> ELECTION !- Great Excitement !- The colored folks of our county have an organization they call the "Sinking Fund Association;" and on Monday last the election of its officers came off, and occasioned a high excitement among the members. There were two tickets in the field; one denominated the "Regular" and the other "Guerills;" and the supporters of each brought into requisition every cunning expedient to win the day that they could devise, even to the 'double-header" dodge; but the "Regulars" were too many for their opponents and laid them out "flat," electing for President, Wm. Nesbit Vice President, H. Molson; Treasurer, Moses Brown; Corresponding Secretary, Thos. Shorter; Recording Secretary, M. B. Brooks; Managers, John Alexander, Daniel Williams, jr.,

Samuel Thompson, Charles Ambrose. --- Register. ATTENTION! We had the pleasure of listening to his remarks, and we shall ever feel grateful to Col. Weitzel, that through his instrumentality we were enabled so to do :--

THAT CHRISTIAN CONDUCTOR. - In a recent issue we published an item, extracted from the proceedings of the Philadelphia Sunday School Union, in relation to a Conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad, who, finding on board a minister he had heard lecture the night previous, remarked that he would like to have him hold a prayer-meeting at Altoona, where the clergyman intended stopping over night. The latter consented, provided the Conductor could make the necessary arrangements. "The Conductor jumped off at the next station, telegraphed to Altoons, that a meeting be called for one of the churches at once—that it be notified all over the town, that on the arrival of the train everything might be in readiness. It was done. At the next station, the reply came through the telegraph that the order was obeyed, and everything was ready. The meeting was held-the house filled to overflowing, and a solemn oceasion it was to all." We have since learned that the Conductor alluded to is our townsman, Col. Joseph Weitzel, one of the most polite, accommodating and popular officers on the road, and China, arrived safely at Hong Kong, on the 4th a very zealous and consistent member of the Locust Street Methodist Church.

Fun ar Home.—Don't be afraid of a little fun at home, good people! Don't shut up your house, lest the sun should fade your carpets; and your hearts, lest a hearty laugh should shake down some of the musty old cobwebs there! If you want to ruin your sons, let them think that all mirth and social enjoyment must be left on the threshold without when they come home at night, When once home is regarded as only a place to eat, drink and sleep, the work is begun that ends in gambling houses and reckless degradation. Young people must have fun and relaxation somewhere; if they do not find it at their own hearthstones, it will be sought in other, and perhaps less profit ble places. Therefore, let the fire burn brightly at night, and make the home-nest delightful with all those little arts that parents so perfectly understand.-Don't repress the buoyant spirits of your children; half an hour merriment round the lamp and firelight of a home blots out the remembrance of many a care and annoyance during the day, and the best safeguard they can take with them into the world is the unseen influence of a bright little domestic sanctum.

LECTURE .- Rov. W. S. H. Keys will lecture in the United Brethren Church, in this place, this (Wednesday) evening, on the Heathen World, during the delivery of which he will exhibit a number of Heathen Gods and other curiosities obtained from missionaries who have visited Heathen countries. Those who have heard the lecture pronounce it excellent and well worth a hearing. The proceeds of the lecture are to be applied to liquidating the debt of the Church. Doors open at 7 o'clock, lecture to commence half an hour later. Single tickets 25 cents-family tickets 50 cents.

The following note, received a day or two since, we give to our readers to criticise, think, or laugh over, as they may feel inclined:

EAST ALTOONA, Dec. 12, 1859. Messrs. Editors :- Next Thursday the celebration will take place. Then the whole town will be alive, like a beggar's shirt. There will be a general stirring up of the genus homo from one end of the county to the other. The fires of enthusiasm will be kindled in every heart, and many of those who look on in patriotic glory will doubtless supply themselves with the article at the houses around the corners. Dear friends, this sixpenny patriotism is horrible stuff. It is patriotism of the head, and not of the heart; it makes you feel too independent altogether. It induces you to fight in time of peace, and takes all the starch out of your courage in time of war. While this artificial patriotism is effervescing in your cocoanuts, your boasts of independence are loud and clamerous, but when its spirit has evaporated you are the veriest serviles that ever writhed under the lash of despotism. If you suppose, my friends, that the proper way to observe our celebration is by drinking brandy slings and gin cock-tails, you are about as much mistaken as the boy was who set a bear trap to catch bed-bugs. My dear friends, I like to see you celebrate the introduction of gas and water, if it be not done in a vain and braggart spirit, and my gratuitous prayer is, that you may enjoy it as long as you are permitted to squat on this side of Jordon. To prening on Express Train time should it be much intending to participate in the celebration, will behind. ENTIRELY NEW. and he fintters himself that he has something to please the eye of of every lady, and suit the wants of every goatheman. He deems it unnecessary to enumerate all the articles of the shelves, (as to do so would require a whole newspaper,) but would say that he has everything in the line of LADIES' DRESS GOODS which this meridian calls for, and all just suited to the season, together with a well selected assortment of House urnishing Goods, such as Carpets, Window Blinds, Shades FOR GENTLEMEN. o has a great variety—from which they can not fail to nake a satisfactory selection. He has also a the top as ortment of and chenp as can GROCERIES be had this side of the place of sortment of ufacture. Also, HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, and everything necessary to complete a store in a thriving town like Altoona.

All he asks is that the people call and examine his stock, which he will at all times take pleasure in showing, and he feels confident that he can send them away rejoicing, if not in the purchase of just such an article as they wanted. at the remembrance of having looked upon the handso est stock of Goods ever exhibited in the town.
