The Nashville Fair Affray.

From The Nashville (Tenn.) Union of Oct. 14 The Fair ground was yesterday, about 12 o'clock, the scene of a terrible affray, which resulted in the death of one man and the mortal wounding of two or three others. It occurred upon the promenade back of the upper tier of seats, and created the greatest excitement imaginable. So unexpected was it to those in attendance upon the Fair, that it was impossible to ascertain the facts attending the sanguinary affair, and we can only give the most intelligi-ble narrative we could deduce from the mass of contradictory reports which were flying with almost lightning rapidity over the ground.

It appears that a foud of a very bitter nature had for some time existed between John James and sandy Owens, sons of Everett Owen of Wiliamson County and Sam, and Geo. W. Cowan sons, of Mr. Owen's wife by a former husband. Sam. Cowan met James Owen, who had his wife leaning upon his arm, at the fair yesterday morning, and spat in his face. Shortly afterward James and Sandy Owen met Sam. Cowan on the promenade back of the upper seats, when Sandy Owen commenced an attack upon Cowan with a stick. Cowan then drew a pistol and shot Owen through the heart, killing him instantly, and simultaneously the friends of the paaties interfered, making a vigorous and fearful use of sticks. During the melee that ensued, four or five, or perhaps six, additional shots were fired. When the combatants were separated, it was ascertained that James Owen was shot in the hand, through the thigh, and in the back above the hips, ranging into the lungs.-It was thought his wounds were mortal, and that he could not survive until this morning.

Upon bringing Sam. Cowan to the city, it was ascertained that he was mortally wounded by a pistol shot, the ball having entered the upper part of the forehead and ranging back where it lodged. Gen. Joel A. Battle was horribly mangled about the head, from blows inflicted with a heavy stick, and, it is reported, that his skull is fractured, from which he was suffering the most excruciating pain last evening. Fears were entertained that his wounds would prove fatal. Mr. Thomas Battle, who was standing near when the affray commenced, received a slight, though painful flesh-wound in the wrist from a pistol shot. A pistol ball passed thro' the coat of the gate keeper at the ring, near where the fight occurred. We heard of several thers who were slightly injured from blows inflicted by sticks, among others Mr. W. A. Davis. It is a mirriole that several others were not killed or wounded, where so many were in The fight occurred on the opposite side of the amphitheater from where the ladies were sented, though a few were in the immediate vicinity, who were greatly alarmed.
