The Legislature has refused to charter the Mifflin Bank, to be located at Lewistown. An Empty Sound—That of a railway whistle when you are just too late for the train. The young lady who was "lost in thought" has been found. She was "hugging an idea," looking very much like a man.

A pretty definition of a good wife—one who always wears a cap to have herself and dinner nicely dressed. Good News.—A new State prison is about to be built in Kansas. It ought to be the largest institution of the kind on the Continent. The Berlin (Wis.) Courier says a load of hay judged to weigh a ton, was sold in that city for eighty cents. We call that cheap.

Mr. Wade—When old Moses enticed a whole nation of slaves to run away, no doubt he was denounced by Pharaoh and the chivalry of Egypt as a furious Abolitionist, but there were doubtless those who were not so prejudiced, and those he supposed would be called, "National men," not Northern men with Southern principles, but "Israelites with Egyptian principles."

Madame Rumor says we will soon leave camp, but no one knows when we will leave. Winter has broken at least so say the mountaineers, and they are men who should know. It did actually rain, on the morning of the 10th, something it never does in this country except in the spring, after winter is past. However, we are still favored with snow-squalls about tri-weekly, but this is not an uncommon occurrence in July up in this latitude. To-day it is as pleasant as May in the States.

What the intentions of the Mormons are is not exactly known. Some think the leaders will leave, and others say they will go to the mountains and cut off trains and mail, rob passengers, &c. The latter supposition I think most likely, as it will just suit Mormons; it doesn't come in contact with either their consciences or religion. One thing is certain and that is they can't leave, and even if they were possible for all to leave, they can't take the Territory with them, and it would soon be filled up by others. They do things up in a systematic manner. If there is a man in their midst who is not considered the "Simon pure," a vote is immediately taken and the poor devil disposed of in less than John Halpin's could drink a glass of cognac. If any attempts to leave the country, the "destroying angels" overtake them before they get out of the settlement.

Conjecture is life as to what course we will take in going to Salt Lake. It is only known by a few. By the direct course from here it is 114 miles, but Echo Canyon, which is on this route is impassable. If we go by Soda Springs, which is about 200 miles, we can avoid all bad canons and have space enough for Phelps' bull-dogs to speak for us, if necessarily requires it.

We have a fine battery of volunteers in the command, composed of teamsters, &c. Col. McTear, of Pennsylvania, commands our company. There are about 3000 effective men in the camp and only one woman. By the time you receive this, we will be away from this place, but I can not tell you where our lot will fall, all things indicate an early start towards Salt Lake. The greater portion of the 2d Dragoons, under Col. Cook, are encamped on Henry's Fork, about 55 miles east of this place. They will move on to this place soon, when all will be ready to march at a moment's warning.

The mail between this place and the States is a public nuisance. It gets through from the States about once in the week, but it can't be otherwise, as the price received for carrying it would buy sufficient stock for the road. Grass is getting pretty good again, which is a considerable item with us as we have no grain. Goods sold at enormous prices in this region, although it costs nothing to get them here, $30 per hundred is asked by freighters for hauling. We live on flour, beef and coffee. The Beef is tough, dry and poor.

I have nothing more to communicate at present—will give you something more interesting the next time. Yours S. N. HENRY.

Execution of Anderson and Richards.—Yesterday the negroes, Alexander Anderson and Henry Richards, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Garber on the gallows, expired their crime on the gallows, and their bodies were committed to the flames. The prisoners, at an early hour in the morning were making their final preparations for the awful moment, and were spending their few last minutes with their spiritual advisers.

Anderson was a tall, intelligent-looking man, about forty years of age, with long, black, curly hair and whiskers, and exhibiting the most courtly air of the two for the murder. He wrote a confession of his crime and a history of his life, which, with the circumstances of the murder and an account of the execution, is published by Mr. H. A. Rockfield, of Lancaster, for the benefit of Anderson's wife and children. The volume is illustrated with portraits of Richards and Anderson.

southern convention, and appropriating ten thousand dollars out of the money in the treasury, to defray expenses, in the event of a rejection of the Leocompton Constitution by Congress. Thus it is proposed to take initiatory steps for disunion. The joke of the whole thing lies in the fact that there is not a cent in the treasury! It is entirely bankrupt.

