HOMEDAYSBURG, Feb, 4th, 1860. Hon. SAMUEL CALVIN:-The question of American labor, is, in view of the great depression in all the industrial interests of our country, deeply agitating the public mind: and it is only by a truthful exposition of the principles of a "Home Market," that labor can be elevated to a high and proper standard in this country.

ALMOST A DUEL. -- We have just been made ence to a difficulty which came very near being settled agreeably to the laws of the "code duello," the preventing cause being inserted in its proper place. It appears that two of our citizens had a little difficulty about sawing wood. Sharp words were exchanged and hard blows would have been the result, had it not struck one of the parties that a duel would be a more honorable and satisfactory mode of settling the account.

Accordingly a challenge was sent and accepted.

Seconds were chosen, horse-pistols selected as the weapons, distance ten paces, and the time between 9 and 12 o'clock, A. M., on Monday, Feb. 13th. One of the parties appeared anxions for the time to arrive, in order that he might wipe out the insult that had been given him, or be himself wiped out of existence .-

Like a thoughtful man, he settled up all his business, that he might be prepared for the latter contingency. At just 30 minutes past eleven o'clock, on the appointed day, the parties met.

The seconds loaded the pistols, and stepped off the distance, after which they placed the princi-tals in their positions and handed them the pis-ols. The crisis had now been reached. The seconds stepped back from their men and prepared to give the word of command, when lo!

the pistol drops from the hand of one of the beligerents and the last seen of him was his coat tail turning the nearest corner at 2,40 speed. Thus ended what might otherwise have been a terrible tragedy. The pistols, we be-
