Class 86 draws on Saturday, October 9, 1858. The reason may be well aware that his caries and the best fruits and regetables come from New Jersey, which is a simally exported to the amount of millions of dollars. The land, besides being accessible in every way for fertili-ners, has an abundant supply of the best quality of muck Class 87 draws on Saturday, October 16, 1858. Class 88 draws on Saturday, October 23, 1858. Class 89 draws on Saturday, October 80, 1858.

Lumber and building materials can be had on the spot at Lumber and building materials can be had on the spot at a cheap price, from the mills. Other mills are now being opened, and brickyard, being started on the ground. A person can put up a frame taxement for present conveni-unce for the hundred dollars. On account of the extensive miller they this is the best course to pursue in order to get ente for one hundred dollars. On account of the extensive emigration, this is the bost course to pursue in order to get a place to live in at first. Carpenters and builders are on hand to put up houses on the best terms. In settling here the emigrisht has many advantages. He is within a few hours' ride of the great cities of the Middle States and New England; he is near his old friends and as-sociations; he is in a settled country, where every improve-ment and comfort of civilization is at hand; he is in a heal-the place, and is not subject to the certainty of hosting the ment and comfort of civilization is at hand; he is in a heal-thy place, and is not subject to the certainty of haing the greater part of his family and his own health by those ma-lignant favors which make the graves of somany millions of the young and and hardy in the far off regions away from home and friends. Besides, he has a mild climate and an other winder.

an open winter. There are three trains daily to Philadelphia, and to all those who improve the railpoal company gives a free ticket. The reader will at once be struck with the advantages here presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reason is, it was never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are Armeeted to do. They will see the land under This all are aspected to do. They will see the land under cultivation; they will meet persons, no doubt, from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvements, and can judge of the character of the population. Persons, head on the second the second seco should come prepared to jurchase, as many are locating, and losatious are not held on Tefusal.
