STABBING AFFRAT. On Sunday evening last, stabbing affray occurred at the house of Wiljam Black, tanner, about four miles below this place, which, although it has not; and likely vill not, prove fatal to the party who received the wound, the intention of the assailant no doubt was that it should. It appears that two tong men, named Johnston Ecker and Levi Young, were sitting in a room in Mr. Black's house, in which there was no light, in company with two of his daughters. This excited the indignation of a young man named George, smith, a German, who lived with Mr. Black, who imagined that the young men were trespossing upon his ground, and acting upon the spur of the moment, walked into the room and lit the candle. One of the young ladies requested menacing manner, warned Black to keep away. | turer. Black backed away from him, after which Smith west down stairs and then fled to the house of Mr. Orr. about a quarter of a mile distant, where he burst open the door, went in and endeavored to conceal himself behind a bed. He was followed shortly after and arrested and brought to this place and confined in the "Lock Up" for the night. On Monday morning he had a hering before Esquire Cherry, who committed him to iail to stand his trial for assault and battery with intent to kill, at the next term of

THE CIRCUS. -Of course, everybody who feels interested in the advent of such entertainments. has seen the big pictures and read of the one to come off in this place on Tuesday next. That it will draw a fair audience in the evening, may naturally be presumed, although it is not likely that anything new or novel will be presented, other than what has been repeated time and again by this and other companies. Money will be spent for tickets to this exhibition which, rightfully, should be handed to some of our mechanics or merchants, to whom it is due, and who need it as much as the proprietors of the Circus.

I AND J.—There are no two letters in the manuscript alphabet of the English language, which occasion so much trouble or cause so much misconstruction as the two letters, I and J, as many persons inadvertently write them.-The rule for writing them properly, and which should be universally understood and adopted, is to extend the J. below the line, while the J should be written even with the line. If those who write I for J knew how it sometimes puzsles printers, they should remember the above suggestions.

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDT 198 DYSPEPSIA, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, LIVER COMPLAINT, WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND FEVER AND AGUE.

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STONACH OR LIVER, Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Rlind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction inte the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeling with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raiding up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

C A UTION.—The great popularity of this delightful roma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boethave's Holland Ettiere a fair trial. One bottle will convince you' how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

April 17th, '59-17. AGNUM EST VECTIGAL PARSIMONIA."—Did every one who reads the heading of this article but understand its meaning, they would immediately repair to the shop of:

JOHN O'DONNELL FASHIONABLE TAILOR Main St., Altoons, a few doors below the Red Lion Hotel, and select a suit of clothes from the large stock of SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS. which he has just received from the East, feeling sure that which he has just received from the East, feeling sure that in doing so they would be carrying out the motto.

It is not necessary here to mention the different styles and quantities of the goods on hand, suffice it to say that he has everything in the line of gentlemen's wear, and he knows how to make it up in a fashlonable and durable style, on terms as reasonable as those of any other merchant Tailor in the place.

Give him a call and you will soon discover that you can carry out the motto adopted by dealing with him.
