PRESENTATION. - A number of the employees in the Altoona workshops of the l'enn'a R. R., met at the saloon of F. Nothwang, on the 14th inst., agreeably to previous arrangement, to present to Mr. Paul Buckwalter, late Assistant Foreman, a testimonial of their esteem for him as a man. Mr. B. having been notified of the Friday last. time and place, was present, and was addressed by one of the Employees as follows:-

Mr. Buckwalter-It is with pleasure I meet you again, in union of good fellowship, with this body of fellow workmen, who have been your companions in the Altoona work-shops of low journeyman. and as one of the foremen over them, during which time you have gained their confidence and esteem; not only as a man of true feeling, but of strict justice and integrity in all your dealings with them. They, regretting your der of Altoona. resignation from your late foremanship over them, have determined to present you, this evening, with a token of their regard and good will in the shape of a gold watch, which I present to you, and which, I doubt not, you will receive with pleasure, it being a present not only valuable, but a tripket pleasant to view. By referonce to its face you may regulate your time, and it will also be a token of times gone by, and will give rise to pleasant thoughts during your travels through life. It will be your monitor to induce you hereafter to, follow in the same path of rectitude, in your actions and dealings with your fellow-workmen, in whatever capacity you may be placed, that has won for you the esteem of those by whom you are now surrounded. In conclusion, I wish you success in all our future undertakings, and hope that the ink which has bound you to us all may never be broken. May we meet often in the union of

Mr. Buckwalter, on receiving the watch, replied with feeling, saying that it was more than he expected that he had gained the good will of those with whom he had been associated during the time of his employment by the Penn'a R. R. Co., at Altoona, he would cherish the token presented, not for its value, but for the good will and feeling toward him, represented by it,

Don'r DO IT, GIRLS.—We find the following advice to girls in our exchanges, and copy it for the benefit of the feminines of this region: There is a practice, quite prevalent among young ladies of the present day, which we are old-fashioned enough to consider very improper. We allude to their giving daguerreotypes of themselves to young men who are merely acquaintances. We consider it indelicate in the highest degree. We are astonished that any young girl should hold herself so cheap as this. With an accepted lover it is of course all right. Even in this case the likeness should be returned, if the engagement should by any misunderstanding cease. If this little paragraph, should meet the eye of any young girl about to give her daguerrectype to a gentleman acquaintance, let her know that the remarks made by young men when tegether, concerning what is perhaps on her part but a piece of ignorance or imprudence, would, if she heard them, cause her cheeks to crimson with shame and anger.

THE VALUE OF GOOD LUNGS .- We advise our readers who are desirous of preserving the usefulness of the lungs and bronchial apparatus not to defer taking medicine in time for their cure. Most of the consumptive cases which end fatally, are the result of a small beginning of a cough or cold, which could easily be removed by a bottle of Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrap, now put up and sold at 50 cts. and $1 per bottle. It has had abundant evidence of its vast superiority over most other remedies, and those who resort to it in time will save a great deal of suffering from those disagreeable diseases which are so prevalent during the winter and spring months. You can get it at Dr. Keyser's Drug Store, No. 140 Wood street. For sale by G. W.

PICTURE GALLERY .- W. If. Amey, of Harrisburg, would respectfully inform the citizens of Altoons and vicinity that he has taken the picture gallery of Mr. Clabaugh, in this place, where he is located permanently, and hopes by strict attention to business to merit the patron-

COUNTING HOUSE CALCULATIONS. - A thorough knowledge of this subject is indispensable to the practical man in any business, yet the only Commercial School of the Union which makes this branch a speciality, having a separate apartment in which it is taught with all its abbreviations, 194 by a teacher giving it his entire time, and requiring rigid examination every week, is the Iron City College of Pittsburgh, Pa.