Stem is a genius—and an Anti-Leocompton one at that. The other day after reading of the second defeat of Mr. Buchanan's pet project, the Leocompton swindle, in Congress, we overheard him singing the following parody: When James Buchanan stoops to folly, And finds too late that friends betray, What charm can soothe his melancholy, What art can wash his guilt away, The only way to make amends, To hide his shame from every eye, To give remorse no resting place, And wrap their bosoms—in is die.

The death-warrant of Governor Packer authorized the execution to take place between the hours of ten and two o'clock. The sheriff was supposed to execute them at two o'clock, and so started to the prisoners. But they declared their anxiety to pass through the bread crumb with as little delay as possible, and accordingly fixed the hour at eleven, or as soon after as possible. A little previous all the visitors and friends of the condemned were in the hall, and the sheriff came in close communion with their spiritual advisers. Their demeanor was marked and characteristic. Anderson was calm, composed, and resigned.

Richard's also was calm and resigned. The final preparations all being made, the prisoners proceeded to the gallows. They ascended the stairs with a firm step, and by direction of the sheriff bent down in their respective positions, immediately under the hooks which were to receive the fatal cords. After hymn and prayer by Anderson, and the benediction by a clergyman, the cap was adjusted. At twenty-five minutes before twelve the sheriff pulled the cord attached to the lever, and the platform fell instantly and noiselessly, leaving the victims hanging in mid-air. Anderson—Richard's seemed to be the harder.

A few minutes after two o'clock, Dr. Henry Carpenter and Dr. Berg, the sheriff's physicians, pronounced the convicts dead, and their bodies were lowered into the coffins which were placed in a wagon and taken to the Poor House burning ground, followed by four or five hundred persons, including the family of Anderson.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA. Rheumatism is a most distressing and debilitating disease, and is often the result of exposure to cold and dampness. It is characterized by sharp, shooting pains in the joints, and is often accompanied by swelling and redness of the affected parts. Neuralgia is a similar condition, but is characterized by more severe and persistent pains, often in the face or head.

all were high enough to overlook the walls, but some Yankees had erected a platform on two or three tree-tops, capable of accommodating some hundreds of spectators. This stand was rented out to curious individuals at a dollar a head, and long before the hour of execution, a crowd of excess by a number of males, and a small number of females! One or two other crotchety contrivances were erected, and rented out at exorbitant prices. The yard leading to the main entrance was crowded by a large number of spectators, eagerly peering through iron gratings. The night previous to the execution both convicts received the holy communion.

Anderson was awake all night, engaged in devotional exercises; but Richards slept a little. In the morning they dressed themselves for their execution, Anderson in white pants and plain white shirt, and Richards in white pants, shirt and white roundabout, with white gloves.

An affecting scene occurred during the morning, which drew tears from the eyes of many a stern, strong man. This was Anderson's last meeting with his wife and family.

A ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW. REAR THE OLD AND YOUNG. PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORANT. It is, no doubt, the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, gray hair to its original color, cover the bald spots, and induce a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching, cure all scurfiness, and other eruptions of the scalp, such as eczema, psoriasis, etc. It will cure, also, all itching, nervous or periodic headaches; make the hair soft, glossy and preserve the color perfectly, and prevent the hair from falling, or becoming thin. The following is from a distinguished member of the medical profession: St. Paul, January 1, 1885.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir—Enclosed, I send you this certificate. After being nearly bald for a long time, I have used your Hair Restorant, and in a few weeks I have had my hair grow again, and it is now as thick and as black as when I was young. I have also used your Hair Restorant, and it has cured my scalp itching, and my hair is now as soft and as glossy as when I was young. I have also used your Hair Restorant, and it has cured my scalp itching, and my hair is now as soft and as glossy as when I was young.

From the Editor of the Boston Herald, Boston, March 20, 1884. Dear Sir—Having become prematurely quite gray, I was induced to try your Hair Restorant, and in a few weeks I have had my hair grow again, and it is now as thick and as black as when I was young. I have also used your Hair Restorant, and it has cured my scalp itching, and my hair is now as soft and as glossy as when I was young.

I have used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorant, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming gray, and I have now had it restored to its original color, and it is now as thick and as black as when I was young. I have also used your Hair Restorant, and it has cured my scalp itching, and my hair is now as soft and as glossy as when I was young.
