LOCAL ITEMS.

We find the following notice of the death of Dr. C. J. Hirst, in a late copy sof the Galer-

The decease of such a man as Dr. Hirst, demade something more than a mere passing no-Dr. Hirst, on a visit to some friends in West, passed through this place in the autens of 1858, and being pleased with the location, as well as with the religious and educagonal aspects of the town, determined to make it his home. He removed here, with his wife. from Altoona, Pa., a few weeks since, and opened an office. He was not well when he arrived here, probably at first the result of excitement and fatigue attending his removal. Being too sawell to attend to business, after remaining here a few days, he visited his wife's friends in Monmouth, where his disease assumed a regular form and threatened serious results. Anxious wereturn to Galesburg, he was brought here on Thursday the 18th of August, where with varying hopes on the part of his friends, and in the presence of a sweetly cherished wife and a dear. beloved brother, (the Rev. Wm. Hirst, of Reltimore, Md.,) God sent his angel-death-to remove him to a higher sphere.

Dr. Hirst came among us with the reputation of a well-read physician and skillful surgeon. able faculty-his friends entertained for him high hopes of success in his noble profession .in manners, a gentleman in temper usually amiable-in spirit, tender, he added to all these qualities that which constitutes the highest style of man-he was a christian.

Though of unimpeachable integrity, of peculiarly amiable character, and of an humble and meek deportment all through life, yet he had never made a public profession of religion until about eighteen months since, when he united with the M. E. Church of Altoons. Since that time he has seemed to live for a new and higher object, the glory of God his Redeemer. His death was peaceful. Utterly rejecting all denendence on his own Righteousuess, but humbly relying on the righteousness of Christ, he died as the christian alone may dic-"The righteous bath hope in his death."

In his last illness he was attended by the most faithful and skillful physicians in the city, and every possible attention was rendered by the kind family with whom he and his now every side. Seldom has a sick stranger in any community, received kinder care or a more sincere and earnest sympathy, than has been ac-

Something for you, Ladies. -- However novel

it may appear, I shall wenture the assertion. says Fanny Wright, that, until women assume the place in society which good sense and good feeling slike assign to them, human improvement must advance but feebly. It is in vain that we would circumscribe the power of onehalf of our race, and that half by far the most important and influential. If they exert it not knowledge they will perpetuate ignorance. Let woman stand where they may in the scale of improvement, their position decides that of the nce. Are they cultivated ?-so is society polished and enlightened. Are they ignorant?—so is it gross and insipid. Are they wise?—so is the human condition prosperous. Are they foolish ? so is it pustable and unpromising. parture from principle, how specious soever it Call in and see her, ladies. may appear to administer to our selfish interests, invariably saps their very foundation! that we could learn that what is ruinous to some is injurious to all, and that whenever we establish our own protensions upon the sacrificed rights of others, we do in fact impeach our own liberties, and lower ourselves in the scale of ALTOONA A DULL PLACE, -- We have countless times, when abroad, been greeted with the complaint :-- "Well, Altoona is the dullest place to" spend a day, in the State." What greater enconium could be bestowed on our town! Our town is a dull one to visitors. And why? Our people are an industrious people-we have very few loafers; and those which we have are habitual loafers, unfit companions with whom to while away a decent day. Hence, when strangers visit us, they meet with none who have time or inclination to show them the sights, or even engage with them in entertaining conversation. And in this fact—the busy character of our people-lies the secret of the former, and present increased, prosperity of our town. Had we been a lazy, unenterprizing people, even the great facilities for improvement afforded us by the Pennsylvania Railread Company would have made us little less than a "one horse town." But our citizens have been active, energetic; (and, consequently, dull to strangers;) and the result has been the establishment of a sevenyear old town, containing a population of about 5,000 industrious, intelligent, and of necessity, moral people. We are dull-and we do not censider it censure to be called so.

A Suggration. - We have a suggestion to make to the good people of Altoons, and we hope they will receive and act upon it. All who have seen the new cent pieces, lately issued from the aint, know that they are much more convenient is size than the large red ones, and much handsomer than those dirty, ugly little things with hank or something else on one side, issued a couple of years ago. Now we would like to see all these big and ugly cents shipped out of town and the next new pickle circulating in their stad, and we know of no batter plan by which bis can be accomplished, than for every man or Roman, who visits the Post Office, to drop all the big red and little ugly cents they have about them, into the Washington Monument contributurency. What do you say, fellow citizens, is lot our idea a good one?

Some people can't take a joke, yet are very free to pass one others can take and give as people should do. Those who can't take a joke invariably get "ribd" when they commence a very interesting little item in the local column of their favorite paper, and find out about the time they get to the important point that it is only a puff of some store, or saloon, or something else about which they care nothing, and they fling down the paper in a pet. Now the best way we know of to overcome the annoyance that such abrupt terminations produce, is to call at Taylor's Saloon, next door to the Bank, and get a plate of fine fresh Cove Plant Oysters-of course first calling at the Tribuns office and asking us to go along just because we fooled you SOMETHING NEW .- Our young friend, A. Roush, of the Drug Store down stairs, is now engaged in putting up a preparation for the destruction of rate and mice which effectually settles the "camomile" for those pests in very short order. We have tried it and find the number of our noctural visitors very sensibly decreased. From the qualities of the ingredients used in the composition of the "Destroyer." it must produce its effect in a very short time. Rats and mice partake of it very readily. A of a well-read physiciant of an intelligent and few doses will be sufficient to rid almost any house of these pests. Price 25 cents per box.

