LOCAL ITEMS.

ROBERT.—On Sunday night, or rather Monday morning last, some gentleman in search of bread, entered the store of Mr. Thos. Elway, in the "Brant House," and helped himself to some eight or ten pieces of cloth. He effected an entrance through the front door, by means of a false key, and after getting in locked the door again. He then made his selections, taking all the best pieces of cloth on the shelves, and a pattern of a blue cloth coat, partly out of his pack made up, he removed an iron bar, with which the back door was secured, and passed out the back way, leaving the door of the work shop open. One of the workmen in the shop did not leave until 12 o'clock on Sunday night, so that it is evident the robbery did not take place until after that hour, and the robber must have been watching his opportunity. Joe Ely was fitted out with a search-warrant as speedily as possible, but has not yet succeeded in discovering the whereabouts of the missing articles. Mr. Elway estimates his loss at about $130.

THE GAME LAW.—Together with many of our contemporaries, we have been in error in regard to the provisions of the game law now in existence, having confounded the old with the new. The act of April, 1859, provides that no person shall kill or otherwise destroy any pheasant between the first day of February and the first day of August, or any woodcock between the first day of February and the fourth day of May, or any partridge or rabbit between the first day of February and the first day of October, under a penalty of five dollars for each and every offence. It will be seen that the law goes into effect on the first of February, and not on the first of January, as stated by us a short time since.

OPENING STREETS.—For a long time, the subject of opening streets through the town of Greensburg (now part of Altoona), to correspond with those in Altoona proper, has been agitated, and several ineffectual attempts have been made to accomplish so desirable an improvement to the appearance and convenience of the town and people. At the last term of the Court a petition praying for the opening of the streets was presented, whereupon the Court appointed a committee of six to view the streets desired to be opened, and assess the damages to be paid to the owners whose property would be injured thereby. The committee attended to the duty assigned it on Wednesday last, but we have not as yet received their report they intend to make.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Thursday, Dec. 22d, while Mr. Thomas Kay, a citizen of Beccaria township in Blair county with a load of fire, on the front end-board of the sled-board, on which he was seated, came out and caused him to fall down in front of the sled, which ran on and the rough-look catching him, he was thrown to the position until a neighbor of his, who was a short distance ahead, came to his aid and extracted him from his perilous situation. He was injured much in the region of the abdomen and thighs, and will probably not recover for a long time, if ever.—Clearfield Jour.

ROLLING MILL IN ALTOONA.—We understand that an effort is now being made to raise capital sufficient to put up a Rolling Mill at this place, and it is thought by those who ought to know, that the effort will be successful. That such an enterprise would pay, is not doubted. We hope to see the matter entered into by our capitalists with that spirit which is characteristic of our citizens. The erection of such a building would add greatly to the prosperity of our town. We shall be glad to see something more to say about the enterprise hereafter.

WE noticed the Superintendent of the Altoona Gas and Water Works making a tour of the town on Monday morning last, taking down the number of feet of gas consumed during the month ending on the 15th inst., and we presume say by this time gas consumers know whether they are getting their gas for the most expensive. The latter, we think, will, in some cases, be found the most expensive, but the difference in the quality of the light will make up the increase in price.

The last Quarterly Meeting for the present Conference year will be held in the Methodist Church, on Friday evening week. Religious services will commence on Saturday evening following. Rev. A. M. Barnitz, of Huntington, will be present to assist in the services. The treatment of the Lord's supper will be dispensed on Sunday morning, after preaching.

Altoona Mechanics' Library and Reading-Room Association.

At an election held on Saturday evening week, (Jan. 7th, 1860,) the following persons were elected officers of the Association for the ensuing year, viz:—

- President.—Thos. P. Sargent.
Vice President.—C. R. McCrea.
Secretary.—Benj. F. Custer.
Librarian.—D. T. Caldwell.
Directors.—D. Galbraith, C. V. B. Kennedy, Ambrose Ward, W. C. McCormick, C. J. Mann, Richard Gill.

