Where parties are unknown to us, our role for advertising is to require payment in advance...

S. M. PETTEGILL & CO., Advertising Agents, 110 Nassau street, New York...

Insurance and Advertising.

The Philadelphia Bulletin having notified in a contemporary, a notice of a meeting to be held for the purpose of taking measures for the relief of a man whose property has been destroyed by fire...

We know that there is hardly a man in ten thousand, even among the most intelligent, who fully admits it, and yet a little reflection must convince any one of its truth.

Few persons are aware of the amount of research into facts which has been made in order to perfect the truly wonderful science of insurance.

spent twelve thousand dollars over their receipts in advertising. The amount was that they have made, clear profit, during the present year, about seven hundred thousand dollars.

Justice Felled.

The massacre of Schaghticoke which occurred by the breaking of Schaghticoke bridge, on the Albany Northern Railroad, is no doubt still fresh in the memory of most of the readers of the Tribune.

It is currently rumored that this result was effected by the strenuous efforts on the part of the railroad and its agents, in the shape of promises and threats.

Are You Assessed?

We think it the duty of every man to see that his name is on the assessment list ten days prior to the second Tuesday of October, and likewise his bounden duty, as a citizen of a free and independent country like ours, where officers are selected by the people, to go to the polls and cast his vote for the man whom he thinks best qualified to discharge the duties appertaining to the office for which he is a candidate.

RAILWAY TELEGRAPH.—A very important improvement is reported recently to have been made in the way of railroad telegraphs, by means of which, whenever anything becomes deranged, an accident occurs, or a bridge takes fire, the trains approaching in either direction can be notified at whatever speed they may be travelling.

TRANS.—Hon. David Teggart, President of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society, has kindly furnished us with tickets admitting ourselves and ladies during the approaching Fair.

MAINE ELECTION.—An election was held in this State on Monday week for Governor and Members of the Legislature, and resulted in the re-election of Lot M. Merrill, Republican candidate for Governor, by an increased majority, and an increased Republican supremacy in the Legislature.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

Scarce as true piety—Local Items this week. The Brooklyn Post office, was robbed on last Friday night. All the letters were opened, and about $8000 dollars stolen.

The man who won a thousand dollars on a fight between a saw-horse and a hydraulic ram, recently lost all his money on a mill-race.

The house of Mr. Samuel Wallace, on the line of the Rail Road between Birmingham and Spruce Creek, was burned to the ground on Saturday week.

The Illinois State Journal says: "We are informed that sales of corn in the field have to some extent been made at $5 and $7 per acre. Before the late rains the price asked was $9 per acre."

The editor of the Kittanning Free Press, states that many persons were badly frightened by the auroral display. Some imagined that the world was about to end, and declared that they emigrated to some other planet.

Ex-Governor David R. Porter, of Harrisburg, has been elected Vice President of the Sabine and Rio Grand Railroad Company, and designs leaving for Texas in the course of a month or two, to enter upon the duties of his office.

The number of visitors at Saratoga this season, have been twenty-three thousand and eighty-four, against eighteen thousand four hundred and sixty-seven for the same period last year—showing an increase of four thousand six hundred and sixteen.

Wm. L. Morgan, of Pottsville, Warren county, Indiana, says that seed from the butt end of an ear of corn will ripen its product all at the same time, and some three weeks earlier than from seed from the little end of the same ear.

The Auditor General, State Treasurer and Attorney General announce that they will attend, at the room formerly occupied by the Canal Commissioners at Harrisburg, on the 24 day of October, to examine all claims not heretofore passed upon by the Canal Commissioners, for services rendered and material furnished, and for the Main Line for six years previous to its passing into the hands of the Pa. R. R. Co.

The Late Aurora in Europe and in the Tropics.

The Aurora Borealis of August 22-23 was seen in Europe as well as in this country. The London Daily News of the 29th says: "Early this morning, between twelve and one, a most brilliant display of auroral phenomena was observed, extending from the western hemisphere to the northwest, and reaching to the zenith."