> A WELCOME VISITOR .- It afforded us much pleasure, on Friday last, to take by the hand our esteemed friend, J. C. Boggs, Esq., Chief Clerk of the Freight Department of the Penn's R. R., now located at Philadelphia, who was on a visit to his friends in this section. He looked as hearty as in days "Lang Syne," and reported the Altonians he left behind as being in like condition, with one exception, which we will not notice further than to intimate that it was hinted to us that in all probability a pretty l-well, no matten Dick knows what we mean.

WRITING SCHOOL .- Samuel Brenizer, a professor of penmanship, is now in this place and purposes opening a writing school. We have examined his specimens of penmanship and stricken wife resided, and by the neighbors on think them equal to any we have ever seen,— His system of teaching the art is, we think, superior to that of any professor who is now travgordel to this departed friend and his sorrowing elling. He hoots at the idea of a writing maswidow. May the Lord sustain her in her be- ter teaching the art perfectly in six lessons.— He gives twenty, at the end of which time the pupil can write as well as the teacher. Price $3,00 per scholar.

CASSVILLE SEMINARY. In our advertising solumns will be found the card of the above Seminary. From all that we can learn, and we have heard mention made of it frequently, we believe it is one of the best institutions of the kind in the interior of the State, and well worthy the patronage of those who have children they wish to place at such an institution of learning. It is distant from any large towns, and consequently distant from their vices and alurements; nevertheless it is easy of access.-Send for a catalogue.

PRINTING IN EUROPE.—There are now in France 1037 printing offices, which employ 9.500 compositors, 3,000 pressmen, and 900 correctors and overseers. The printing force of London, alone, greatly exceeds that of all France. The little kingdom of Belgium has, at the present time, 262 periodicals, whilst France and England count only from 270 to 800 each. Holland has 100; Prussia, 70; Austria, 40; Spain, 54; Switzerland, 28; Portugal, 13; Denmark, 14. There are about two thousand periodicals published in Europe, at the present time, and nearly 1500 in the rest of the world excepting the United States, where, should the present ratio of increase he not retarded by a money panic, we shall soon have five thousand regularly published periodicals, or more than are to be found in all the rest of the world put together.

Nervous Diseases Controlled and Conquered.

Of all the various ille that detract from the enjoyment of human life most of them may be traced to a disordered condition of the nervous system. The horrors of Epilepsy, or Falling Sickness, arise in most cases from this cause. Our readers may remember, on several occasions before, we have alfuded to the wonderful cures, or modifications of Bits, made by the Vegetable Extract Epileptic Pills, invented and prepared by Dr. Seth S. Hance, of 108 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md. We feel fully satisfied that these Fills have cured some of the most stubborn cases of Epilepsy, as well as the milder forms of Fits, such as severe Cramps, Spasms, &c. We now record the fact, that persons will find these Pills equally efficacious in curing overyform of nervous debility;—no matter whether manifested in the soute and excruciating form of Neuralgia, Tic-Doloreux, or Nervous Headache, the misery of Dyspepsia or Indigestion, the sufferings of Rheumatism or Gout, the melancholy hallucination of depressed spirits or hysteria, their effects will be equally happy and certain. Persons in the country can write to the inventor, and have the medicine forwarded to them by mail. The prices are, one box, $3; two boxes $5; twelve boxes $24; and sent to any part of the country, free of postage. Direct your communications to SETH S. DROSPECTUS OF A NEW WORK

WILD SCENES ON THE PRONTIERS; HEROES OF THE WEST

"Westward, the course of Empire takes its way." This Work, is the course of Empire takes its way."

This Work, is the owir one in Book form, which for several years has emanated from the pen of the gifted author, who treads now alone the path ones trodden by our own Cooper. It will contain graphic pictures of the conflicts of the hardy Piopeer, whose strifes and struggles with his Indian foe, rival the tales of fiction and the tragic counterfeits of the mimic stage. Also thrilling narratives of the daring deeds, the heart-trials, the heroic devotion and self-denial of noble women, the mothers of the West! Boneath the over-arching forests, hand to hand, and foot to sent-tental of noble women, the mothers of the West! Bo-neath the over-arching forests, hand to hand, and foot to foot the intreplid adventurer has encountered in deadly combat the ruffian desperadoes who made their hannts in the backwoods, and his gallant achievements have thrown a halo of romance over the waving prairies, the grand old mountains, and the majestic rivers of the land of the set-ting sun!

mountains, and the majestic rivers of the land of the senter somes ting sun!

Nor are these pages wanting in those gentler somes which make up home-life, and which are pictured with all the skill and fidelity for which the author is pre-eminently distinguished. His delineation of Frontier character, and of the scenery of the Burders, has always the advantage of the scenery of the Burders, has always the advantage of the scenery of the sc an accuracy which is the result of an intimate, personal acquaintance.

The Work will be printed on fine white paper, in char open type, and appropriately and beautifully linetrated by the most skillful artists. 12mo., Cloth. Price, 1.25.
