

I'LANE'S Subouth me, aing at 11 o'clock and in the evening, in I Union School House. carelessness has ruined the crop I set the closed. Wilson gave a whip, and away they flew The Board of Directors submit the following testimonial from Governor Win. F. Packer, showing the reputation of most by. If it had been your field, on Mr. James in the forenoon patronized with th speed of the wind. Trees, houses, EBRATED the Company at home : ALTOONA MAIL SCHEDULE. the opposite side, which was in danger, the dry crackers, -- which he furnished the fences, flew past them; foot passengers and Richard stood by his brother's side. WILLIAMSPORT, PA., August 5, 1857. I am personally acquainted with the Directors and Offi-cers of the West Branch Insurance Company at Lock Ha-ven, Pa., and cheerfully bear testimony to their high char-MAILS CLOSE. society-and the drier discourse-fur. gazed on them with envy as they saw this would not have happened." MIFUGE 7 25 A.M n Way at The sensitive Joseph was deeply hurt nished by Mr. Mctwhistle-at the S. S. them go by; and the chaise with them was 7 25 A.M. will undoubtedly be safely and prudently ... anaged, and all losses which it may sustain honorably adjusted. 7 25 A. M. and 6 00 P. M. labdav-burg. by the instinuation of selfishness, but he Celebration ; and went after dinner to an soon the foremost vehicle on the village AND Western Through, Eastern Through Mail 6 00 " 7 30 " answered calmly : auction. road. R PILLS. May 5, 1859-6m MAILS OPEN. " Brother, you wrong me. I am sorry---' It was contrary to the custom at Mill-7 55 A. M et m Through Mail, • 7 35 7 00 A. M Western Way, TEW GROCERY AND LIQUOR "It is very well to be sorry after care- brook to transact any business on the an- they were obliged to stop. Some drunken pail; and in an incredibly shart space of STORE.—The undersigned would beg leave to an-nounce to the citizens of Blair county and vicinity that he lessness! Now tell me, if you please, wheth- miversary of our nation's independence; patriots had deemed it a part of their duty time, it was filled with water; borne ap Litern 7 30 A. M. and 6 15 ve to call the atten-Holliday.burg has opened his new Store on Virginia street. three doors below the Superintendent's Office, where he has just received from the East and West a large moortment of er you intend to rebuild that waste-weir but a poor widow having a few household in celebrating the day to roll a large log the ladder by Richard, and placed in the Office open for the transaction of business from 6.30 A M. articles and farming utensils to dispose of, into the centre of the road, where no ve- hands of Joseph who was standing on the 7.139 P. M., during the week, and from tick, on Sunday. June 4, '57-tf] JOHN SHOEMA or not?" he Trade, and more 7:30 to 8:30 o' Foreign and Domestic Liquors, Joseph could scarcely control his anger Millbrook had charitably offered to go and bicle could pass on either side. JOHN SHOEMAKER, P. M. Physicians of the purchase them on the fourth of July afhis brother's overbearing manner. consisting as follows: o of the most popu-RAILROAD SCHEDULE. "I don't think I shall rebuild it any ternoon. French Otard Brandy, Cognac Brandy, Peach Entres Train East arrives 1,25 A. M., leaves 1.30 A. M bw before the public. sooner for your domineering," he said The auction sale was at an old farma 8,15 \*\* " 9,20 P. M. " 8,25 P. M. West East Brandy, Cherry Brandy, Old Burgundy 9.05 P. M. house, some three miles from the village, them, and the three succeeded in remo. the ladder by Richard, and thrown upon drily. Wine, Old Port Wine, Jamaica Rum, 8,10 P, M., 7,35 A. M. 6,25 P. M., "You won't !" muttered Richard, but notwithstand ng the distance, James | ving the impediment. What neither one | the root by Joseph-had been applied be-" 7,50 A. M. " 6,40 P. M. East Holland Gins Old Rye Whiskey, Lane's Celebrated resolved to walk thither in company with | nor two were able to accomplish, was still | fore the flames were subdued. The Monongahela Whiskey, and through lips ashy pale with passion.-Mononguncus , manage, thine Wine, which he has himself imported. Retailers of Liquars and Farmers will find it to their advantage to buy of him, + HOLLIDAYSBURG BRANCH connects with Express a East and West, and with Mail Train East and West. and Liver Pills. a large party of his neighbors, who other- practicable for the three united. Mean- united strength of the brothers had con-Perhaps you mean to ruin my crops every Figure 2014 AND ANCH connects with Johnstown From East and West, Express Train West and Mail wise went on foot. On his way the mer- while the glare in the sky brightened .-- quered. What one could not have done year the same! And I am to bear it. ] recommend them as a he will sell at CITY PRICES. chant perceived his two brothers who were suppose, without a murmur !" Richard lashed the horse, and on they alls, but simply for THOS. A. SCOTF, Sup't. He will also keep constantly on hand an assortment of Tember 22, 1858. walking on in the same direction, but with flew again. Then, as they approached the The angry man concluded with a threat, GROCERIES, e purports, viz. MEETINGS OF ASSOCIATIONS which roused the mighty passion of his different parties; and when he reflected scene of the fire, and saw the smoke and Such as Flour, Bacon, Salt, Fish, Tobacco, Su within Lodge, A. Y. M., No. 251, meets on second Tues-feach month, in the third story of the Masonic Tom-at 716 o'clock, P. M. ERMIFUGE. brother. Although Joseph had, the day on the sad change which had taken place the flames surge upward in the dim twigars, Syrup, Sugar, Coffee, &c , &c., All of which will be sold cheap for cash or Country Produc Our friends and the public generally are respectfully in vited to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. LOUIS PLACK. before, made all arrangements to have the in his family within the last year and a light, anxiously each looked forward to Worms from the CALLS o'clock, P. M. Howarn Encomponent, A. Y. M., No 10, meets on the seth Tuesday of each month. in the third story of the Ma-the Temple, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. Moone Ledge, I. O. of O. F., No. 473, meets every Friday minuth for the set of the set o waste-weir rebuilt as soon as the dry seahalf, he was very much cast down. It has also been son should come, he did not see fit to tell "Once we were as one man in every- on fire. Altoona, May 26, 1859.