ATLANTIC MONTHLY .- The February number of this standard publication contains a rich treat. The article entitled "Ought Women to learn the Alphabet?" is attributed to the pen of one who is known to favor "Women's Rights." "In a Cellar" is an excellent production and will well repay a perusal. "Bulls and Bears" is a continuation of an article commenced in the January number and is from the pen of one who understands his subject and can portray it in life-like scenes. "The Professor of the Breakfast Table" is another of the companions of the "Autocrat." and the expected personage, intimated in the close of the present article, leads us to imagine that he will be a character of more than common interest. No one should be without this magazine. It is the best monthly now published in this country. Price $8 per annum. We will furnish it to any of our subscribers THE DAUGHTER OF AFFLICTION - A MEXON OF THE SOFYZILINGS, AND RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE OF MISS MARY RANKIN: 68 COM municated by her to her late attending Physician D.
