The resider may be well aware that the earliest and the best fruits and vegetables come from New Jersey, which are anually expected to the amount of millions of dollars. The land, besides being accessible in every way for fertili-zers, has an abundant supply of the best quality of muck

Lumber and building materials can be had on the spot at a cheap price, from the utills. Other mills are now being opuned, and brickyards being started on the ground. A parses can put up a frame tenement for present conveni-ence for one hundred dollars. On account of the extensive ence for one hundred dollars. On account of the extensive emigration, this is the best course to pursue in order to get a place to live in at first. Carpenters and builders are on hand to put up houses on the best terms. In settling here the emigrant has many advantages. He is within a few hours' ride of the great cities of the Middle firsters and New Eugland; he is near his old friends and aselations; he is in a settled country, where every improve-hust wind comfort of civilization is at hand; he is in a healthe place, and is not subject to the certainty of losing the stream part of his family and his own health by those ma-squart fevers which make the graves of so many millions is young and and hardy in the far off regions away romchans and friends.
