We copy the following from the Tyrone Star of Saturday last:—

OCTOBER 20.—Affidavits were taken in this place the other day, proving that a certain woman in Warriornack Valley had cut up and fried out the fat of an old sheep, which had died from disease, and mixed part of it with stuff which she sold as lard to one of our merchants, and part of which she made candles of, and sold to another merchant. We forbear giving names at present, as it is most likely that her conduct will undergo a legal investigation.

Very likely, she will be called to state, however, that the husband of this same creature says she cooked for his dinner two or three chickens which had fallen into a water vessel at the barn, and laid there so long that the feathers dropped off when he lifted the fowls out with the dung-hook!

From the same paper we learn that the tailor shop of Wm. Port, in that place, was entered on Tuesday night of last week, by means of a false key, and a suit of clothes, two pairs of pants and a vest stolen therefrom. On the same night the shoemaker shop of Mr. Hagg was entered and robbed of several pairs of boots. A lot of tinware was stolen from the foundry and machine shop of John Forbes.—There was considerable difference of opinion in regard to the place for holding the next Fair, which was not decided upon. A committee was appointed to receive definite proposals from those localities desiring it, and report to the Board of Managers on the 11th of June next. Now is the time for the business men and citizens of Altoona to say whether they wish it held at that place.

BLAIR COUNTY INSURANCE COMPANY.—Unmis-taekably it is the duty of every man who owns a house, or any amount of merchandise or household property, to have it insured.

Bob, (this was spoken in a low tone,) don't go too much after women; queens is kinder poor cards; the more you have 'em the worse for you; you might have three, and any trump. I don't say discard 'em all; if you get hold of one that's a trump, it's all good, and in every instance losses are met promptly and satisfactorily. Our young friend

D. T. Caldwell, at the Banking House of Wm.

M. Lloyd & Co., is agent of the Company in this place, who will take pleasure in giving all information desired, and attend promptly to surveying premises and securing policies for those wishing to insure.

MAID DOG EXCITEMENT.—On Sunday afternoon, the cry of "mad dog" caused considerable excitement among the people who occupy the row houses below the Methodist church, on Emma street. A dog belonging to Mr. M. Urick was observed on the street, behaving in rather a curious manner, snapping at everything which came in his way, and exhibiting other unmistable symptoms of hydrophobia. Mr. R. B.

Taylor and his wife sent for, and, after a chase, the dog was shot in the kitchen of one of the houses, where he had taken refuge behind the stove. If we have a Dog Law in this place, it is time it was put into effect, as the country is full of mad dogs. Almost every paper we pick up contains a notice of mad dogs having been seen or killed in their neighborhood.—

There are about three or four hundred more dogs in this place than the owners of the community demands.

We should like to hear of measures being adopted by which the cancellation of the number mentioned could be speedily effected.

RELIGIOUS.—Last week we announced that

Bishop Simpson, of Pittsburgh, would preach in the Methodist Church in this place, on Sabath next, and we are pleased to state this week that the announcement will certainly be met at that time by the Bishop, unless some important and unforeseen obstacle occurs to prevent it. It is the intention of the Trustees of the Church to take up a subscription, on the occasion of the visit of Bishop Simpson, to pay off the debt now hanging over the church, and it is to be hoped that they may be successful.

HEAVY RAINS.—On Sunday evening and Monday last, we were visited by a succession of heavy showers of rain, interspersed with small hail stones. The hail did no damage, serving only to impart a coolness, truly refreshing, to the atmosphere. The rain caused vegetation, which was drooping, to look up and take a fresh
