The War.

It is useless to attempt to fellow the movements of the belligerent armics en gaged in the present war, from telegraphic raports. The names of places are so mixed up and given so imperfectly that it is impossible to trace them on the maps All we know is that there was a fight and that one of the armies was repulsed.-But as the exact locality and time of the battle are matters of mipor importance, we content ourselves with an account of the numbers engaged in strife, the killed, wounded and taken prisoners.

In the late battle it is estimated that over 300,000 men were engaged. Just think of it. On the first of January last the whole regular army of the United States numbered only 12,943 men, of all ranks, from general officers down to privates. Now imagine this army and another of the same size cut down in a single day, and some idea may be formed of the results of the late conflict. It is hard to such a vast body of men as are now en his wife, but she refused to receive it. erent armies to have been united and thrown into procession—double-file—allowing one yard to each file, which is the space allotted in military discipline, and we have a procession over 80 miles in langth. Again, the number reported to ments, have been killed in the late engagement is 25,900. Now suppose the killed to toy to every able-bodied young man still to be side and in lairs, allowing each man to occupy two feet in breadth and one foot in depth, and we have a pyramid of dead bodies 100 feet wide and 500 feet high. From these calculations, which we think will be found correct, our readers may be able to form some idea of the horrors of Hotel in the United States. war; and as the present strife is only at its beginning, and other more important and necessarily more destructive battles will be fought, the number of human lives to be sacrificed is fearful to con-

The Gardner Fraud.

The selegraph announced a des or two sind that the Government and recovered $180,000 of the total amount lost by the Gardner fraud. It will be remembered that a Dr. Gardner, some years after the late war with Mexico, made a sctitious claim for about $209,000 on the Mexican ndemnity fund, which claim, bolstered by legal and fraudulent vouchers, was finally allowed, and the money paid over by the Government. Gardner was subsequently tried and convicted at Washington for the fraud, and committed suicide in prison, leaving $130,000 of the money on deposit with the New York Life and Trust Company. The public administrator of New York took out letters of administration upon the estate but the Government intervened and enjoined the deposit. After years of litigation, the principal of this sum has been awarded to the Government, and the accumulation of interest, about $40,000, to the estate. The former has been paid over to the

A desperate battle was fought at Magenta, on the 4th of June, between the allied army under the Emperor Napoleon, and the Austrian army under Gen. Hese, in which unlimited forces were engaged on both sides. The Emperor Napoleon, in his dispatches to the Empress at the Tuillieries, claims a decisive victory saying that his army took 7,000 prisoners, disabled 12,000, and captured three cannons and two standards. He estimates the loss of his own army at 3,000, but it was rumored in Paris that the French loss was between 9,000 and 12,000. It is reported that there were from 150,000 to 180,000 Austrians, and 130,000 French engaged in the battle. The Austrian accounts differ widely from those of the French. Their bulletip speaks of various battles being fought with varying success on both sides. (LATEST DESPATCH.) Quebec, June 19th. - The Anglo Saxon having arrived, the papers received furnish some details of the battle of Magento. It appears that on the 4th inst, the French troops were under orders to cross the Ticino at Turbego — The Emperor in his official bulletin says this order was well executed, though the enemy in great force offered a determined resistance. road way was narrow, and during two hours. the Imperial Guards sustained, unsupported, was repulsed at every point.

It is said that the Austrians, in the precipitation of their evacuation of Milan, left their cannon and treasure behind. The Emperor says that the troops have captured 12,000 Austrian muskets. The municipaltiy of Milan pre-sented an address to King Victor Emanuel, in the presence of the Emperor. THE GREAT UNITED STATES."-The center of the United States shows that we have two millions and a half of farmers, one hundred the said merchants, sixty four thousand manus and nearly two hundred thousand carpenien We have fourteen thousand bakers to make one bread; twenty-four thousand havyers to ett us by the ears; forty thousand factors to " till or cure, and fifteen hundred editors to keep this motley mass in order, by the power of fullic opinion controlled and manufactured through

CAST TOT BURAD UPON THE WATERS, &C. The managers of the Central Bailroad have hed the sagneity and the consideration to furnish large quantities of seed wheat to those farmer nlong the lie of their roud who are unable to buy. In one day 1800 bushels was sent from Chicago for free distribution on the line of the road. This is what we should call substantial charity, proving that corporations have roule and that a orop of grain will increase railroad freight, railroad coffers, and advance railroad stocks.
