We doubt whether there is another town in the country in which so large a subscription could be taken up in one day for the same purpose. The liberality of the people of Altoona in contributing of their means to erect houses of worship, and all benevolent purposes, is proverbial, and we think this last effort places them still a degree higher in that scale. . On behalf of the Trustees we return thanks to those, not members of this church, who contributed so liberally of their means to secure so desirable a result. The Trustees have appointed Rev. S. Creighton, D. T. Caldwell and John McClellan collegtors to receive the money subscribed.
