THE WAVERLY NOVELS .- The wellknown firm of T. B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, are now engaged in publishing a remarkably cheap edition of these unapproachable works of fiction. The first, "Ivanhoe," appeared on Saturday week; the next, "Guy Mannering," was issued last Saturday, "Rob Roy" will appear next, and so on, one novel will be published regularly on each and every coming Saturday, until the whole number of volumes—twenty-six -is completed. The low price fixed by the publishers for them are only 25 cents his elevation to the Cabinet. He is said a volume, or the whole twenty-six volumes for five dollars, A complete set will be forwarded, free of postage, by mail, to any part of the United States, to any one, by the publishers, on receiving a remittance of five dollars for the twenty-six volumes; or a remittance of three dollars will pay for the first twelve volumes; or a remittance of one dollar will pay for the first four volumes. The novels will be neatly printed, and each volume will contain about 125 pages, printed on fine white paper, and neatly bound with paper cover. The revised uniform Edinburgh edition, from which this is reprinted, comprises forty-eight volumes, the cost of which is seventy-two dollars: and this edition will contain every word of the Edinburgh edition. We commend the determination of this enterprising Philadelphia firm, to furnish the works of an author like Walter Scott, at a price so reasonable, that all persons whatever may possess a full set, and direct the especial attention of our readers to the fact, and would advise them all to make a remittance of Five Dollars

AWARD OF DAMAGES.—The heirs of the late Dr. Oyier, of West Whiteland, Chester county, who was killed on the 26th of November, 1857, by a train of cars on the Pennsylvania Railroad coming in collision with his carriage, at the Three Tons crossing, have instituted legal proceedings against the Railroad Company. The Arbitrators met at the Court House in West Chester, a short time since, to hear the case. Numerous witnesses on both sides were examined, and counsel. were heard. His face is still under partial by about 8,500 majority over the Democratic nominee. The three Congressmen, Messrs. Marston, Tappan and Edwards, are all Republicans. Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention met at Harrisburg on Wednesday of last week to nominate candidates for Auditor Gen eral and Surveyor General. There was a full representation of delegates. Richardon L. Wright, of Philadelphia, was nominated for Auditor General, and John Rowe, of Franklin, the present incumbent nominated for Surveyor General. After the nominations had been made there was quite a spirited "set to" between the Lecompton and Anti-Locompton wings of the party, but the former being in the majority had things all their own way, notwithstanding the kicking of the latter. The convention refused, by a decided vote, to approve of the official course of Gov. Packer. This shabby treatment of the Governor, by the Lecomptonites, did not tend very much toward harmonizing the party, and from the accounts published in the Harrisburg papers, we are inclined to think the Convention broke up in a row. It is rumored that Mr. Rowe, the candidate for Surveyor General, intends to decline the nomination of this Convention and await the action of the Convention called by Forney and others, which is to assemble at Harrisburg on the 12th of April. There is now a "bad break" in the party, and it remains to be seen whether the second convention will mend

[Special Correspondence of the Tribune.] LETTER FROM MARRISBURG.

HARRISTURG, March 22, 1859. At the time I write this, the Governor has not yet signed the Supplement to the Germantown Passenger Railway the great Rail Road bill of the session—and to-day it is rumored that he will veto the bill, even with the prospect of having it passed over his head by a two-third vote. In doing so he will be influenced by two considerations, the first of which is a resolution passed by the city Councils asking him to sign no charter for a passenger railway which takes all powter for a passenger railway which taken a factor of the hands of the Council, in placing way 4. C Glass, for labor, restrictions upon them. The second is a proporestrictions upon them. The second is a proportion who offers a John Hamlin, and the Burkholder, and the sition made by one Joseph Harrison, who offers to pay to the city of Philadelphia, $1,000 a mile annually for the right of way on Fourth and Eighth streets. The Germantown men meet these arguments by saying that the Council being more corrupt than the Liegislature itself, want a big "stake," and that Harrison, being the principal stock holder in the Fifth and Sixth Street line, with which the new line would materially interfere, could well afford to pay that sum for a monopoly of four streets, and not build on Fourth and Eighth at all. By this you will learn that the great fight, involving a legislative gift of a couple of hundred thousand dollars, is not yet settled satisfactorily to all parties. The following supplement to the Mechanics' Lien Laws, which has passed the House, and

The Democratic Convention of last week was a unique affair in its way. It was a great conglomeration of office-holders under the Federal Government, and others interested in Governmonth of January. How many since we can mental contracts, who had things pretty much their own way, and, imbued with a deep sense of gratitude, they did not fail to "praise the bridge which carries them safe over." Hence, Buchanan was lauded, but a resolution endorsing the administration of Gov. Packer was voted down. This insures the defeat of the ticket nominated by at leass 50,000 majority. But this is not all. The friends of Packer, who claim to be the Democratic party of the State, have already issued a call for a mass convention o be held in this place on the 12th of April.-This meeting will be largely attended, the Cincinnati platform will be adopted, and a new ticket will be placed in the field. There will be an ample opportunity afforded by this measure at the next election to show the friends of Buchanan their real strength in Pennsylvania. A resolution to adjourn on the 5th of April, has passed the House, but has not yet gone through the Senate. It is the opinion of all that this date is at least ten days ahead of time. To-day the file of the House shows 1,000 bills. and many of them have yet to be acted upon. The Senate committee has not yet reported the Appropriation bill, to which I understand such amendments have been made as to justify the belief that it will take some days to debate up-In the House last night the bill allowing magistrates, with a jury of six to try certain petty offenses came up in order, and was debated at length, and finally referred to a select Committee, with instructions to report during the week. The opposition urged against the bill, is that the office being one which does not remunerate, is filled in many places by incompetent men. This is no doubt true, but the passage of this very law would correct the evil, for the fees of he office would be increased, and competent men would agree to become magistrates. I am told that the legal fraternity in the House oppose the bill: To-day Senator Creswell presented the peti tion of 104 citizens of Middle Woodberry township, Bedford county, praying to have said township annexed to Blair county. The following bills were passed in the Senate to-day on third reading :-An act to incorporate the Penn Industrial Reform School, in Philadelphia. An act equalizing taxation on corporations.

An act incorporating the Pittsburgh and East Liberty Passenger Railway Company.

A meeting of the Republican State Committee is called for the 6th of April, when a time for holding the State Convention will be determined upon. George Thorn the leading member of the Philadelphia delegation in the House will in all probability, be nominated for Auditor Gen-

DAUGHTERS OF MALTA. The Buffalo Express tells of a singular drama that was performed in that city one night last week. At a certain boarding house there were a number of gentlemen, with their wives, and a goodly number of "fast young men" stopping. The ladies, it appears, had a terrible desire to know something of the Sons of Malta, and having ascertained that an order called the Daughters of Malta existed, gave their masculine friends no peace until they had promised to procure them admittance. On the night in question when the husbands of the aforesaid ladies were absent, the young scamps informed them (the ladies) that all was ready, and that they had been especially deputized to initiate them into the ancient mysteries of the order of the Daughters of Malta. An old copy of Kirk's Exposition of Oddfellowship had been procured, altered somewhat to suit the occasion, and each of the actors in the scene had duly studied and committed his part. The room was prepared, the candidates introduced, and the whole ceremony conducted with gravity becoming the occasion. It is said that the ladies were delighted with the ceremony.