-tf Richard so, but rebuked him severely for thing," he thought. "We were strongth the most satis-"Be it so !" replied Joseph, who now ning, in the second story of the Masonic Temple, at 712 happy; and the world looked upon us with ck, P. M.; read a Ladge, I. O. of O. F., No. 532, meets every Friday TACOB SNYDER, TAILOR, his overbearance. Fiercer words followfelt certain that it was his mill. We o various Animals uncommon respect. Now, since we are The Hero-of One Hundred Fits per Month! ed, ending in a bitter and lasting quarrel could always accomplish more when uniaute, in the third story of Patton's Building, on Virginia tot 71 o'clock, P. M. Startup Tribe, No. 35, I. O. R. M., hold stated Coun-I would respectfully set forth my claim to public atten-tion, as a Fashionable Tailor as follows: In vain did James endeavor to recondivided, we are blamed by some, scorned ted, than when our efforts were divided." ER PILLS. tion. as a Fashionable Tatior as 1010 vs: Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassi-meros, Vestings and Trinmings, which, when examined, cile his brothers. Richard's anger was Severy Tuesday evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall, in the severy Tuesday evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall, in the severe Tetaple. Council Fire kindled at 7th run Soth ath. W. A. ADAMS, C. of R. [June 25, '57-1y duitor Sous of America, Camp No. 31, meets every Mon-exight in the third story of Patton's Hall, at 714 o'clock by others, and persecuted by not a few.---"It is true," added James. "But we have forgotten our father's dying charge. still hot, and Joseph's indignation was People take advantage of our weakness to LIVER COMPLAINTS, always please. Because my work is made up in a manner that takes promote their own selfish ends, and we We should never have been separated." deep and stern. The former deciared RANGEMENTS, SICK lown the country and gives all my customers a city apset them the example by injuring each His brothers made no answer. Richthat he could have patience no longer cc. In cases of Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be Publication Cump, No. 54, J. S. of A., meets every other. For the past year my profits have ard's cheek was flushed, his lip tremulous ; <sup>11</sup> A. M. C. M. S. M. S. M. A. M. S. M. A. M. S. M with one who cared only for his own inound anywhere. Because long experience in my business gives me entire been a mere nothing compared to what | Joseph's brow was pale and thoughtful. IND AGUE, terests, and the latter firmly said that he if me ont of the suds. Because I am still on the sump side of forty, and therevished to have no more communication they have been heretofore." br after taking Qui-The conversation of his companious with one so passionate, so unreasonable, view of the village. As if with one im-Because I am still on the sumy side of forty, and there fore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired. Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant Honse." Give me a trial and you will go away pleased. Altoona, May 26-5m JACOB SNYDER. st invariably make aroused James from his reflections. The so little like a brother, as Richard. pulse the brothers rose to gize upon the But the guarrel did not end here .-party walked leisurly to the auction, and fire. A glow of light fell upon their anxrmanent cure. <sup>243</sup>. I. S.: B. F. Rose, O. S. <sup>Alionau</sup> Ilechanics' Library and Reading Room Associa-<sup>5</sup> mets statedly on the 1st Saturday evening in Jahua-<sup>April</sup>, July and October. Board of Directors meet on <sup>e</sup> Int Tuesday evening in each month. Room open from  $\omega$  10 o'clock every evening, (Sunday excepted.) soon after the sale commenced. Richard abused James because he defenfor the above men-PIKE'S PEAK NO MORE! BUT the great rush now is to the The Widow Wilson was more benefitted | which was burning ! ded Joseph, and Joseph blamed him for they are Unrivaled, by patriotism in Millbrook that day, I am siding with Richard, and James became Altoona Restaurant and Lager in to fail when ad afraid, than anybody else. The auction af-See, the roof is all on fire !? indignant at the conduct of both. In COUNTY OFFICERS. Beer Saloon, ESCEP SHOOD; Under Keystone Hall, corrier of Annie and Virginia Streets. This house is new, and the basement fitted up specially for the purpose of a first-class Restaurant and Saloon, and the proprietor having had many years experience in the business, will keep constantly on hand the best LAGER BEER that can be found this side of the Atlantic, and catables to supply the wants of the hungry. He will also keep choice SEGARS and the best 'of TOBACCO. He in-vites all his old friends and the public generally to give him s call at his new Restaurant and Saloon. fair was more creditable to humanity, and ccordance with the short, to give all the circumstances of the ulges of the Courts .- President, Hon. George Taylor .- weintes, J. Penn Jones, David Caldwell. quarrel in detail, would fill pages-the dying coupsel of old Richard Blane was Inclutes, J. Penn Jones, David Caldwell.
Pritonstary—Joseph. Haldridge.
Prister and Roorder—Hagh A. Caldwell.
Sterig—James Funk.
Dathet Attorney—Benj. L. Hewit.
Toury Commissioners—Jacob Barnhart, J. R. McFar-ite Enos M. Jones.
Clerk to Commissioners—Hugh A. Caldwell.
