FEN AND SCISSORS.

Arrived—the big "squire" on Saturday last. Lovely—the fall and winter fashions of ladies bonnets.

A grand Fireman's parade came off at Harrisburg on Tuesday last. "Ossawatimic" Brown is stated to be the father of twenty-two children.

Coming—Thanksgivings, with its dinners of turkey and other "fixins." No man can afford his own company—so he had best make it as good as possible.

Somehow uncertain—the Harrisburg editors about the time the new schedule will go into operation. There is many a man whose tongue might govern multitudes...

Not true—that Heenan, the "Benjamin Boy" was killed in a prize fight in Canada. It was a fellow who killed himself Heenan.

Why are young ladies at the breaking up of a party like quaws? Because they can't go off without a beau, and are in a quiver till they get one.

Gen. Shaffer, Senator from the Lancaster County District is already spoken of by one of the papers as a candidate for Speaker of the next Senate.

It takes three editors to start a paper in New Orleans—one to get killed in a duel, one to die with the yellow fever, and one to write an obituary of the defunct one.

Some undacious squander or scoundrel entered the Whig office, at Hollidaysburg, on Saturday night last, and threw into it a number of cases and galleys of type.

Now—Old Billy Smith. His establishment is gone in the hands of John Alexander & Co., who will serve up oysters, &c., to all who call on them in the best style.

Recovering. We are pleased to learn from the Harrisburg papers, that Gen. Roundford, Supt. Phila. Division, P. R. R., is recovering slowly, from his recent attack of fever.

Stated—by one of the city papers, that the whipping post is one of the best institutions in Delaware. If this be true, her other "institutions" are not of a very good kind.

Young's Spirit of the South and West has been united with Porter's Spirit of the Times of New York. Porter's Spirit is now the best sporting paper in the country...

A curiosity has recently been discovered in the sand pit of Captain Nulton, at Kittanning. The depth of twenty feet from the surface...

SINGULAR CATASTROPHE.—A farmer named Harris Durbin was nearly killed near New Holland, Ohio, in a singular manner, last week. He was trying to catch an unbroken colt with a lasso...

Another item of presumptive evidence of the insanity of "Ossawatimic Brown" has been discovered—it is stated that he is the father of twenty-two children!