In Cuba, according to the M. O. Picayune, the display was also fine. That journal says: "All our exchanges, from the northern coast of the Island of Cuba (from the southern side we have none so late), came to us with glowing descriptions of the recent Aurora Borealis, which appears to have been as bright in the tropics as in the northern zones, and far more interesting."

During the auroral display of Thursday night, last, in Boston some curious phenomena were witnessed in connection with the telegraph wires. The following conversation (says the Boston Traveller) between the Boston and Portland operators on the American Telegraph line will give an idea of the effect of the Aurora Borealis on the working of telegraph wires.

THE HUSKING THIMBLES ARE ALL WE REPRESENT THEM. J. H. GARDNER & Co.—Alliance, Ohio—Gentlemen: I received in good order the six pairs of Husking Thimbles and can say that they are all that is represented of them. I have used them among my neighbors, and could have sold a great many if I had had them in season. I will myself, or get someone to do so, apply for an agency for the sale in Central Iowa, as soon as you have decided on it. Yours truly, SAMUEL A. DYER, East Des Moines, Iowa, Dec. 20th, 1898.

THE SECRET INFIRMITIES OF YOUTH AND MATURITY FIRST PUBLISHED BY DR. J. H. GARDNER & CO. This work on the Rational Treatment, without Medicines, of the various Disorders of the System, Nervous and Mental, is the most complete and reliable of its kind. It is a practical treatise, and is the only one that is so. It is the only one that is so. It is the only one that is so.

The people of the Far West are laughing at the idea of the Hon. Grandly Berkley, the famous British sportsman, of hunting buffalo with hounds. The St. Joseph Daily West says: "If the hounds can only be persuaded to run the buffalo, the buffalo will certainly run from the hounds, and to a country where the vast herds stretch out as far as the eye can reach, and the game is never out of sight, except at night, there would be no end, it seems, to his sport. But nothing could be further from the truth. The game has been burned, the feet of his dogs would be worn out in a day, and they would become a burthen and a drawback. If they were kept for antelope and elk alone, the chance are that they would be lost in the first chase, or in case they could be called off that they would be victims to Indian arrows. Surely if a dog of any description would conduce to Mr. Berkley's sport, or aid him in the capture of game, an ordinary cow would be best. Of these we have an abundance, and asking the gentleman's pardon for the impertinence of making the suggestion, he had better leave his dogs with us and take ours with him."

A story has been circulated in the papers respecting a child in New Bedford, who was left sleeping in a cradle, and was found by a mother nearly deprived of life by a cat, which had stolen into the cradle, and was sucking the infant's breath. The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, a semi-medical organ, advances the opinion that the story is all moonshine, so far as the child's breath is concerned, as, at such a distance, the cat would have the worst of the bar, babies having a much stronger power of suction than cats. The probability is that the cat selected the cradle as a warm bed, and lying on the child's breast, produced violent night-mare, which might have resulted, as it sometimes does, in death.

NEW PUBLICATION. A HISTORY OF ALL RELIGIONS: containing a Statement of the Origin, Development, Doctrines and Government of the Religions of the World, from the Earliest Times, with Biographical Sketches of Eminent Divines. By Samuel Saucier, LL.D. Published by Duane Russell, Quaker City Publishing House, 33 South Third St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. Saucier has evidently prepared this work with much care, and it exhibits great ability and learning. The articles on the different religions are very impartially written, and show the careful study of an unprejudiced and sound mind; and the importance and value cannot be too highly estimated of such superior and unbiased effort in a work of this kind, as too often, those pretending to give correct information upon such subjects are prejudiced in favor of some particular sect or denomination. Mr. Saucier has brought out the work in a very handsome form, and the public is indebted to him for a very valuable, instructive and useful book. The price, $1.00, is remarkably low for such a work, and in order that it may have a rapid and extensive circulation, he will send it to any address, accompanied by a valuable bill, on the receipt of the price and twenty cents to pay postage.