Merantile Appraiser—Joseph G. Adlum.
County Surceyor—Janies L. Gwinn.
Treature—John Lingafelt.
Auditors—S. Morrow, A. C. McCariney, Jos. B. Howitt.
Por House Directors—George Weaver, Samuel Shiver, I. Riddle. more beneficial to society, too, than all smothered explosion shouk the air. A the gun firing, drinking and fighting at cloud of smoke and ashes surged upwards, weir should have been fixed." cdented popularity the "Training," and all the marching and a cry of wonder burst from the aweforgotten, and the brothers parted in anproprietors, ger. Richard returned to his farm, and hand in-hand, eating cakes and raisins, stricken spectators gathered around the passion about a matter which proved Joseph to his nill, leaving James alone in the old family mansion All Millbrook was struck with aston-ishment and the old housekeeper was con-James bought a horse at ninety-three dolvites all his old friends and the public conerally to give him a call at his new Restaurant and Saloon. BROTHERS, L. RINEHART, Proprietor. IRGH, PA. May 25, 1859.*3m. eir Drug business . R. GOOD, M. D. J. X GENNILL, M. lars-certainly all he was worth-and hid burst forth. The church was all wood : D. R. GOOD, R. D. D. R. S. GOOD & GEMMILL HAV-ING entered into Partnership in the Practice of Medicine, respectfully torder their services to the Public in the several branches of their Profession. Calls will be answered either day or night at their office --which is the same as heretofore occupied by Drs. Illirst & Good, --or at the Logan House. Dr. GEMMILL REFERS TO DAVID GILDERT, M. D., Prof. Obstetrics in Penn's Medicat Collece. Philadelphia. founded. For a mouth the principal topave been success oroner-William Fox. ic of conversation was the separation of off a great variety of other articles, with- and soon the crackling, plazing clap-Superintendent of Common Schools-John Dean r the last Twenty the brothers Blane; whose quarrel was as out much hope of being able to dispose of boards fell from the glowing timber frame. ALTOONA BOROUGH OFFICERS. will now give their ALTOONA BOROUGH OFFICERS. Jutics of the Prace-Jacob Good, J. M. Cherry. Ruysus-E. M. Jones. Town Guncal-John Allison, Robert Green, Bobert B. Tesler, Daniel Price, Henry S. Sparing. President of Council-John Allison. Clark to Council-Joseph G. Adlum. Brough Treasurer-Daniel Price. School Directors-C. B. Sink, C. C. Mason, George W. Spark, Vm. C. McCormick, B. P. Rose, Geo. B. Cramer. Inductor of School Board-Wm. C. McCormick. High Contaille-Joseph K. Ely. Tet Ollector-John McChelland. Autor-Thos. McMinn, David Galbraith. much a godsend to the gossips and lovers them at present. Richard, too, showed Joists, braces, and beams, glared in startand attention to of scandal, as a breach of promise or a his patriotism, for he bought a sett of har- ling relief when the wind which was blowness, a calf, and some farming utensils : ing strong from the north, drove back the feel to-day that the curse sent for our discriminal trial. e. And being de-But however pleasant a subject it might out bursting smok : and flame. and Joseph bid off a chaise. Dr. M'Lane's Celebe to talk about, it was a singularly un-. Granar Smith, M. D., Prof. Institutes of Medicine in After the auction sale, or vendue, as i Richard stopped the terrified horse at a Penn'a Medical College. JOHN NELL, M. D., Prof. Surgery in Pa. Med. Col. and Surc and Liver Pills pleasant one to contemplate, for the brothshort distance from the fire, on the north was called, was over, the patriots of Millgeon to the Pa. Hospital, Philadelphia J. B. Luden. M D. Huntingdon, Pa John McCulloch, M D, 44 side of the church. occupy the high brook gathered in groups, to discuss pol-It is impossible to describe the discon-" How did the meeting-house take fire?" itics and the weather, and to offer vague w hold among the Wm Dorrts, Jr., Esq. " Wm M. Lloyd, Esq. Hollidaysburg, ditors-Thos. McMinn, David Galbraith. tent of Richard living with his tenant in surmises touching the prosperity of the asked Joseph of an old man. of the day, they Jacoh Bierbower. Atactsors-Michael Clabough, A. Alloway. the farm-house. Everything disgusted nation and of the Widow Wilson, when a "Some careless boy must have thrown John Cresswell, Jr, Esq. " Samuel Milliken, Esq. Bell's Mills, spare neither time him, from the food he ate to the children a fire-cracker through the window," was cry of surprise and wonder called their atprocuring the Best tention to a glare in the western sky, in the reply. "But the alarm was given in join their younger brother in the family Gen B F Bell, John Bell, Esq, April 21st, 1859 3m he heard squall. The only satisfaction he -Last Ward-Henry Bell, Jacob Szink. West 4 B. B. McCrum, Jacob Hesser. North 4 G. W. Harman, John Condo. season to save the building, if there had enjoyed in his new situation, was the unthe direction of the village. terial, and com-"Fire! Fire !" exclaimed the awe stick- only been a fire-engine in the village .---hounded privilege of scolding; an occuhe most thorough WM. R. FINLEY REpation in which the fretful man continu-And we should have had one a year ago,' en crowd. LROCERIES .---- A LARGE AND SPECTFULLY offers his professional services to the people of Altoona and the ades all orders to The placid groups were in an instant added the old man sternly, "if you three ally indulged. ted at the store of J. B. HILEMAN. Joseph was no better off. The miller's heaving to and fro from consternation .- | brothers had not acted like fools in the | hearts. The old housekeeper was delight-DS. Pittsburgh, Pa. bining country. He may be found at the office heretofore ocfamily was not the most pleasant family | People rushed in every direction, and the matter. Because James headed the sub- | ed; and so had Millbrook reason to reupied by Dr. G. D. Thomas. Altooua, Sept. 30, 1858.-tf us ordering from others than

