Select Poetry.

Teach Me to Know Mine End, and the Measure of My Days, What it is.
Where shall I die? Shall dear friends gather round me To wipe the "death sweat" from my throbbing brow?

Extraordinary Mesmeric Delusion.

According to the New Orleans journals, a person calling himself Professor Hale tried a very curious experiment at the new concert hall in that city, one evening lately.

A Ghost.

The people of Rahway, according to the Republican, are having a ghost excitement—a spirit being supposed to haunt a certain house.

A Story.

The reader is expected to believe the following story in every particular: When a young man I was traveling in western New York, and late of a stormy night applied at a log cabin for lodging.

Select Miscellany.

On the subject of war William Ladd remarks that it is declared to revenge an insult. An armed ship approaches one of equal force, which hoists the flag of the declared enemy.

Charcoal for Man and Beast.

The Valley Farmer says one of the most simple and excellent medicines for any derangement of the stomach of human beings, is finely pulverized, fresh burnt charcoal.

Only Tight.

"How flushed, how weak he is. What's the matter with him?" "Only Tight!" "Tight!" "Yes, intoxicated."

Hon. Stephen Allen's Pocket-piece.

Among the many victims of the Henry Clay disaster was Stephen Allen, Esq., an aged man, formerly a Mayor of New York, beloved and esteemed by all who knew him.

WHAT THE PRESS SAY.

Extremities are invaluable remedies for the distressing effects of cholera. With all confidence we recommend them.
"Costar's" rat, Roach, & exterminator, is a most valuable and reliable article.

DEATHS TO ALL VICES.

As Spring approaches, and the weather grows warmer, it is necessary to be on guard against the various diseases which are so common in the season.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL.

It is truly wonderful what wonderful cures can be effected by the use of "Costar's" rat, Roach, & exterminator, in the case of various diseases.

THE LABOR OF BEES.

We learn that M. Quimby of St. Johnsville, N. Y., has sold one dealer in New York city over 48,000 pounds of surplus or box honey during the past three years.

IT IS NOT WHAT PEOPLE EAT.

It is not what people eat, but what they digest that makes them strong. It is not what they gain, but what they save that makes them rich.

THE MAN WHO TRAVELS.

The man who travels a thousand miles in a thousand hours may be tolerably quick-footed; but he isn't a touch to the woman who keeps up with the fashions.
