In all ages it has been the great enemy of life, for it sparse neither age nor ear, but sweeps off alke the brave, the beautiful, the gracoful and the gifted. By the help of that Supreme Being from whom cometh every good and perfect gift, I am enabled to after to the ufflicted a per-manent and speedy cure in Consumption. The first cause of tubercles is from impure blood, and the immediate effect produced by their deposition in the lungs is to prevent the free admission of air into the air cells, which causes a weakened vitality through the entire system. Then surchy free admission of air into the air cells, which causes a weakened vitality through the antire system. Then surely it is more rational to expect greater good from medicines entering the cavities of the lungs than from those adminis-tered through the stomach; the patient will always find the lungs free and the breathing easy, after Inhaling remedies. During eighteen years' practice, many thomands suffering from discusses of the lungs and throat, have been under my cure, and I have effected many remarkable cures, even af-ter the sufferers had been pronounced in the last stages, which fully satisfies me that consumption is no longer a fatal disease.