l fires.

ms.

The well was near; and down into the pebbly bottom flew the bucket. driven by But they arrived at an impediment; Richard's strong rand. James run for a roof. The burning shingles hissed and Joseph and James jumped out; but steamed; but still the fire raged. Anotheir united efforts were not sufficient to ther bucket full-another-and another. move the log. Richard sprang to assist drawn by James from the well, borne up -nor two, perhaps-had been safely accomplished by the three. Meanwhile the flames on Deacon came. The ladder went up in an instant;

'In a minute we may be too late !"

"We must work !" cried Richard,

Smith's house had been extinguished, and of the churca nothing was left but a ascertain, if possible, what buildings were shapeless heap of smoking, blazing ruins. The brothers went together to the well, to bathe their burning brows, after their labors.

"Our task is done and I am thankful." said James, with much feeling. "With your help, brothers, I have saved my house-our house, rather, for it is the old family mansion. What return can I make to you, more than to invite youcordially to invite you to the house of your father, and cheer once more with A turn in the road brought them in full your pr sence and love, the house which has been so dreary and empty without you.

"I accept your kind offer, cried the impulsive Richard. As I was the first to ious faces. It was the village church blame, let me be the first to acknowledge my fault, and ask your forgiveness, James. "It is too late to save it !" said Richard. | and yours brother Joseph."

"You have it, Richard," exclaimed the At that moment, a dull sound, like a miller. "And you will forgive me. I am sure. I have been to blame. The wasic-

"And I should not have flown into a

"Brothers," interrupted James, "let the past bury the past. Let what we have suffered in consequence of neglecting our father's dying charge, be remembered only as a lesson for the future. I obedience has passed away. Everything this evening has seemed as if designed by Providence to prove to us that-united. we are strong; divided we are weak."

On the following day, Richard left the dismal farm house to the sole occupancy of his tenant, and Joseph quitted the society of the miller's rude children, to remansion.

They were once more strong-once more happy; and there was never more a thought of disunion in either of their