At a meeting held after the close of the election, the Librarian and Treasurer presented the following reports:
READING-ROOM, A. M. L. & R. R. A.
To the President and Members of the Altoona Mechanics' Library and Reading-Room Association:
GENTLEMEN:—Although no report is required of me by the laws of the Association, yet I have thought it would be satisfactory to you to be informed of the extent to which the books belonging to the Library have been circulated. Acting upon this thought, I herewith present a report detailing all the information I can command:

Table with columns for Number of books in the Library at time of organization, Number of books in the Library at present, and Average number of books taken out per month.

At present out, 497 1/2
Average number of books taken out per month, 497 1/2
The following Magazines and Newspapers are received by the Association regularly:
MAGAZINES.—NEWSPAPERS.

Webster's Dictionary, Unabridged, Appleton's Dictionary of Mechanics, Dictionary of Poetical Quotations, Gazetteer of the United States, A Cyclopaedia of Commerce, Roget's Thesaurus of English Words, Colton's Atlas of the World, Blake's Biographical Dictionary, Mississippi R. R. Reports.

Under the existing laws I cannot see how I could enter into any of the above books, the members, when called upon to do so. Very frequently it happens that the members who are in the habit of reading nightly in the Room, are deprived of valuable information, in consequence of a momentary monopolizing of either of the above books. I hope the recommendation will be adopted upon favorably, thereby securing equal privileges to the members for future reference, accessible at all times.

The authors of light literature most popular with the members are J. Fennimore Cooper, Sir Walter Scott and Charles Dickens. Valuable works on Mechanics, History and Poetry remain on our shelves for months, uncalled for, so little is the interest manifested in these subjects; while on the contrary there is an eager demand for works of light literature. This substitution of light reading for the more solid and valuable is to be regretted. While I deplore this decided preference, I can by no means censure those who prefer that order of literature, or even detest to them what books they should read.

The progress of light literature has been such as to give pleasure to its friends and a reason of hope that it will yet become an institution, destined to be productive of much good to those who will avail themselves of its benefits. It may be proper to add, that its success so far, has sadly failed to realize the anticipations of its enemies.

Never having been a member of any Literary Association previous to this one, much less one of its principal officers, I felt diffident in accepting the office of Librarian, fearing I would lack the ability essential to the management of a circulating library. However, by the assistance of kind and experienced friends, I have succeeded in discharging my duties in a manner which I hope has been satisfactory to the members. Nearly all the duties of the office are now so systematized and arranged that by the exercise of a little care and attention, the routine will be easily carried out by my successor. In entering from the office, I cannot permit this opportunity to pass without thanking all those who have in any way aided me in the discharge of my duties. To Mr. B. F. Custer, the Chairman of the Library Committee, and to my chief and gentlemanly Assistant Librarian, Messrs. James Plowman and Fred Ward, I am particularly indebted for the material aid which they have rendered me. My successor, Mr. Plowman, is fully acquainted with the duties of the office, and will, no doubt, render all the satisfaction necessary to its successful maintenance. Wishing the Association an unusual degree of success, during the present year, allow me to remain, Yours respectfully, CHAS. V. B. KENNEDY, Librarian.

A good candidate.

Dr. KERRAN.—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, he affords no pleasure in recommending your Patent Syrup. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be affected with colds, coughs and hoarseness of any kind; and for its peculiar qualifications for removing that disagreeable secretion, called a severe cold.

I have been, more or less, in my life afflicted with the severest of colds, and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup, it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say, that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent in our country. Yours, most respectfully, EDWARD D. JONES, Cashier, Citizens' Deposit Bank.

MISSRS. ENROLLERS.—The time is fast approaching for the spring elections. Among the offices to be elected, will be a Justice of the Peace, and since several persons are spoken of as candidates for the important office, we propose the name of William Gable, of the East Ward. Mr. Gable is a gentleman well qualified to fill the office. For integrity, industry and sobriety, he is second to none in the borough, and should be elected the citizens will be proud of their officer.

At a stated meeting of the Good Will Engine and Hose Company, held on the evening of the above date, the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the thanks of the Company be tendered Messrs. McCrum & Dero, of the Altoona Tribune, for their many favors; also, to Miss Anna M. Rose, for a beautiful wreath presented on the day of the parade; also, to the citizens of Altoona in general, for their liberality which has always been prompt when solicited.
