THE FOURTH IN ALTOONA. -Although but little preparation, comparatively speaking, had heen made for the proper observance of this day in Altoons, the demonstrations were equal to if not more imposing than those of last year. The two military companies of the place had united and agreed upon celebrating the day in Beale's woods, and invited the citizens of the town and vicinity to join with them, and we are pleased to say that the invitation was very gen-

At an early hour on the morning of our natal day, we were awakened by music discoursed by our excellent Brass Band, on its way to the top of the hill above West Alteona, followed by the military Companies. On arriving at the smmit the Band played a number of national airs and the companies fired several salutes. This brought out Young America and any quality of fire-crackers, pistols and miniature cannon with which the noise was kept up and the atmosphere deeply impregnated with the oder of

At about sen o'clock the military companies drew up in line on Annie street, in front of the Masonic Temple, where they were joined by a company of 34 little girls dressed in white, and wearing blue sashes, to which were attached the names of the States they represented .-They were under the charge of George B. Cramer. Esq., who we have no doubt felt proud of his company, and well he might, for the reason that they formed on this occasion, as on a previous one, by far the most pleasing and imposing part of the procession, and were the observed of all observers.

All things being now ready, the line of march was taken up and the whole town, it appeared. followed the procession to the grove. On arriving at the grove, the assemblage was joined by the officers of Tyrone military companies, who were brought out from Hellidaysburg, whither they had gone to attend the military election: After a short time spent in arranging the preliminaries, the assemblage was called to order by appointing Capt. Jas. Bell, of Tyrone, President of the meeting, Jesse Smith, James Mann. Daniel McCoy and E. B. McCrum, Vice Presidents, and Dr. J. T. Christy and J. G. Adlum. Esq., Secretaries. The meeting being thus organized, the exercises were continued in the following order

His effort was worthy the man and the occasion, and was listened to with attention. At the close of the address, three cheers were given for Washington, three for the day we celebrate, three for the orator of the day and three for the President of the meeting, after which the assemblage was dismissed for a few minutes to give the Committee of Arrangements time to spread the festal board with the many delicacies provided for the occasion. The table having been arranged, the crowd was called up to partake of the repast. A committee to receive and prepare toasts having been appointed, presented the following which were having collected in the vicinity of the depot to bid good bye to the visiting company from Tyrone, Master George Plummer was called out to make a speech, and responded in a manner which astonished as well as pleased all crowd by singing a number of patriotic songs, until the arrival of the Fast Line, on which the visiting company and other military gentlemen took passage for their homes.

From the hour of twilight until near midnight, the town was illuminated with Rockets, Roman Candles and Bengola Lights, giving it the appearance of a bombarded fortress. The night was beautiful.

Thus passed the 4th of July 1859, in Altoons. Not a single incident occurred to man the pleasure of any one. We observed a few persons who had taken on a little heavier load of bricks than they were able to carry, but they managed to keep down their angry passions, consequently there was no quarrelling. May each return of our natal day pass over as pleasantly as did the last.

Knowing, from experience, the valuable qualities of Dr. McLane's Vermisuge and Liver Pills, prepared by Plemming Bros., Pittsburgh, I have for some time back considered it my duty, and made it my business, to make those articles known wherever I went among my friends. A short time ago I became acquainted with the case of a young girl, who seemed to be troubled with worms and liver complaint, at the same time, and had been suffering for some two months. Through my persuasion she purchased one bottle of Dr. McLane's Vermifuge, and one box of Liver Pills, which she took according to directions. WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER, STOMACH OR LIVER,
Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Contiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Inheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely regolable compound, prepared principles, acientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Hioliand Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great specials in the most of the European States, its introduction into in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for these of our fatherland scattered here and there ower the face of of our interiand scattered here and there over the mess of this mighty country. Meeting with great success, amen, them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged. It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have, been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Gene-cally instantaneous in offect it finds its way directly to the use of artest spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful rama has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. To not regreated to have guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Borrhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely aperior if is to all these imitations,
